KINGSTREE HIGH AND GRADED SCHOOL NOTES.

The Wee Nee Literary Society held its first meeting of the 1917-18 session Friday, September 21. The officers were appointed and installed, and the new members were initiated. This being the first meeting, there was no literary program.

The girls of the high school have already begun practicing basket ball, and they hope soon to begin a series of games.

We have had considerable trouble this year getting our books and even yet there are several books that have not come.

The Parent-Teachers' Association met Monday, and it was decided that all pupils making an average of 90, from September till June, will be exempt from final examinations, but that all pupils will be required to stand mid-term examinations.

Death of Mrs Nelson.

Mrs Nelson, widow of the late John Nelson, died at her home in the Indiantown neighborhood last Friday night at the advanced age of 78 years.

Mrs Nelson, before marriage, was a Miss Snowden, a sister of Mr Percy Snowden, and an aunt of Judge John S Wilson, of Manning. Her husband died about 20 years ago.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Messrs Harvey and J C Nelson, and a large circle of relatives. She was a noble woman and beloved by all who knew her—old and young.

The funeral services took place Saturday at the Indiantown Presbyterian church, of which she was a devout member, conducted by her pastor, the Rev W R Pritchard, in the presence of a large gathering of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Make Your Dollars Count

By Taking Advantage of Our New Profit-Sharing System

Valuable Coupons Given with Every Purchase Made in Our Dry Goods Department.

By giving profit-sharing coupons and certificates we expect to increase our business without increasing our overhead expenses. Therefore the premiums we give you have nothing to do with the price of our goods, for we have not advanced our prices and will continue to give you one hundred cents worth of merchandise for every dollar you spend with us, in addition to profit-sharing coupons and certificates that are redeemable at our store for any article illustrated or listed in our catalogue.

Naturally it would be impossible for us to carry in stock all premiums listed in our catalogue, but if we fail to have on hand the premium you want, we have made arrangements whereby we can secure the desired article for you on short notice, and those saving our profit-sharing certificates do not have to pay transportation charges.

We solicit and aim to merit your valued trade with the understanding that in return you get full value for your money. Consequently, save your coupons and certificates. The more you buy of us, the more you get back in valuable premiums. Do not leave our store without securing coupons or certificates equivalent in value to your purchase. If our salesman fails to give them to you, ask for them—they belong to you as much as your change.

Allow us to help furnish your home and supply you with the most useful articles obtainable, without additional cost to you, and thus make every dollar you spend go as far as possible.
