LOCAL NEWS

Tomorrow is Hallowe'en, or All Saints' day.

Mr J B Morris of Taft was in town Monday.

Mr M D DeLorme of Charleston is in Kingstree today.

Wanted, a Thanksgiving turkey for cash, or on subscription.

Miss Bessie Grimsley of Lake City is visiting Miss Janie McIntosh.

Mr Thos McCutchen, is out of town this week on a business trip.

Mr J T DuBose of Cades paid us a visit while in Kingstree last Thursday.

Mr M F Heller is on a trip to the Western live stock markets this week.

Wanted, several loads of pine and oak wood for house and office. Cash or subscription.

Mr N M Young of Lake City was in Kingstree Monday and paid his respects to The Record office.

Miss Clara Montgomery is teaching as substitute for Miss Agnes Erckmann while the latter is at the State Fair.

Mr Z H McDaniel of Vox, the efficient mail carrier on one of the rural routes, was in Kingstree last Saturday for the first time in one year.

Miss Janet Tallent, who has been the guest of the Misses McIntosh, returned to her home at St Charles Tuesday. Mrs S R Freeborn accompanied her.

Mr Alfine O Matthews left last Friday evening for Ellore, where he has accepted a position as salesman in the grocery establishment of Mr Louis Jacobs, Jr.

Dr W L Taylor, accompanied in his automobile by Messrs W T Hamer, A L McElveen and — Caldwell, left Kingstree Tuesday for Columbia to attend the State Fair. The party will return tomorrow.

The young ladies of Kingstree have issued curious looking invitations to a Hallowe'en party to be given at Nelson's warehouse tomorrow night. Most likely the party will be as novel as the invitations are curious.

Mrs Amelia Scott and her daughter, Miss Caroline, went to Charleston Monday, where the latter acted as a bridesmaid for her cousin, Miss Ruth Harleston Simons, who was married Wednesday at Grace church to Mr Francis Cart of Mt Vernon, N Y.

Wonder if the parties selling ranges and sewing-machines throughout the county have paid any license? Under Judge Gary's recent decision in the Bennettville case these men are liable to pay an occupation tax the same as our home merchants who bear the heat and burden of the day year in and year out.

Read carefully our magazine offer in this paper. Nearly all the leading magazines have given notice that their subscription prices will be advanced anywhere from twenty-five to fifty per cent after November 10. If our list does not include any magazine you want send us your club list and let us quote our prices.

S Oliver O'Bryan, Esq., and Dr W M Brockington went to Heinemann last Saturday to help Mr W M O'Bryan celebrate his 58th birthday, and what they did for the feast even made the Doctors Boyd wonder, and anything which can make Dr I N Boyd wonder when it comes to an appetite demonstration must be great. — Manning Times.

Among those from Kingstree attending the State Fair at Columbia are: Mrs H L McIntosh, Miss Irene Mcintosh, Mr and Mrs S H Dew, L W Gilland, Esq., Dr A M Snider, Mr Grant Van Keuren, Hon E C Epps, C W Stoll, E L Hirsch and J A Kelley, Esqs, Messrs R L Holroyd, L P Kinder, J W Cook, W C Claiborne, Mesdames W C Claiborne, J A Kelley, Misses Agnes Erckmann, Alice McConnell and Bessie Swann.

The per capita expenditure by counties for school children has just been completed by Mr J E Swearingen, State Superintendent of Education, who is compiling the figures for his annual report. The county of Marion leads, taking both races, with Charleston second, Marion spending $18.41 per capita and Charleston $14.58. Williamsburg county spends $12.23 per capita for white pupils and $1.12 for colored. For both races the average is $5.25.

We were pleased to receive a visit Friday of last week from Mr H J Hearsey, the popular young principal of Lanes High school. Mr Hearsey is a native of Marlboro county, being a grandson of Mr Z T Drake, whose prize acre of corn yielding 258 bushels and 3 pecks is still the world's record for corn production. Quite recently Mr Hearsey more closely identified himself with Williamsburg county by leading to the hymeneal altar one of Kingstree's fair and charming demoiselles.

