Colds

should be "nipped in the bud", for if allowed to run unchecked, serious results may follow. Numerous cases of consumption, pneumonia, and other fatal diseases, can be traced back to a cold. At the first sign of a cold, protect yourself by thoroughly cleansing your system with a few doses of the old reliable, vegetable liver powder.

Mr. Chas. A. Ragland, of Madison Heights, Va., says: "I have been using Theford's Black-Draught for stomach troubles, indigestion, and colds, and find it to be the very best medicine I ever used. It makes an old man feel like a young one."
Insist on Theford's, the original and genuine. E-67

Scranton Sketches.

Scranton, January 5:—Rev Mr Prosser filled his appointment at the Methodist church Sunday morning, holding the undivided attention of his audience with a clear presentation of his sermon.

Rev Mr Freyar of Darlington preached Saturday night and Sunday afternoon at the Freewill Baptist church to attentive congregations.

After a recess of one week for the holidays, "old glory" floated from the flag-pole on the school house last Wednesday, December 30, signaling "come in to books." The teachers in the school spent the holidays at their respective homes and have returned to resume their duties.

A number of the younger set enjoyed a new year's party at the home of Mr and Mrs H A Graham last Friday night.

Misses Hettie Willoughby and Sadie Graham spent the holidays at home. They are from Coker College.

Mr John Graham has returned to Clemson College, and is guilty of spending the yuletide at home.

Miss Ruth Willoughby has returned to an infirmary at Florence for treatment of the nose. Her aunt, Miss Lily Graham, accompanied her.

Mrs Mattie Creecy visited her sisters in Lake City, the Misses Welch, last Friday. Her sister, Miss Ethel Welch, returned with her and spent Saturday.

Dr Liston McKnight and family are visiting the former's parents. Dr McKnight enjoys a successful practice at Istachatta, Fla.

Miss Janie Wall and brother, Archie, spent the Xmas holidays at the home of their uncle, Mr Stephen Byrd, near Cades.

"Doctor" Foster Matthews, Dr Pate's efficient druggist, spent Sunday at the home of his parents in the Salem section.

Miss Olive Lavender has returned after a pleasant visit among friends at Effingham.

Mr and Mrs J M Parker visited at Darlington Saturday and Sunday.

Mr and Mrs D P Wall spent Xmas with the latter's parents at Lanes.

Mr W E Lavender spent Christmas here with his daughters, Mesdames R M Cooper and J M Myers.

Mr Albert Lavender of New Zion spent Saturday and Sunday here, returning home yesterday.

Mr Tom Creecy was in the New Zion section last week visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances.

The town election will be pulled off next Tuesday, January 12, at which time an intendant and four wardens will be elected.

Moving is on the programme now and is certainly being carried out.

Christmas passed off quietly, business being "dull" in police circles, not a single arrest was made, and less drunkenness, it seems, than heretofore.

Miss Sue Anderson of Timmons-ville was the guest of her brother, Prof M H Anderson, during the gladsome holidays.

Dr C H Pate and family spent Christmas at the home of the doctor's father near Bishopville.

Miss Julia Curry and Mr Robert Turner were happily married by Notary Public J M Parker new year's evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Mr Parker's home. This popular young couple have a large circle of friends who extend congratulations and best wishes. I M G.

Keep the Paper Coming.

Johnsonville, S C,
December 28, 1914.

Mr C W Wolfe,
Kingstree, S C.

Dear Sir:—Times are dull around here now, too much so to let The County Record stop coming; so I am enclosing you this great big dollar bill to keep it coming along another year. Hope by the next year a dollar won't look quite so large as it does now.

Hoping you a prosperous year.
I am, yours truly,

W W JOHNSON.
