WAS UNABLE TO WALK AT TIMES, SHE SAYS.

TO MOVE AROUND SHE HAD TO PUSH A CHAIR BEFORE HER.

Had Trying Experiences.

Mornings Were Miserable For Mrs Durham, But the Afternoons Brought Her More Comfort.

Though she had suffered with rheumatism so badly she could not walk at times during three or four years, and had also been troubled a great deal with a number of other ailments, Mrs J. T. Durham, of 2210 S. Main St., Anderson, declares that "Tanlac relieved my rheumatism and other troubles and got me in good shape in three weeks, after a lot of other medicines had failed to help me."

"I suffered with rheumatism so badly I could not walk at times," continued Mrs Durham, "and for several hours every morning when the rheumatism was particularly bad I would have to sit in a chair after being helped from my bed, and then my muscles would get so I could move around by pushing a chair before me. I generally was able to get around enough to get dinner, though I could never get breakfast."

"One of my legs was badly drawn, and I hurt all over and suffered torture. I had rheumatism badly for three or four years, but I had been in bad health for about nine years, when I began to take Tanlac. I also was troubled a great deal with indigestion and headache, and my nerves were almost 'gone to pieces.' I could not sleep well, and my system was weak and run down and I felt tired out all the time."

"The Tanlac soon got me where I could do my housework, for it quickly relieved the rheumatism and that drawing in my leg. I am strong and I feel well now. Tanlac certainly is a fine medicine for rheumatism, I think. I very seldom ever feel a pain in my body now, so well did Tanlac break up the rheumatism."

"The medicine also built up my system in general, gave me a fine appetite and relieved the indigestion. I could not eat anything hardly when I began taking Tanlac, but it got me so I could eat anything I wanted. I can sleep well now, and the Tanlac relieved the nervousness. I sure do feel fine, and the improvement in my condition is due to Tanlac."

Tanlac, the master medicine, is sold by Kingstree Drug Co., Kingstree; Mallard Lumber Co., Greelyville; Farmers' Drug Co., Hemingway; S. S. Aronson, Lane; R. P. Hinant, Suttons; W. D. Bryan, Bryan.

S. T. Carter, State Treasurer, has received up to November 24 for the fertilizer privilege tax $210,570.12. Last year at this date there had been received $166,556.71. The total for last year was $181,331.09. If the receipts this year for the balance of the year are only the same as for the same period last year, the privilege tax this year will amount to over $225,000. This money is paid over to the treasurer of Clemson College.

Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author, Says:

EVERY WOMAN EVERY MOTHER EVERY DAUGHTER NEEDS IRON AT TIMES

To put strength into her nerves and color into her cheeks.

There can be no beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked women without iron. The trouble in the past has been that women needed iron they generally took ordinary iron, which often corroded the stomach and did far more harm than good. Today doctors prescribe organic iron—Nuxated Iron. This particular form of iron is easily assimilated, does not blacken nor irritate the teeth nor upset the stomach. It will increase the strength and endurance of weak nervous, irritable, careworn, haggard looking women 100 per cent in two weeks' time in many instances. I have used it in my own practice with most surprising results.—Ferdinand King, M. D.

BEADS ARE VERY ANCIENT.

Found in Almost All Lands and Never Made Perfect in India.

The dictionary tells us that the word bead comes from an old English word "bede," meaning prayer. When the early church adopted the rosary and established the custom of telling off prayers on a chaplet of beads it gave its word for prayer to the little perforated balls of ivory, polished wood, glass, bone or silver of which the chaplet consisted. Nobody knows quite when the bead was first used as a means of reckoning prayers. The Mohammedans had this practice, but it is probable that Christians had it before Mohammed lived.

Beads were probably had various different names before they ever became of any significance to the early Christian church. They are probably of prehistoric origin, and they are found in almost every country. As we know, our own American Indians used beads of wampum, made from violet and white shells, for a means of exchange. It has sometimes been suggested that wampum was not made until after the Indians came in contact with European settlers, but there is strong evidence to show that the Indians themselves originated this form of shell currency.

Beads are found in Egypt, Persia, India and various other eastern countries in ruins that date to prehistoric times. They have always been considered possessive of strange powers. In India they are used to ward off all sorts of evil, and many of the beads found in old ruins are flattened on one side, showing that they had been used time and again to rub the afflicted part of some suffering body.

It is noticeable about the beads from India that they are never perfect. This is not the result of any inability to make them so, but is simply because the Hindu never makes anything perfect. Bad luck he thinks necessarily comes to any one who attains perfection, and if he writes a letter he blots; if he weaves a rug he leaves a bit of the pattern, as we all know, unfinished.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

Mystery of Sleep.

"Yes," said the doctor, "sleep is a very puzzling mystery. Nobody knows what the cause of it is, but we do know that it is always accompanied by anaemia of the brain. In other words, when you sleep the blood drains away from the head to the limbs. If you fell asleep on a balanced bed, the moment you dropped off the foot of the bed would begin to sink, and the deeper the sleep the greater the slant."

