For several years past the last Saturday in September has by many of our citizens been observed as Orphan's Work Day. The idea is to get men and women, boys and girls, to devote the earnings or the income of the day to the support of some orphanage. We understand that all institutions invite co-operation in this plan and that September 30 is the day agreed upon.

Sunday-school Work.

The Williamsburg County Sunday-school association held very interesting and instructive district conventions in several of its districts last week. Miss Agnes Ravenel, superintendent of the elementary department of State organization, was with the county officers in the conventions and her addresses on Sunday-school Work inspired much interest in the work throughout the county. The county officers succeeded in getting Mr Charlton DuRant of Manning, an enthusiastic Sunday-school worker, who gave the district conventions the benefit of his experience in organized adult Bible classes. Mr DuRant has a class of 126 men in his home town, Manning.

Williamsburg was never before fully organized, but the officers cooperating with the district presidents, are much encouraged over the interest now being taken in the Sunday-school work and they hope with continued co-operation to be able to reach the highest standard of county efficiency at the State convention which meets in Spartanburg in May, 1917.

A district convention of the Williamsburg County Sunday-school association has been arranged for Wednesday, August 23, in the Baptist church at Johnsonville at 10 o'clock a. m. The district president is working to make this convention one of great interest. He is trying to get a representative from every school in the district there at this time, and workers from the general office at Spartanburg have been asked for, and everything points to a most successful meeting. The convention will be held morning and afternoon of this date. A full corps of workers and speakers are expected to attend.

HEALTH CERTIFICATE REQUIRED

Of All Children under 16 before Being Permitted to Travel.

Columbia, S C, August 11, 1916. To The Secretary Local Board of Health.

Dear Sir: You are hereby notified that the enclosed circular has been sent to all ticket agents, and you will be careful in giving health certificates. There are thirty-four cases of Infantile Paralysis in various parts of the State. While this does not constitute an epidemic, still the chairman and secretary of the State Board of Health, after consultation have deemed it wise to take these precautionary steps, which will be of no avail if local authorities do not co-operate.

I am having health certificates printed in proper form, but in the meantime comply with the form indicated on circular.

I again urge that you report promptly, by telegraph, all cases reported to you, and that in addition you use the facilities of your board of health to endeavor to find out whether there may not be cases in your city not reported by physicians. A physician should be severely handled and given the full penalty of the law if it is found that he has concealed a case and not reported it.

Yours truly,
JAMES A HAYNE, M.D.,
Sec and State Health Officer.

W G GAMBLE,
A M GORDON,
T S HEMINGWAY,
R B SMITH,
THOS MCCUTCHEN,
Local Board of Health.

The circular referred to in the above letter forbids all railway ticket agents in South Carolina to sell a ticket to any child under sixteen years of age to any point within or without the limits of the State unless such child presents a health certificate signed by the local board of health, and every child coming into Kingstree by rail is also required to present a certificate of good health signed by the board of health or a physician of the town or community from whence it comes. These certificates are compulsory and will be required from all children entering or leaving Kingstree.

"Mid" Kirby Dead.

Middleton Kirby, a farmer, 26 years of age, died suddenly at the home of his father, about five miles west of Kingstree, about 8 o'clock Sunday morning. The young man was a familiar figure in Kingstree and was noted here Friday morning. That afternoon he was engaged in dipping cattle at his father's place. Saturday he was taken seriously ill and died Sunday morning. The deceased was perhaps the tallest man in Williamsburg county. Funeral and burial services were held Monday at Mt Vernon church, Rev A E Remer officiating.

DARLINGTON COUNTY'S HONORED SON.

We deem it a privilege to call attention to the clean and manly race which Darlington's son, Julius S McInnes, is making in his candidacy for Congress from this district, and it is gratifying to be able to state that he has made a most favorable impression in every county.

Confining himself in his speeches on the stump to a discussion of the issues and problems of the day; standing squarely on the Democratic platform, pledging loyal support to the Administration, Mr McInnes has declined to be drawn into any personal controversy with either of his opponents, and has not indulged in abuse, ridicule or personalities.

This is as it should be, and the support which Mr McInnes is receiving is an indication of a healthy public sentiment. Darlington county may well be proud of the enviable reputation which McInnes has made for himself, and should give substantial evidence of its pride and appreciation by casting practically a solid vote for him on the 29th instant. The number of those who are rallying to McInnes' support in other counties will doubtless stimulate his friends at home to redouble their efforts.

The editor of The News and Press has had the privilege of reading a number of private letters to Mr McInnes and his friends, bringing the news that the tide of public sentiment is running strongly in his favor in all sections of his district, which causes his friends to feel that his strength is even greater than they at first had hoped for. This support is the more gratifying from the fact that it is purely voluntary, and the fact that McInnes, who was practically unknown outside of this county when he first announced his candidacy, has so conducted himself as to warrant enthusiastic efforts in his behalf on the part of good men and true in all parts of the district, is a high tribute to his character and worth.

Now is the time for the citizens of Darlington to show their appreciation of what other counties are doing to honor one of their fellow-citizens.—The Darlington News and Press.

Liver Trouble.

"I am bothered with liver trouble about twice a year," writes Joe Dingman, Webster City, Iowa. "I have pains in my side and an awful soreness in my stomach. Then I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and tried them. By the time I had used half a bottle of them I was feeling fine and had no signs of pain." Obtainable everywhere.
