Mr E J Hester, perhaps the most widely known tobacco man in Williamsburg county, has arrived in Kingstree from Kentucky, where the tobacco markets have just closed. Mr Hester tells us that the markets closed with prices ranging higher than ever before known. Already he has been over sections of Williamsburg county and speaks most encouragingly of the crop prospects in this community. He feels sure that tobacco will sell high on the local market the coming season.

A hail storm passed over the North edge of town Tuesday, in which pieces of ice as large or larger than hen's eggs came down with considerable force for about five minutes. A colored farmer residing about three miles North of town brought to our office just after the storm a few of the hail-stones that had fallen on his place. Some of these ice-balls were still as large as golf balls. The storm, fortunately, did not extend over a very large area, and did not reach South of Church street in the town. Several crops to the North of town are reported to have been badly damaged.

The Quinine That Does Not Affect The Head Because of its tonic and laxative effect, LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE is better than ordinary Quinine and does not cause nervousness nor ringing in head. Remember the full name and look for the signature of E. W. GROVE. 25c.

Short Term of Court.

The spring term of the court of common pleas convened here Monday, his Honor, Judge R W Memminger of Charleston, presiding, with L E Wood, Esq., of Sumter as stenographer.

There was only one jury case for trial, that of Samuel B McElveen and J P Chandler, executors of the estate of Mrs Mary L Adams, plaintiffs, against J P Adams, defendant. The jury returned a verdict for the defendants for $772.00. Plaintiffs were represented by Messrs Stoll, Stoll & O'Bryan, and the defendant by Messrs Kelley & Hinds.

The court, after signing several orders and hearing a number of motions, adjourned sine die.

Visiting attorneys at court were Messrs N N Newell of Monck's Corner and P H Arrowsmith of Lake City.
