SHORT COURSE AT COKER.

Interesting Sketch by Young Lady of Williamsburg.

Editor County Record:—

I am one of the prize winners of our tomato club, who had the pleasure of attending the short course given at Coker College, June 28 to July 9. I have been so benefited by it that I want to express my appreciation by giving others a brief account of my trip.

On June the twenty-eight, three of the Williamsburg club girls met at Kingstree to board train No. 80 for Hartsville. We were met at Kingstree by two other members of our club and Miss Amanda Edwards, our county agent, who was there to see us off, taking the same interest in us that she has for the past two years.

Arriving at Hartsville, Miss Bertha Lechner, the Darlington county agent, was there to see us safely to the college, where she turned us over to Mrs. Cosby, the matron, who "mothered" us very sweetly; welcomed us, and made us feel as if we were at home.

We began our regular work the next day. They divided us into two sections, A and B, thus avoiding too large a number at one lesson. Special instructions were given us daily in cooking, sewing, agriculture and poultry raising. All the teachers seemed to take the greatest pleasure in giving us valuable instructions.

Three days were taken up in demonstration work such as canning, bread-making and jelly-making. We were required to keep notes on the instructions given us.

Still they didn't believe in giving us all work and no play, for every afternoon between the hours of 6:30 and 8:30 we were entertained in some way on the campus, if the weather was suitable, if not in the auditorium. The last afternoon special courtesy was shown us by Mr. Chas. Coker, who invited us to his beautiful home, where we played games. Afterwards refreshments were served. On the same afternoon we were entertained by a special musical programme given by the summer school teachers.

We were taught our State club song and yell, and if you could have been with us you would have been satisfied that we were loyal to our club.

I am back at home now; but can still give three cheers for our club and Coker College.

Another U. S. Ship Torpedoed.

London, July 26:—The American steamship Leelanaw, from Archangel July 8 for Belfast, with a cargo of flax, was sunk July 25 by a German submarine off the northwest coast of Scotland.

All members of the crew of the Leelanaw were saved. They were brought into Kirkwall in their own boats.

The steamer left New York May 17 with a cargo of cotton for Archangel. She was detained at Kirkwall, but was released June 26 with permission to proceed to Archangel, where the cotton was discharged and a cargo of flax was loaded for Belfast.

All the crew of the Leelanaw are expected to reach Dundee tomorrow, when it will be possible to obtain a full account of the sinking of the vessel. The episode has created wide-spread discussion in England, coming almost coincident with the delivery of the American note to Germany.

SKETCHES FROM SCRANTON.

Serious Fire—Successful Revival—Veterans' Picnic.

Scranton, July 27:—The revival meetings of the week past came to a close Sunday night at the Baptist church. The pastor, Rev J. W. Truluck, was ably assisted by Rev J. A. Ansley of Manning, who was forceful and earnest in explaining the way of salvation as laid down in Holy Writ. The weather was ideal for attendance and the size of the congregations was pleasing to the ministers. Several additions were made to the membership. Rev Mr. Ansley made many friends while here.

Mr. R. E. Lee had the misfortune to lose his saw and shingle mills, boiler, engine and a valuable lot of lumber and shingles by fire Sunday, July 18. Only recently new saws and belting had been put in, and the plant had undergone a general overhauling. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss is probably $2,000, with no insurance.

Rev J. W. Truluck and Mr. W. A. Myers may be seen driving new Fords.

Mr. R. B. Cannon, the local agent for the Ford auto, has sold the carload which arrived from the factory a few days ago.

The veterans' annual picnic which has done so much toward putting Olanta on the map was held Saturday and was a most delightful affair. The attendance was variously estimated at from two to three thousand people. Senator Ellison D. Smith was the speaker. This being his boyhood home, he was greeted by a large number. His speech was fine. After paying a tribute to the veterans and discussing the causes of war, the Senator referred to his favorite theme, cotton. He said that he had been criticised for keeping silent on this subject, but went on to explain that the trouble was due to the seas being tied up in such a manner that it was impossible to get our commerce across to other countries. He said that the country was facing a great crisis, and if war were declared conditions would be a great deal worse than they are, because every American port would be tied up and commerce would be practically paralyzed. The United States considered it of first importance to reckon with Germany in regard to neutral rights. After that question had been settled the next step would be to make England open the seas to our commerce.

Another impressive feature of the day was the playlet put on by consent of the veterans, entitled "Dame Carolina Out for Prohibition," "Uncle Sam" and "Aunt Columbia" being represented by Mr. I. M. Gamble and Miss Rosalie Wall. This was under the supervision of Mrs. R. B. Cannon, of the Scranton W. C. T. U. A number of our townspeople attended the picnic.

Mrs. M. V. Smith and daughters, the Misses McWhite, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Myers.

The Methodist Sunday-school picnic will take place Thursday at Cockfield's landing, Lynch's river.

EIGHT CENTS COTTON.

Washington Banker Says that Price Will Prevent Panic.

The following special dispatch is from the Columbia State:

Washington, July 26:—"If the cotton people get 8 cents a pound for this year's cotton crop the financial condition of the South will be well taken care of," said W. H. Cooper, president of the Union Savings and U. S. Savings banks of Washington, one of the string of Cooper banks in the South.

Mr. Cooper has just returned from North and South Carolina and after a thorough canvass of the situation he is convinced that the cotton crop will not bring more than 8 cents a pound, and if it is sold for that amount there will be no financial situation such as was caused last year as a result of the European war.

Mr. Cooper is considered one of the best and most conservative bankers in the National Capital and hence a great deal of importance is attached to his statement that the cotton crop will not bring over 8 cents a pound.

Mr. Wolfe Dead.

Mr. C. W. Wolfe, long time editor of The County Record, passed away on Monday at a sanitarium in Hendersonville, N. C., where he had gone in an effort to benefit his health. For several years Mr. Wolfe was in wretched health and at times was forced to give up his work entirely but for the most part, though ill, he tried to keep up work. He will be greatly missed by Kingstree and Williamsburg county, for both of which he beloved faithfully. He leaves a wife and daughter who will receive the deepest sympathy of a large circle of friends.—Lake City News.
