UNION HIGH SCHOOL.

Rome, March 9.—The usual meeting of the Francis Marion Literary society of Union High school was called to order last Friday p. m. by Pres E. L. Williams. That being the day for the election of officers, the regular work was suspended and the election of officers was gone into, which resulted as follows:

DuRant Rhem, president.
Martie Owens, vice president,
Anna Cribb, secretary,
Lattie Waldron, treasurer,
Lucile Turbeville, first censor,
Lena Haddock, second censor,
Winfred Godwin, literary editor.

The society was called to order again by Pres Williams. The minutes were read and approved, and the new officers were called forward to take their places of service, after which the audience enjoyed a very interesting talk by the ex-president. He told us how he enjoyed serving us, and offered us his hearty cooperation in keeping the good work going.

Examinations have had us pretty busy for the past few days, so we had an impromptu programme this p. m. instead of the regular work. Some of the most enjoyable numbers were as follows:

A talk by Miss Louise Haddock, telling us how to act when we go to a large city, like Henry. She furnished a good deal of fun for us.

Next was a ten-minute talk by Miss Jackson, expressing the difference of feeling between being sick and being old. Miss Jackson told us what an awful feeling it was to be sick, but she stated that, not being experienced as an old person, she would call on Miss Clark, who had just been sick, and was old too. Miss Clark gave us a pretty good knowledge of the feelings of an old person.

Then we had a short talk by ex-President Williams, expressing to us the feelings of a person who is in love. He stated that he knew very little about it, owing to the fact that he had only been in love thirteen times, but with that experience, it was a pretty good feeling.

The honor roll for the primary and elementary grades for the past month is as follows:

Grade 2—Manning Thomas, 97; Josie Carraway, 96; Capers Williams, Clyde Tart, Virginia Munnerlyn, Claudia Avant, James Turbeville, Milton Chandler and Pat Baxley.
Grade 3—Mary Avant, Allie Avant, Mary Louise Munnerlyn and Jettie Wilder.
Grade 4—William Avant, Guss Haddock and Francis Snow.
Grade 5—Louise Cribb.
Grade 7—Lee Wilder and Lydie Clyde.

We regret that we will not be able to publish the high school honor roll this month, but will publish it next month. WINFRED O. GODWIN, Literary Editor.

Most Effective Remedy Mother Had Ever Used,

Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin Relieves Baby When Other Medicines Failed.

There is nothing so helpful to a child's health and comfort as regularity of the bowels. All children are especially susceptible to stomach trouble and any overstrain of the sensitive organs has a tendency to obstruct elimination. This condition is responsible for much of the illness of childhood.

To relieve constipation a mild laxative should be employed. Cathartics and purgatives are violent in their action and should be avoided.

Mrs Alfred DuBois, Mt Holly, N. J., says Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is without doubt the most effective remedy for constipation she has ever used and that it is the only remedy she could find for her baby. Little Earle was badly constipated during his first year and nothing she tried seemed to help him until she got a bottle of Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Now he is a strong, healthy boy, and she thanks Dr Caldwell for it.

Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, free from opiates or narcotic drugs; it acts gently without griping or other discomfort, and appeals to children because of its pleasant taste. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle, and every mother should have it in the house for use when occasion arises.

To avoid imitations and ineffective substitutes always be sure to ask for Dr Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. See that a facsimile of Dr Caldwell's signature and his portrait appear on the yellow carton in which the bottle is packed.

A trial bottle, free of charge, can be obtained by writing to Dr W B Caldwell, 455 Washington St, Monticello, Illinois.

JOHNSONVILLE SCHOOL NOTES.

Johnsonville, March 12.—New shades have been bought for our school building. The school is indebted to the Betterment association for this gift.

In the Inter-school Declamation and Recitation contests between Prospect, Trinity and Johnsonville was held Friday night, March 9. Miss Louise Eaddy of Johnsonville won the recitation medal. Miss Eaddy recited "Higher Culture in Dixie." Mr Wallace Altman of Trinity won the declamation medal. Mr Virgil Eaddy, who was to speak for Johnsonville, was prevented by the death of his brother.

The school was sorry to hear Friday morning of the death of Claude Eaddy, a member of the fifth grade. The school suspended all work for the day. The teachers and a number of the pupils attended the funeral Saturday at Old Johnsonville burying ground.

We are planning to take a great part in Field Day at Kingtree April 12 and 13.

A Clean-Up Decalogue.

The following clean-up decalogue, gotten out by the Board of Trade of Hoboken (N. J.), in connection with last year's campaign is very appropriate and well worth remembering at all times:

- 1st. Remember thy garbage can to keep it covered.
- 2nd. Thou shalt cut the weeds in thy vacant lot lest it will become a hiding place for old tin cans.
- 3rd. Thou shalt bear witness against thy neighbors rubbish heap.
- 4th. Thou shalt clean out the habitation of thy horse.
- 5th. Thou shalt prevent the breeding of the fly that thy children unto the third and fourth generation need not swat him.
- 6th. Remember thy back yard and alley to keep them clean. Six days shalt thou labor—if yet the task is not accomplished thou couldst do worse than to continue on the seventh.
- 7th. Thou shalt covet the air and sunshine.
- 8th. Look not upon the milk when it comes from an unclean dairy.
- 9th. Remember thy clean-up day and keep it holy.
- 10th. If thou dost hearken unto these things, to do them thou shalt live long in the land and the clean-up spirit shall last 365 days in the year.

Shake Off That Grip

When Spring comes, with its changeable weather and your exposure, it is best to clear away all the symptoms left after an attack of grip. That evil disease leaves you weakened, and when its victim attempts to "do his bit" he exposes himself to the risk of a second attack, for which he is less prepared, and which may have graver consequences.

There's Danger in Delay

April and May are pneumonia months. In this time a weakened system is a constant source of danger, for the pneumonia and grip infections are in the air, and after a long winter the body is so clogged with waste it cannot resist them. Fortify the health, remove the catarrh, and improve the digestion.

For Quick Relief PERUNA

This reliable tonic is recommended to remove the waste from the body, counteract the catarrhal poisons and allay the inflammation that is catarrh, restore the regular appetite and tone up the entire system to resist disease. A well man is safe.

As a tonic after grip it has won many commendations, while its effectiveness in catarrhal conditions is unquestioned. Take no chances—Take Peruna.

Peruna Tablets are always ready to take. You may carry a box with you and ward off colds and chills. The liquid medicine in your home is a great safeguard. Protect your family.

HIS SPELLING MAY HANG HIM.

Proof of Colorado Man's Guilt Rests on His Own Evidence.

His inability to spell correctly will be one of the strong points at the trial of Paul Hildebrand, charged with the murder of his brother, Otto, on the latter's farm near Strasburg, Col, last December.

Near the body of the slain man lay a blood-stained check for $30, made out to Jack Randall and signed "Otto Hildebrand." The "thirty," however, was spelled "dirty" and "Jack" was spelled "G-a-k."

In the presence of a district attorney a detective handed a pen to Paul Hildebrand and requested him to write "thirty" and "Jack Randall." Not only did he write "dirty" for "thirty" and "G-a-k" for "Jack," according to the authorities, but his handwriting was identical with that of the check.

Alleging that the check was a mere subterfuge to divert suspicion to a fictitious Jack Randall, the authorities declare Paul Hildebrand's peculiar spelling is serious for him. Hildebrand is awaiting trial in jail. —Denver News.
