PITHY PARAGRAPHS.

Tersely Told Facts About People and Things.

In the Balkan regions they are picking the cannon balls out of the landscape preparatory to resuming agriculture.

Referring to the advice of that eminent Croatian, "Eat garlic with all your meals and live a hundred years," is it worth it?

Preanceled postage stamps are to be introduced, but inventors have not yet produced a stamp both preanceled and prelicked.

Why is it that a woman sufficiently modest to hate newspaper publicity will engage in smuggling and take all sorts of risks?

The Duke of Abruzzi has taken a prize as a tango dance artist. And so royalty maintains its prestige in this exacting world.

Surgeons now performing operations by electricity would make a greater hit if they could only discover a way to do 'em by wireless.

If the mission of the automobile is to check the earth's tendency to over-population it is making considerable headway in fulfilling it.

The Esperanto congress advocates peace, and yet in print the language—if that is what it is—looks as if it might be well adapted to war.

Vacations are usually taken during the fishing season. This fact has become so well known to the fish that they usually plan their own vacations accordingly.

The United States is filling up so rapidly with immigrants that it will soon be impossible to find enough vacant space to accommodate the automobile races.

About the only conclusion that can be drawn from the alphabetical air curves of the French aviator is that the letter "S" stands for so many different things.

Authorities at the University of Wisconsin have forbidden the queer dances, as have the better hotels in New York city. These are signs of returning sanity.

Efforts to suppress the African cannibalistic organization known as the "Leopard society" would probably be more successful if the spots were removed with an ax.

The discovery of dictophones in the Chicago city hall need not disturb the officials. Probably some one is just getting a record of the proceedings for vaudeville purposes.

Despite the partial failure of the corn crop there will be a national Thanksgiving this year as usual. Word comes from Cape Cod that the cranberry crop is O. K.

An English critic of American manners says that American men do not even know how to "sit up." That may be, but it must be admitted that we know how to take notice.

Only a half dozen women cab drivers are left in Paris, and six years ago there were twenty times as many. It looks as if Frenchwomen didn't take kindly to legalized brigandage.

The second bankruptcy of a well known and once popular night restaurant in the white light region testifies anew to the proverbial fickleness of New York's after theater appetite.

New York is boasting of having produced the biggest book in the world. No: it doesn't contain an alphabetical list of New York officeholders, with an itemized statement of the debt of the city.

Now that so many women make their own living instead of just asking for money whenever they want it it is no more than natural that the season's designs for women's dress should include pockets.

Want ad. in the Columbus (O.) Dispatch: "Respectable elderly lady wants a situation as grandmother to a good home." That ought to meet with an instant response. Think of the grandmotherless homes in this great and populous country!