The Cambridge Players will be the next Lyceum attraction at the school auditorium, instead of the Alkahest Artists, as stated last week in these columns, the programme having recently been changed by the management so as to give Kingstree the Alkahest Aatists in December instead of November. The Cambridge players are high class entertainers and will doubtless be greeted by a large audience upon their appearance here early next month. The exact date will be announced later.

A good many subscribers have responded to our appeals and paid their subscriptions to the paper, and we thank them; but we still have over $1,000 owing on subscription. Think what this means to us. The advertisement and job departments just about pay our operating expenses and what is collected on subscription comes to us in the way of profit. It means only a dollar or so to the individual subscriber, but if we fail to collect these accounts, it means to us our whole year's work gone for nothing. With expenses constantly increasing we have so far kept the paper at the same price of subscription, but in order to make our living expenses we must have the small amount we charge. Now, don't delay this matter, but send or bring us what you owe for subscription.

We take pleasure in directing attending to advertisement in this issue of Bentschner & Vianska, the "One Price" Charleston clothiers and haberdashers. This is one of oldest and most reliable clothing houses in Charleston; they can fit you with anything to wear from head to foot and you know you are getting their lowest price, which is the same to every one. Mr Julian Jacobs of Kingstree, who has been their "right hand man" for years, will take pleasure in serving you, especially if you mention that you are from Williamsburg county. Mail orders receive careful and personal attention and satisfaction is guaranteed. When you write to or call on these gentlemen mention that you saw their ad in The Record—it will be gratifying both to the paper and to the advertiser.

There are being sold here Ranges by other than regular dealers. We wish to say that if we can't give you a better Range for less money, we will give you the Range. Before buying, let us show you ours. WILLIAMSBURG HARDWARE CO. 10-30-2t

With Our Advertisers,

Read Surveyor Laurence H McCullough's notice in this issue.

Don't overlook the ad of the Pee Dee fair at Florence November 12-14.

County Commissioner Hammet's quarterly report appears in The Record today.

The Bank of Cades invites all that have money or need money to deal there. See ad.

There are three barbers (white) operating the Kellahan hotel barber shop. They invite your patronage. See ad in this issue.

The Bank of Cades and the Bank of Greelyville have their called statements in this issue.

T E Baggett, jeweler, has just received a fine assortment of ladies' and gents' rings. See ad.

A splendid line of holiday gifts is advertised by James Allan & Co., Charleston's old reliable jewelers.

Keep an eye on the advertising columns of The Record for J W Coward's announcement in an early issue.

For a basketful of fine groceries go to L D Rodgers & Co and you will never go amiss. Read their new ad.

Every teacher in Williamsburg county should read and heed Superintendent Speigner's notice, published elsewhere.

The Bank of Williamsburg gives notice of a stockholders' meeting to consider the question of increasing its capital stock, etc.

A rare opportunity for investment in real estate, either for home sites or speculation, is offered in the sale of 75 choice lots next Monday at "hustling Hemingway." Read the half-page ad and buy a lot or lots.

On page 12 of The Record today is a full-page ad of The People's Mercantile Co. This firm is well known for its business ability and integrity. When they advertise a thing you can just pin your faith to the assertion, for it's so, it's real, and you will find their goods just as represented. Read their big ad.

The "old man" of the firm of Jenkinson Bros Co is still forging ahead and never allows any grass to grow in his furrows, whether he's raising beans, corn, potatoes or cotton, or driving bargains in his great dry goods business, at the old stand or on the Stackley corner. Just turn these pages and read his ads carefully.

S Marcus has a change of ad in this issue calling attention to his ladies' coat suit department, which is to the ladies one of the most interesting places in Kingstree, for his suits are nobby and up-to-date in every particular. Take a look at his handsome display windows and you can get an idea of what he has in stock, or better still, read his ad.

We are unloading a car of the famous Oliver Chilled Plows, which we can sell at a price that guarantees you your money's worth, WILLIAMSBURG HARDWARE CO. 10-30-2t

Referred to Miss Erckmann.

A little girl who was just beginning to read her primer was asked to spell cow.
"C-o-w," she replied promptly.
"How do you spell cows?"
"C-o-w, c-o-w, c-o-w."

See our two and three horse Plow for deep plowing. Mr F W Fairry says nothing else will touch it for results. 10-30-2t
