Nelson-Dennison.

The Lakeland, (Fla), Evening Telegram of November 23 contains the following account of the marriage in that city on Monday, November 22, of Miss Marion Edith Nelson, a charming young lady who is well known in Kingstree:

"Of the marriage of Miss Edith Nelson to Mr E H Dennison, an account of which appeared in yesterday's Telegram, a friend writes as follows:

"A marriage of interest to many Lakeland people occurred Monday evening at four o'clock, when Miss Marion Edith Nelson, daughter of Mrs J F Council, of this city, and Mr Edwin H Dennison, Jr, were made man and wife, Rev Wallace G Wear officiating. Only a few of the bride's most intimate friends were present.

The bride has resided here for the past nine years, and is one of Lakeland's most beautiful daughters. She has a host of friends who regret her departure but will be pleased to learn of the happy culmination of this romance of several years' duration. She was most attractively gowned in a mouse-colored broadcloth suit with fur trimmings, and most becoming hat to match, and wore violets and lilies of the valley.

The groom hails from an old Virginia family of note, but has resided since childhood in Pittsburg, Pa, where he is vice president and general manager of M O Coggins & Co. He is well known in Lakeland and other parts of Florida, as he was at one time stationed here in the interest of this company.

"After receiving congratulations and best wishes, the happy couple left immediately for Tampa, in their handsome 1916 Overland, the gift of the groom to his fair bride. After visiting points on the West coast they will go to Miami and Palm Beach for the winter, later continuing their honeymoon to eastern cities, after which they will be located at Fort Pitt hotel, Pittsburg."

W W SPENCER TELLS TOUCHING STORY OF LIFE--TANLAC GIVES NEW HOPE IN OLD AGE.

After waging a seemingly hopeless fight for health from the time he graduated in 1858 at South Carolina College, now South Carolina University, at Columbia, until recently, W W Spencer, a well known and highly respected citizen of Cheraw, tells in an open letter how Tanlac, the master medicine, quickly brought to an end his search for relief.

Mr Spencer graphically tells how Tanlac almost "rejuvenated" him in the following correspondence:

"Cheraw, S. C, November 16, 1915. "Mr Wingfield, Columbia, S. C.

"Dear Sir:—I enclose you one dollar to pay for the extra bottle of Tanlac you sent me. I paid for one, and you sent two, for which, many thanks. I celebrated my eightieth birthday last Saturday. I have been handicapped all my life by weak digestion and nervousness, but by prudence and abstemious living have arrived at a good old age. But I felt that my lamp of light was burning out rapidly; my digestion was poor, my sleep was broken and unrefreshing, when I hit upon this tonic.

"Since then I have improved wonderfully. I can now eat almost anything with impunity, can even eat vegetables for supper and get a good night's rest. I feel at this writing that I have a new lease on life. Thanks to the best medicine I ever took (Tanlac).

"Your Tanlac has been a God-send to me. Hoping you a long and happy life, I sign myself, Yours truly,

"(Signed) W W SPENCER."

Mr Spencer was asked permission to publish his letter and he replied as follows:

"Cheraw, S. C, November 20, 1915.

"Mr T W Galyon, Columbia, S. C.

"Dear Sir:—In complying with your request, I will state to you some facts and leave it to you to make out a decent certificate.

"I graduated at Columbia in 1858 with my health a perfect wreck. The doctors told me I had nervous prostration, ulcerated stomach and chronic gastritis. I couldn't keep water on my stomach long enough to get warm, but by prudence in diet and regular habits, I lived along but never regained my youthful vigor.

Early in the fall, I felt my health failing, I became constipated, had sleepless nights with most fantastic dreams, no appetite and poor digestion. Then I saw your ad, and when the first bottle was gone, I began to take notice that something was going on. I have used four bottles and feel wonderfully improved—almost rejuvenated. I sleep well, appetite and digestion good, and I even get hungry, which I seldom ever felt before, and am almost glad when meal time comes. My liver, stomach and kidneys now work in perfect harmony.

"I don't crave publicity, but if you think my experience with Tanlac will be of any aid to suffering humanity, I am very willing that you make the best use of it you can. Hoping you success, and with kindest regards, I am very respectfully,

(Signed) W W SPENCER."

Tanlac, the premier preparation, is sold at Kingstree Drug Co, Kingstree. Price: $1 per bottle, or six for $5.

A congress of neutral nations might satisfy themselves, but would their decision pacify the warring ones.

Why You Should Use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Because it has an established reputation won by its good works.
Because it is most esteemed by those who have used it for many years, as occasion required, and are best acquainted with its good qualities.
Because it loosens and relieves a cold and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition.
Because it does not contain opium or any other narcotic.
Because it is within the reach of all. It only costs a quarter. Obtainable everywhere.

It takes the man behind the guns to win the battles, but it takes the woman behind the man to keep him there.
