YES, SIR!

"A cow that gives two quarts of milk, and refrains from sticking her foot in it, is far more valuable than one that gives ten quarts and then kicks it over." And it is the same way with clothes. Most any Suit, Overcoat or Ladies' Coat Suit looks well when you buy it, but the thing that is most important to you is how it looks after you've worn it several months. Let us prove to you that the giving of such strict attention to many little details in the making of our garments assures the wearer longer service and better appearance. Quite a few men and women don't care and don't notice the appearance, but perhaps YOU are one of the many who do, and, if so, you are just the man or woman who will appreciate the extra painstaking tailoring in our garments. Some men and women have the mistaken impression that because we sell such good garments our prices are high. Nothing will surprise you more than to make a comparison between our goods and prices with those sold elsewhere.
