Vote For Manning Tuesday.

There is a small margin of 9,033 between the combined vote of Cooper, Manning, Duncan and DesChamps over that of Blease. It is highly probable that this number of the Cooper, Duncan and DesChamps supporters will fall into the Blease column on next Tuesday. The only way in the round world that we can figure out to keep this demagogue from landing in the Governor's office for a third term is simply for EVERY MANNING man to go to the polls and vote to keep Manning in the office and to keep Blease out of it. There are about 25,000 voters in the State who did not go to the polls and vote in the first primary. If this performance is repeated next Tuesday Governor Manning will be defeated. You can count on 100 per cent of the Blease vote being polled, then why not poll 100 per cent of the Manning vote—EVERY MANNING MAN should do his duty Tuesday by going to the polls and casting a ballot for Richard I Manning, and see to it that no one forgets nor neglects this important duty.

Reader, how about your subscription? Remember, we plan to drop the names of all who have not advanced their dates of subscription within a reasonable time. This is not a threat, but purely a matter of business. The cost of production has increased greatly of late, and we simply cannot and will not carry subscribers who do not pay promptly. Look at the label on your paper NOW, and send us a check to cover the amount you are due us. The yellow label bearing your name also bears a date showing when your subscription is paid up to. The price of The Record is $1.25 per year.

The conflict between the railroads and their employes has served at least one good purpose. It has convinced the ultimate goats (the public at large) that laws must be enacted to prevent a recurrence of conflicts in the future which have the possibility of a paralysis of the commercial interests of the country. Those laws should be so drastic in their nature as to force a course of moderation on both sides to the controversy. The people have rights, as well as the railroads and their employes.

NAMING THE COCOANUT.

What the Word Originally Meant and How It Became Altered.

The brown, hard shell nut covered with coarse fiber and containing a white, brittle, oily "meat" and some sweetish liquor, generally called "milk," is the coconut and not the cocoanut. This fruit of a great palm tree is a familiar thing on the fruit stands and in the fruit shops and food markets all over the world. It has been an acceptable article of food among Europeans for centuries, among Americans ever since there were such people as Americans, and among the peoples of the tropics for an undetermined number of centuries. It is one of the very useful things that grow, its use being so extensive and its uses many.

Its name is a curious one. Being about the size of a man's head, the Spanish early explorers and overseas traders called it the coconut, "coco" being a slang or vulgar Spanish word for a man's head. The word in that sense survives in American slang.

So, some early Spaniard, disregarding the native names for this nut, capriciously called it a coconut, and there being something catching in the name it passed from mouth to mouth until it became established as the proper name of the nut.

A man who took the trouble to look up the reason why the coconut is perhaps more often than not called the co-coa-nut has written:

"Cocoanuts have been misnamed for a century or more. It is 100 years since a proofreader in London allowed the word to slip into a dictionary as co-coa-nut. As many dictionaries printed since have shown a sheeplike imitation of this edition, the misspelling of the word has been established. The word 'cocoa' is the name of the bean from which chocolate is made."—Washington Star.

A Card from Mr McCutchen.

As it would be impossible for me to see and thank each one of you personally I take this method of expressing to each and every voter in Williamsburg county who supported me in the primary election on August 29, my deepest gratitude. Really words cannot express my appreciation of the confidence you have in me as shown by the splendid vote you gave me in the first primary. I trust that I may continue, always, to merit your confidence and esteem. As one of your representatives in the General Assembly I shall strive to serve you to the best of my ability.

Very truly yours,
Adv. D E MCCUTCHEM.

A Card From Mr Snowden.

To the Voters of Williamsburg County:

I thank you who cast your ballots for me in the primary election, and to my home people and those of the adjacent communities, I express especially my appreciation for your endorsement, which indicated your confidence in me, and besides the drawing closer the friendly tie that binds neighbor to neighbor.

To those who did otherwise, I assure you sincerely that I entertain the same cordial feeling that existed heretofore and only hope to gain in your favor as the days pass by.

Yours truly,
Adv. W E SNOWDEN.

Are You Looking Old?

Old age comes quick enough without inviting it. Some look old at forty. That is because they neglect the liver and bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger, but will look younger as well. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are intended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

The Strong Withstand the Heat of Summer Better Than the Weak

Old people who are feeble, and younger people who are weak, will be strengthened and enabled to go through the depressing heat of summer by taking regularly Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the whole system. 50c.

And Build Up The System: TAKE THE OLD STANDARD GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. You know what you are taking, as the formula is printed on every label, showing it is Quinine and Iron in a tasteless form. The Quinine drives out malaria, the Iron builds up the system. 50 cents.

A Tribute to Gov. Manning.

Editor County Record:—

As I feel a deep interest in good government and to correct some erroneous statements about Governor Richard I Manning, will you please publish the following?

They say that he is blue blooded and a kid glove sort of man and will not rent land to a white man.

I beg to say that I have known Governor Manning for twenty-five years, have lived on his place as a renter for ten years, have had business dealings with him for fourteen years, and will say that he is a high toned Christian gentleman and a friend to the poor man. Further I wish to say that he is for law and order and will not uphold anything or stoop to anything low or dishonest.

Very truly yours,
W E BLACKWALL.

Card From Mr McInnes

I wish to thank my friends in Williamsburg for the support they so generously gave me on the 29th of August. I appreciate that support very much and trust that I may be able in the future to merit a continuance of their confidence. I expect to be a candidate for Congress in 1918 and hope during the next two years I may have an opportunity of meeting and knowing more of the people of Williamsburg.

adv. JULIUS S MCINNES.

AN ACT OF KINDNESS.

A Kingstree Resident Speaks Plainly for the Benefit of Kingstree People.

If you had suffered tortures from kidney trouble,

Had experimented with different remedies without relief;

If you were finally cured through a friend's suggestion—

Wouldn't you be grateful?

The following statement has been given under just such circumstances:

Mr McIntosh has used Doan's Kidney Pills.

He publicly tells of the benefit he has received.

His is a simple act of kindness to other Kingstree sufferers.

No need to experiment with such convincing evidence at hand.

Mr McIntosh speaks from experience.

You can rely on what he tells you.

W K McIntosh, prop tobacco warehouse, Main St, Kingstree, says: "Several years ago my kidneys were disordered, and I suffered from dull pains in the small of my back. I was sore and lame and had headaches and dizzy spells. I tried different medicines, but with no success until friends recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that cured Mr McIntosh. Foster-Milburn Co, Props, Buffalo, N. Y.