"That is why a hot bath tends to sleepiness. It brings the blood to the skin and so lessens the supply in the brain. Curiously enough, great cold has the same effect and for the same reason. You know how cold swells and reddens the hands."

Use of Fruit.

Most fruits contain from 75 to 95 per cent water and a balance of woody fiber, or cellulose, fruit sugar and minerals. Thus the free use of fruit daily insures a greater supply of water to the body.

The cellulose of the fruit supplies bulk and a mechanical stimulation which promotes waste elimination. Acid fruits, such as oranges, lemons, limes and most berries, contain a certain chemical compound called "vitamines" in a very stable form. These vitamins are believed to purify the blood and to prevent scurvy and various skin diseases.—Popular Science Monthly.

Huns and Goths.

The Huns were a Mongolian race who invaded Europe during the fourth century of the Christian era. They waged war with the Goths, then inhabiting central Europe, and drove them south into Italy, Spain and into the Balkan peninsula, thus indirectly causing the destruction of the Roman empire. The Goths reached as far west as Gaul, a Roman province that included the territory now called France, but all trace of them in Europe has been lost.

Rattle of the Rattlesnake.

The rattle of the rattlesnake is developed from the single conical scale or epidermal spine, which in most snakes forms the internal tegument of the tail. The bone on which the root of the rattle rests consists of the last caudal vertebra and is covered with a skin which is the beginning of the rattle in young rattlesnakes.

Ambition.

Ambition becomes displeasing when it is once satiated. There is a reaction, and as our spirit till our last sigh is always aiming toward some object it falls back on itself, having nothing else on which to rest, and, having reached the summit, it longs to descend.—Cornelle.

CHEMICAL COMPANY

RECOMMENDS PLAIN IRON AS A TONIC.

MEDICINAL IRON IS NOT A CURE-ALL, BUT IS NATURE'S BEST TONIC AND BLOOD MEDICINE.

By Buying the Natural Highly Concentrated Product the Users Can Get It Much Cheaper Than the Less Effective Kind.

The whole world knows that iron is a splendid blood medicine and tonic and whole families as well as individuals might wisely take a little concentrated Acid Iron Mineral occasionally just to help nature keep fit for the rigorous weather of winter and to drive out that "dopey" tired feeling due to impoverished blood.

Nine men and women out of ten need iron and the natural product, just as harmless as can be, may be bought in either six or twelve ounce bottles, testing over 10 degrees specific gravity, which is from two to six times as economical and powerful as prepared iron preparations containing as often as 1/100, considerable alcohol, which is an enemy to the system, or is mixed with blasting cathartics which upset the bowels and as often as not are not needed.

Iron is not a cure-all, but is a recognized tonic and blood medicine and if the reader is troubled with lack of vitality, energy, and ambition, and skin, complexion and general health indicates poor blood or excess uric acid causing rheumatic suffering, they should get a 12-ounce bottle of Acid Iron Mineral, which is the natural iron product of the Ferrodine Chemical Corp., of Roanoke, Va. The A-I-M trade mark on the bottle and carton is a guarantee of full strength and quality. It is not a patent medicine, contains not a single drop of harmful alcohol or dope and in this family size, twelve ounce bottle is the identical Acid Iron Mineral used by hospitals, physicians, and various medicine manufacturers selling it under different names. And in this concentrated form goes from two to six times as far, is stronger and better for you. Get a bottle day.

Happenings at Hebron.

Hebron, December 4.—One more Thanksgiving has passed, and we are glad to say the people of this community felt the need of giving thanks more than ever before. God has so wonderfully blessed us, and is it not His unseen hand that has guarded and kept us from feeling the war up to the present more keenly? Many of our hearts have been touched by our brothers and friends having to go to the training camps, but what is this to the battlefield? Let's watch and pray for a brighter day.

On Wednesday before Thanksgiving Mr. Bartow Smith, accompanied by Rev. D. M. Clark and Mr. W. T. Moore of Olanta, went deer driving near Andrews. They returned Thursday evening with a fine buck, killed by Mr. Smith. Hurrah for Uncle Bart!

Misses Lula Caldwell and Jane Ervin, two of Hebron's teachers, spent Thanksgiving at their homes, Lake City, and Indiantown, respectively. Mr. J. L. Gowdy and family spent Tuesday [at] New Zion visiting his daughter, Mrs. Marion Evans, and other relatives.

Meers Paul Smith, Clarence Kennedy, and Miss Olive Smith visited relatives near Olanta last Thursday.

Miss Stella Moore and little sister, Esther, spent the week-end at the home of their uncle, Mr. Bartow Smith.

Mr. J. B. Wallace and two daughters, Ruby and Pearle, accompanied by Mr. Clarence Kennedy and Miss Olive Smith, motored over to Sumter Saturday.

Mr. Jodie Baker and Miss Eleida Kennedy visited the home of Mr. George Thigpen at Olanta last Thursday.

Mr. Harvey Baker, one of the oldest men of our community, celebrated his annual family reunion on Thanksgiving day.
