NEWS OF A WEEK FROM LAKE CITY.

ALPHA LITERARY SOCIETY--NEW DWELLINGS BUILDING--FREIGHT DEPOT IMPROVED--PERSONAL.

Lake City, November 26:--The members of the Alpha Literary society of Lake City High school report a very interesting meeting Friday evening. This society is composed of most of the students of the 8th, 9th and 10th grades, who, assisted by their respective instructors, each Friday afternoon assemble in the auditorium of the high school building and discuss the leading topics of the day, in the form of debates or news briefs. This is the first literary organization in the history of our school and should be encouraged by the parents and friends of pupils and teachers.

Messrs R C Hood and W J M Knight of Olanta were in town Monday.

Mr H J Brown of Cades was in town last week on business matters.

Mrs J T Gaskins and daughters, Misses Maggie and Milne, were in town last week. Mr Gaskins and Miss Milne, who have recently had typhoid fever, have now entirely recovered.

Miss Annie Myers of Scranton was in town Monday shopping.

Mrs G H Davis entertained very charmingly at her home, "The Pines", last Friday evening. Progressive whist was played, after which delicious refreshments were served by Miss Annie Davis.

Mrs B W Jones has returned from a visit to relatives at Charleston.

Mr and Mrs E P Johnson and Miss Mary Sue Carter spent a few days in Charleston last week, going down for the fair.

F L Willcox, Esq., of the Florence bar, was in town Tuesday on professional business.

Mr W H Whitehead, Jr, spent Monday in Columbia.

Mr S C Green, of the University of South Carolina, spent the week-end at home with his parents.

Mr and Mrs V G Arnette and Prof H H Brown of Cades visited relatives and friends in town Sunday.

Mrs W H Woods of Florence is spending a while with her sister, Mrs H Van Epps.

Among the many new residences now being erected are: The handsome dwelling of Mrs O E Singletary, in North Main street; a large and comfortable home on Dunham avenue belonging to Mr -- Yarborough; the neat and modern cottage of Mr W C Kelley, formerly of Marion, under construction in West Thomas street and the home of Mr W E Spivey in Rutledge Park. Besides these residences are several others almost completed.

The Atlantic Coast Line freight depot has been enlarged quite recently and a cotton platform of about 300 feet in length is being constructed; these improvements, together with the widening of the space between the three tracks at the station and the leveling of the yards, have made the local station one of the most attractive on the line.

That the Yuletide is approaching is evidenced by the shrill siren whistles--always a forerunner of Santa Claus, indulged in by the young members of our families--the beautiful displays in the shop windows and the revival of embroidery clubs, etc; but by far the most potent sign is the anticipation of the school children for the two weeks' recess.

Thanksgiving day, tomorrow, will be celebrated in the usual manner here. The shops will be closed and services will be held at the Methodist church. Everybody has something to be thankful for, and instead of pleasant anticipations of turkey and cranberry sauce, why not a little alms? Not that we have any destitute in our community, but there are so many, many orphanages and homes within 150 miles of us where any small remembrance would be appreciated. In this connection, Mr Editor, suppose we, through your worthy paper, get up a contribution for a certain home or orphanage for Christmas, where funds are most seriously needed, and where any gift is more than appreciated.

Best wishes for a happy and thankful day to The Record and its readers.

L B N.

Note--Christmas contributions to any orphanage or home, cash or other donations, will be received and acknowledged by The Record and we will see that they are forwarded to the institutions to which they are given. We think our correspondent's suggestion is timely, thoughtful and commendable.--Editor The Record.

BURGLARS AT CADES.

Bank Building Broken Into, but Vault Withstands Attack.

Cades, November 26:--The Bank of Cades was burglarized last week, the burglar or burglars entering at the front of the building by breaking a large plate glass window. An attempt was made to get into the steel vault, but the attack was a failure. Some of the ornamental caps or knobs on the hinges of the door were loosened and the walls of the vault battered up a little. Beyond this there was no loss or damage sustained by the bank.

Mr J R Haselden spent Sunday with relatives at Lake City.

Mr Will Webber, of the Hebron neighborhood, was noted in our midst one day last week.

Mr N F Knight went to Lake City Tuesday on business.

Misses Grace and Addie Fulmore and Annie May Epps visited in the Hebron section last week.

WHITE OAK CHIPS

Picked Up During the Week by Our Wideawake Scribe.

White Oak, November 26:--A delightful supper was given at the home of Mr R E Ward Friday evening, the purpose being to raise funds for the White Oak School Improvement association. The menu consisted of barbecue, chicken, turkey, rice, biscuits, pickles, oysters, coffee, cakes and pies and chocolate. Several cakes were sold at auction, and the young folk enjoyed cake-walking for several. The fruit stand was quite beautiful. The affair was very much enjoyed, although the crowd was small. Among the visitors were noted: Messrs O M Cook, J Wesley Cook, H B Cook, W P Moore, Dr L W Moore, and Misses Weights, Simmons, Langston, Morehead and Cora Cook, of Moore's X Roads, Mrs R L McElveen, Messrs D J McElveen, Boyd Smith, and "Uncle Remus" of Cades, Miss Alice Frierson of Mouzons, Messrs Joe Frierson and Murdock Haselden of Kingstree.

Mr A W Ward has accepted a position on the police force at Scranton.

Mr B W McElveen was painfully kicked by his mule while trying to bridle him Tuesday afternoon. He is able to be out again.

The ladies of the community were again invited to attend an old-time quilting at Mr C K Eaddy's recently. A delicious dinner was served and all present had an enjoyable time.

Miss Cora Cook of Moore's X Roads spent a pleasant week-end with Miss Pauline Cantey at the home of Mr and Mrs A P Buffkin.

Miss Alice Frierson of Mouzons, a student of Lake City High school, spent the week-end pleasantly with her sister, Mrs G W Ward.

Mr and Mrs W I Hodges of Cades were noted here Sunday afternoon.

We are glad to be on the eve of another Thanksgiving and truly hope all the readers of The Record may have a pleasant day.

Rev J M Baxley of Lake City filled his regular appointment here Sunday to a fair attendance.
