Thomas M Gilland.

The father of Thomas McDowell Gilland, who died at his home in Kingstree on Sunday, belonged to the group of Presbyterian preachers, who, following one another in the latter half of the eighteenth century and first half of the nineteenth. exerted such a tremendous influence My Dear Santa: upon the character of South Carolina and the South. He was a man of large and varied attainments. A graduate of Edinburgh University, set, I hope I have not asked for too high, prices are as low as the lowest. if our recollection serves as right, many things, but if you will bring he was distinguished not only for the scholarship and eloquence of his sermons, but also for his skill with the violin. At the school which he conducted in Chester county more than one country boy attained a proficiency in Latin and Greek and the higher mathematics which a considerable percentage of the gradnates from the average Southern My Dear Old Santa Claus:college today might well envy. I am a girl 12 years old, and I The Bank of Cades has a change want you to bring me a work-box of ad in this paper on front page, to in Chester county, but his boylead and a large doll 35 inches high that in Chester county, but his boyhood was spent in the famous old Indiantown settlement, in Williamshurg county, to the pastorate of which his father had been called, and since 1871 he had been a member of the Kingstree bar. He was a man of strong mentality and of inflexible courage, and, until a paralytic stroke cut short his career, he was recognized as one of the ablest lawyers and most eloquent advocates in the assistants in my time. BELATED SANTA CLAUS LETTERS.

Salters, S C, December 15, 1913. Dear Santa Claus:-

Hope you are enjoying good health, as I am. Am anticipating a fine time Xmas.

I wish you would bring me a toy pistol, express wagon, a horn, jumping jack, fire-works of all kinds that a little 6 year old boy can manage, and fruit and candy of all kinds. I am a smart boy, go to Sunday-school. I think it's a grand thing for little fellows to be trained to obedience. I help my mother feed little biddies and play with my 8 months' old sister. Dear Santa,don't forget my two little sisters. Good by, dear Santa. From,

MILTON BRADHAM.

P. S. Santa, wish you would stay till the sun rises Xmas morning, so I could show you how I can ride my tricycle. Little sisters said they would love to see you, but guess we will all be asleep.

You will find a fruit cake down on the hearth from Ida, Virginia and myself for you to eat. MILTON.

Salters, S C, December 15, 1913. Dear Santa --

I wish you would be so kind as to bring what I ask. I want a doll-bed, a stove, a horn, a doll, an A B C set for a child, and bring my eight months' old sister a child's A BC's set, a fork, knife, spoon with the A B C engraved on them.

And do bring her a pacifier with stick of candy to hold in her hand, please, dear Santa.

Don't forget to bring me fireworks, fruit and candy of all kinds. Will close. Bye, bye, Santa, hope into a banking house. the Lord will bless you.

Your little 4 year old girl, IDA BRADHAM.

P. S.-Wish all little tots get as much Xmas as I,or more. I'm going to our Sunday-school Xmas tree. Will put my little friends some little presents on it. Hope I may receive WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Kingstree Citizens.

When a Kingstree citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and one's own use. Turn to their ad, neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements where you will find the "old man" of people residing in far away places and a staff of courteous clerks to do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Kingstree resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Some Indisputable Facts

Read, and See How They Sound

FIRST-Christmas is coming, and there is no doubt about that. SECOND-The People are here, and there is no doubt about that.

THIRD-And regardless of sex, tribe or color they must have someteing to eat -- This also is true.

FOURTH-They must have some Groberies, some Fruits and Candies, and there is no doubt about that. FIFTH-Now, the saddest fact of all is that money is scar everybody -- That's no joke. SIXTH--And still all the people must have some small fireworks, etc., because they must all have some fairly good time. SEVENTH -- Now, hear, friends. Last year we helped hull people out for Christmas, because money was scarce, ting on a special sale for just a few days and selling goods cheap for the Holidays.

Hear, since it is a fact that money is scarce, you want all that your dollar will buy, don't you? Hear the date, and don't forget for your Christmas trade. Don't miss the place. We admit that goods are higher everywhere, but we mean to sell goods that can't be duplicated at anything like our prices.

TODAY, DECEMBER 18, WE WILL BEI

Apples from 12 1-2c per dozen up. Oronges from 18c per dozen up. Cocoanuts for 4c each. Rice at 8c the quart. Ten pounds Granulated Sugar, 57c.
