W. E. JENKINSON

We regret to state that the condition of Mrs D J Epps, whose illness has been previously mentioned in these columns, continues critical.

The Record is delighted to know that its old friend, J H L Chandler of Salters, is on the "firing line" again after a long and severe spell of sickness.

Mr J T Eaddy of Hemingway was in Kingtree yesterday on business. He reports the condition of the roads to be very bad, largely due to the protracted wet spell.

Mr A C Swails, manager of the Kingtree Dry Goods company's store, left Sunday night for Baltimore where he went to buy spring and summer dry goods and millinery.

Mr Henry Ford, manufacturer of the famous Ford automobile, with a party of close friends passed through Kingtree in a private car attached to train No 89 Tuesday night. The party was bound for Charleston.

Mr Everette Hinds, son of Mr and Mrs C M Hinds, formerly of this place, but now of Hendersonville, N C, was a delegate from Fruitland Institute to the Baptist Student convention recently held in Louisville, Ky.

Messrs Billie Britton and Charlie Blakeley returned home Sunday after soldiering on the Mexican border for the past six months. We are pleased to see these young men looking none the worse for service. Other Williamsburg boys are expected to return within a fortnight.

Mr O P Barton, a valued member of The Record force, is taking the week off attending the great Carnival and Mardi Gras in New Orleans. We venture the assertion that when he returns he will know more about the "Creole" city than some of the descendants of a "casket girl" who were born and reared there.

Baggett-Rodgers.

Miss Mary Magdelene Baggett and Mr Elmer Eugene Rodgers were quietly married at the home of the bride's mother at Lane, Thursday afternoon, February 14. The marriage was the culmination of a romance that began in childhood, and came as quite a surprise to their many friends and acquaintances.

The bride is a charming young lady, and the only daughter of Mrs M L Baggett, the popular proprietress of the New Baggett Hotel, at Lanes. Since the opening of the present session she has been a student at Chicora college and had come home to spend the week-end, but a bad cold developed and prevented her returning to college Monday, as both the young lady and her mother had planned. Mr Rodgers in the meantime pressed his suit with a little more ardor and won. On Tuesday Miss Baggett informed her mother of the decision she had reached, and right hastily the wedding feast was prepared. The bride is a sister of Mr T E Baggett, of this place, and has many friends here. The groom is a son of Mr E O Rodgers, a prosperous business man of Lanes, and was himself an assistant bookkeeper in the Bank of Williamsburg here for some time. The young couple will make their home at Lanes.

With Our Advertisers.

There are some peculiar facts in the new adv. of M H Jacobs, the grocer "who don't keep groceries," read it in this paper.

We call attention to the new advertisement in this paper by the Kingtree Furniture Company, with special reference to their big line of baby carriages and go-carts.

The Kingtree Manufacturing and Construction Co. have a change of ad this week calling special attention to its line of beaver board for walls and ceilings, also lumber, glass lime, and all kinds of mill work. This enterprise merits your patronage when in the market for its line of work or wares. See adv on first page.

The Ford Motor Co. in an advertisement in this paper, advises all prospective buyers of Ford cars to place their orders now, as no cars will be shipped to distributing agents except for immediate delivery to purchasers. The big factory of Mr Ford is taxed to its capacity to meet the demand for this popular car and none can be held as reserve stock.

Note the attractive ad of the Paige auto in this paper by the Motor Sales Co of Sumter, agents. This series of advertisements first appeared in The Record last week, but in some unaccountable way, though purely inadvertently, the name of "The Sumter Motor Company" was designated as agents. This was a gross error, as the name of the Motor Sales Co should have been designated as agents. Prospective purchasers of this high class car should see or communicate with this firm at Sumter or their local representative, Mr Clarence Alsbrook.

At the meeting of the subscribers to the Williamsburg Canning and Pickling Co last Friday night J D O'Bryan, Esq, was elected a member of the board of directors vice Mr W F Fairry, who found it impossible to serve.

Stevenson Defeats Sapp.

W F Stevenson of Chesterfield, was yesterday elected to succeed the late D E Finley as representative of the Fifth South Carolina congressional district, defeating C N Sapp of Lancaster by a substantial majority.

A Good Suggestion.

A brick crossing from the east side of street across to the postoffice would accommodate the ladies and children very much in such sloppy times as we have had for the past week. The writer learned how to wade mud following Lee and Jackson and is not talking for himself. P. C.

At a meeting of the Southern Railway directors in New York last week, President Fairfax Harrison said that in all the time he had been connected with that company, he has "never been so optimistic over it." In the spring, he said, the Southern expects to let contracts for 75 miles of double tracking between Charlotte and Spartanburg. This will require 18 months but at the end of that time the work of doubletracking the entire line between Washington and Atlanta will have been completed.
