I find so much of goodness still;
In men whom MEN pronounce divine,
I find so much of sin and blot—
Hesitate to draw the line
Between the two—where God has not."

THURSDAY, NOV. 6, 1913.

It affords us pleasure to publish this week a letter from Ernest M. Joye, of Hemingway, telling simply and modestly the story of his wonderful achievement in corn growing the past two years. From a single acre of Williamsburg soil this remarkable lad gathered in two successive years three hundred and sixty-five bushels of corn. Well may President Phinizy, of the Georgia Railroad Bank, say "it couldn't be done." But this boy, Ernest, went ahead and did it. We are glad to learn that Ernest is going to college, although he will be missed from "the ring", which he says he leaves to other ambitious boys. His example is well worthy of emulation. We hope it may be an inspiration to many other bright boys. The value of the special advertisement he has given his county and State within the past two years would be hard to estimate. We wish our young friend might well and we shall watch with interest his future career.

FUSION WINS IN NEW YORK.
Democratic Victories in New Jersey and Massachusetts.

New York, November 4:—Election returns at a late hour tonight showed a complete triumph for the Democrats in Massachusetts, where a Governor and State ticket were elected in a four-cornered fight; the election of a Democratic Governor and State ticket in Virginia without contest, the ascendancy of fusion over Tammany in New York city, with indications of Republican victory for the New York Assembly and judicial ticket, and a close fight for the State ticket in New Jersey, where President Wilson and Administration forces fought to elect Jas J. Fielder to the Governorship. In Maryland a Democratic Senator was chosen.

In Massachusetts David I. Walsh, Democrat, present Lieutenant Governor, was elected by a plurality of about 50,000 over Augustus P. Gardner, Republican; Charles R. Bird, Progressive, and Governor Eugene E. Foss, Independent.

Henry C. Stuart was chosen Governor of Virginia, together with an entire State ticket. Republicans and Progressives had declined to name candidates because of inability to agree on a united ticket.

Returns from New Jersey were delayed, though Democratic leaders claimed a safe plurality for James J. Fielder for Governor over Edward C. Stokes, Republican, and Everett Colby, Progressive. In the early returns Stokes and Fielder were running neck and neck. The Democrats claimed Hudson county for Fielder by 25,000, while Republican leaders asserted supremacy for Stokes. Fielder, who succeeded President Wilson as Governor of New Jersey, had the support of the National Administration, several members of the Cabinet taking the stump in his behalf.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOW AT LAKE CITY.

BUILDING ACTIVITY—A LINEN SHOWER—DEATH OF AN INFANT—PERSONAL MENTION.

Lake City, November 5:—A number of new buildings and residences are now under construction, among which are the bungalow of Rev. W. H. Whitehead on Blanding street, a large and beautiful cottage on Thomas street owned by Mr. Edwin Rodgers, Miss Lilly McElveen's house on Williamsburg avenue, the completion of the additional store on the Truluck block, the two brick stores adjoining the Lake City Drug Company building on Main street, being built by Messrs. Epps and Epps, and the $3,500 crematory to be finished in a few days.

The A. C. L. railroad has a steam shovel at work just across the trestle removing dirt to fill in the large ditches on the company's right of way. It is understood that a double track will be built on this line all the way from Charleston. However, this is merely rumor!

Prof. T. Cook Covington has returned to Lake City to resume his work here as superintendent of the schools, after a prolonged stay with his mother, who is still confined to a sanatorium in Richmond, Va.

Miss Margaret Winston was the honor guest last Saturday afternoon, when Miss Mayme Green, assisted by Misses Rogers, Lemond and Morris, entertained with a linen shower at Miss Green's home on Thomas street. The reception hall, parlor and dining-room were lovely in the color scheme, pink and green hearts, Cupids and wedding bells. Much fun was had in compiling a "book of recipes for the bride," at which time many very original and clever recipes and suggestions were tendered Miss Winston. After the book was completed a small express wagon consigned to the bride was brought in, loaded with many pretty and useful pieces of linen. Delicious refreshments consisting of ambrosia, cakes and fruit punch were served.

