Estimable Lady Called to Her Reward.

Miss Sue M Price, daughter of the late Rev E H Price, died on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs W H Price on Highmarket street. Miss Price was about 59 years of age, and the only surviving member of her immediate family, her father and only brother, Mr W H Price, having passed away some years ago.

Miss Price had taught in the public schools of this and other counties of the State since she was 16 years of age. The past school year she taught the McClary school, near Kural Hall, and had only closed her school about three weeks ago. She was taken ill on Monday afternoon and gradually grew near the end, which came on Saturday at 7:20. The body was taken to Union church and laid to rest by the side of her father and brother, Rev P A Murray performing the last sad rites in the presence of many friends and relatives of the family. The pall bearers were Messrs Marvin M Thomas, W H Thomas, J B Hemingway, Willie Hemingway, A F McDonald, McG Carraway.

The deceased lady leaves two nieces and three nephews to feel very deeply the loss of a devoted aunt, and many friends in Georgetown, Williamsburg, Marion and other counties, where she has taught at various times, will regret her passing.—Georgetown Times.
