10 Yds. Calico 25c.

Friday and Monday, November 26 and 29, we will, beginning at 9 a. m. and then for every hour during the day, sell you for 5 minutes 10 yards Calico for 25c. Right on the hour and only for 5 minutes; have the quarter with you.

Without Regard For Former Price--Without Regard For Value.

Without regard for cost of merchandise, the trick must be turned. Quick action must be had, goods must be turned into money, and this must be done quickly. Will people talk? Certainly they will talk, and talk all the more when once they get here. 'Twill be a wonderful demonstration of what cash money will do. Make your preparations right now. Don't under any circumstances miss this great treat. You'll never live long enough to see another like it in this city. It's different; bear in mind. Other sales must not be compared with this one, because it's a selling of high-grade goods at prices that will make people take notice, and not a haphazard sale gotten ready in a day or two. No, certainly not. We've been preparing for it for months and have made preparations that will do the work, because in making this announcement that Mr. Jenkinson would take over the business himself we had to be sure and certain that the sale would be a huge success.

PRESENTS FROM THE CLOUDS!

Promptly at 8:30 a. m. Friday, 30 minutes before the doors open, we will drop from the top of the building 50 tiny rubber balloons with a tag on each, and many of the tags will call for free presents. The same feature will be repeated Monday morning at 9 o'clock.