A number of our citizens are attending court in Florence this week.

Miss Olivia Stuekey returned home last week, after spending several days in Columbia.

The cool and invigorating weather, Robinson's show Thursday, the approaching marriages and other interesting events have given new zest to most of us.

Little A. M. Parker, Jr., arrived last Sunday morning and will be at home with his parents on North Main street.

Mr. A. Miller was called to Bishopville Tuesday morning, where his wife and infant had been spending some time with Mrs. Miller's parents. News was received here later that the baby contracted pneumonia recently and died yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Snow Kirby and sister of Seranton were in town Monday.

President Wilson and his policies were made the dominant issue.

In New York city the triumph of the fusion ticket was assured and late returns from the State indicated a Republican majority in the General Assembly and the selection of a Republican Chief Justice of the court of appeals, and the supreme court justices.

For United States Senator Maryland chose Blair Lee, Democrat.

Democrats triumphed also in the 20th New York Congressional district, where Jacob H. Cantor was elected; the 13th New York, Geo. W. Loft succeeding the late "Tim" Sullivan and the 3rd Maryland district, Charles P. Coady being the choice.

Returns from the 3rd Massachusetts district had not been received at a late hour, but Democratic leaders claimed a victory.

Items From Rome.

Rome, November 4:—Mr. T. S. Chandler and Miss Louise Addie Rogers of Florence were quietly married Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the former's brother, Mr. Ben Jim Chandler, Rev. J. O. Carraway officiating. Miss Rogers had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chandler for about six weeks. Cupid's arrow never misses its mark, as it was a case of love at first sight.

The Woman's Missionary society will meet Thursday afternoon, November 6, at 4:30 o'clock, sharp. It is

Endurance Counts Most
WHEN your sheds are full of machines and one or two are crowded out into the open, which is it that invariably stands outside with the sun and the wind beating on it every day, drying and warping the wood, or with rain rusting the iron? It's the wagon. Other machines are stored away, dry and covered, yet many of them work for short seasons only. The wagon works the year around, is always under the strain of heavy burdens, always getting rough treatment. It can't stand the strain of such a life for many years unless, like IHC wagons—

Weber Columbus New Bettendorf Steel King

it has built into it the utmost of endurance, toughness, and sturdiness. IHC wagons are built of wood of very best quality, every bit as good as they look. Look them over, you don't find any cross grained, knotty, split, or faulty timber. Every stick—oak and hickory for the wheels, yellow or bay poplar for box sides and long leaf yellow pine for bottoms, is selected from first grade lumber and carefully inspected. Every stick is toughened and seasoned by two or three years of air-drying.

All steel and iron parts are chosen with the same end in view—greatest durability and longest life. Experts test and verify every part. Before the wagon is ready for you it must pass many thorough inspections. The timber, metal, shaping and fitting, painting, every detail must be just right.

Buy one now, watch its steady service on your farm, and mark this—your future reliance will be on the IHC wagon. That future order is our ultimate aim. Columbus and Weber wagons have wood gears; New Bettendorf and Steel King have steel gears. See them at the dealer's. Get catalogues from him, or, write the hoped that there will be a good attendance.

There was preaching at Union church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock church by Presiding Elder Holroyd, whose text, "It will profit thee nothing to gain the whole world if thy soul should be lost," was profoundly impressed upon the minds of all present. After preaching, conference was called, at which they had an unusually good collection.

Chat from Cades.
Cades, November 4:—Mr. John Turnage of Bennettsville spent the week-end with relatives near Cades. Messrs B. W. McElveen and — Thomas attended the South-east association at Trio last week. They reported having a nice time.

Those who attended the State Fair at Columbia were: Messrs R. E. Tarte, J. J. Epps, H. L. Poston and Misses Hattie and Effie Thomas. All said that they enjoyed it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hill's little boy died last Wednesday morning. He was laid to rest at the Graham burying ground Thursday, at 11 a. m.

Mrs. M. C. Mullinix of Lake City spent the week-end with relatives at Cades.

The school-master and several of his scholars went opossum hunting Monday night, but they were unlucky and did not catch any. They all seemed to be very tired next day.
