GERMAN SUBMARINE ENTERS BALTIMORE.

A FEAT UNPARALLELED DURING THE WAR-IS A MONSTER MERCHANT VESSEL.

Norfolk, Va., July 9:—Eluding the North sea fleet of Great Britain and British and French warships off the Virginia coast, the Deutschland, a powerful super-submarine from Germany, passed through the Virginia capes at 1:45 o'clock this morning and, flying the German merchant flag, headed up Chesapeake bay for Baltimore. She arrived off quarantine there at 11 o'clock tonight but will not dock till tomorrow morning.

There are no torpedo tubes on the Deutschland. She carries two 3-inch guns for defensive purposes only.

"We bring a message from the Emperor of Germany to the President of the United States. It is one of friendship and good will," was one of the first statements made by Capt Kairig of the Deutschland at the end of a 4,000-mile voyage, in which his craft spent 1,800 miles under water.

Unaccompanied and unannounced, this man-moth under-sea craft came up to the capes and blew several blasts from air whistle, denoting that she wanted to comply with American maritime laws and take on a native pilot for passage up the bay.

On board the Virginia pilot boat Relief Capt Fred Coker was on watch and when the strange craft, with no signs of steam on board, came up to the capes, he was taken by surprise. However, he went out to sea, and when near enough he shouted through a megaphone:

"What craft is that?"
"This is the German under-sea liner Deutschland," a voice from the submarine answered.

"The devil it is!" muttered Capt Coker, and then shouted through the megaphone: "I will be aboard of you in a minute."

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble.

"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbruyke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

What the Spider was Looking For

Mark Twain believed in advertising, as is proven by the following extract from an after dinner speech which he once made:

"When I was editing the Virginia City Enterprise, writing copy one day and mining the next, I tried in many ways to drive home the fact that advertising pays. One day I received a letter from a subscriber saying that he had found a spider pressed between the pages of his paper. He wanted to know whether this signified good or bad luck. I replied to him in our 'Answers to Correspondents, column as follows: 'Old Subscriber: The finding of a spider in your copy of The Enterprise was neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our pages to find out what merchant was not advertising in them, so he could spin his web across his door and lead a free and undisturbed existence forever after.'"
