Dr. W. H. Park Escapes Death at Hand of Fanatics

Sometimes the lives of missionaries are not as quiet and colorless as the ordinary layman would imagine. Here is a little story that has just leaked back about Dr. W. H. Park, a medical missionary of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, stationed at Sochow Hospital in China.

Dr. Park was recently in an uprising which occurred in Sochow. The populace became very much agitated at missionaries in general and a little project was imminent to behead all "foreigners" found in the city. Things were really serious and the streets became full of Bolshevik looking Chinamen.

It was essential for this particular missionary to answer an emergency call which took him through one of the narrow streets filled with the threatening crowd, but, as he had given relief to many in that district whenever help was necessary, he thought he might dare to go on his errand without the chance of being beheaded. But the order had gone out that all "foreigners" should be summarily dealt with and he took a long chance in the going.

He made his trip in one of the quaint little covered jinrikishes so intimately associated with China, and for several blocks he managed to get through undisturbed. However, a mass of yelling "heathens" at the intersection of one of the streets finally called his "chauffeur" to stop the "cab" and five or six dived frantically forward to remove the incumbent therein.

"Take the foreigner out! Take the foreigner out!" came in Chinese lingo from dozens of voices.

But the man who had pulled back the curtains of the Chinese "taxi-cab" dropped them as quickly as they were lifted, shrugged his shoulders in good Chinese style, and called back in the language which Dr. Park understood very well, after many years sojourn in China: "It's no foreigner in there. He's just Dr. Park."

As this particular missionary happens to be an unusually blond son of America, he said he felt very much flattered that the yellow folks of Sochow, really accepted him as a "brother."

THE NEW REVENUE

D. C. Heyward, Collector of Internal Revenue has given to the taxpayers and public the following information with reference to the sections of the new revenue bill which became effective, May 1st, 1919.

Section 630. On what is commonly known as soft drinks compounded and mixed at or in close proximity to Soda Fountains of other similar places of business including ice cream, etc. The tax is one cent on each sale of ten cents or less and if above ten cents one cent on each ten cents or fraction part thereof. The tax is on the whole amount of the price paid by the purchaser when the price is paid at one time though it might be in payment for several articles or drinks, but which are the subject of a single transaction purchase or sale. For example, if a sale is made of one glass of Coca Cola at the price of 5 cents, the tax thereon is one cent, but if one person purchases 5 Coca Colas at a price of 25 cents the tax thereon is 3 cents.

Section 904. Covering the tax upon the following articles sold at retail in excess of the specified prices. The tax is 10% of the amounts in excess of the following amounts. 1. picture frames above $10; 2. trunks above $50; 3. carpets and rugs above $5; 4. valises, suit cases, etc., above $25; 5. purses, pocketbooks; shopping and hand bags above $7.50; 6. portable lighting fixtures, lamps, etc., above $25; 7. umbrellas, parasols and sunshades above $4; 8. fans on amount above $1; 9. house or smoking coats, lounging and bath robes, etc., above $5.70; 10. mens waistcoats sold separately from suits above $5; 11. Womens and misses hats, bonnets and hoods, above $15; 12. mens and boys hats above $5; 13. mens and boys caps above $2; 14. mens, womens, and boys boots, shoes, pumps, etc., above $10; 15. mens and boys silk stockings and hose above $2 per pair; 16.

mens and boys neckties and neckwear above $2; 17. womens and misses silk stockings and hose above $2 per pair; 18. mens shirts above $3 each; 19. mens and womens, misses and boys pajamas, night gowns and underwear, on the amount in excess of $5 each; 20. kimonas, petticoats and waists above $15.

This tax has been referred to as the luxury tax and is effective on and after May 1st. Merchants will be required to render monthly returns covering the tax collected during the given month, and records should be kept as it will be necessary to report the taxes collected on each of the above subdivisions separately. The tax cannot be included in the sales price, but must be stated or billed as a separate item.

Section 907. Effective May 1st, a tax of 1¢ on each 25¢ or fractional part thereof of the amount paid for any of the following articles when sold to the consumer or user:

(1) Perfumes, toilet essences, toilet extracts, extracts, toilet waters, cosmetics, petroleum jellies, hair oils, pomades, hair dressings, hair restoratives, hair dyes, tooth and mouth washes, dentrifices, tooth pastes, aromatic cachous, toilet powders, (other than soap powders) or any similar substance, article or preparation by whatsoever name known or distinguished, any of the above which are used or applied or intended to be used or applied for toilet purposes:

(2) Pills, tablets, powders, tinctures, troches, or lozenges, syrups, medicinal cordials, or bitters, anodynes, tonics, plasters, liniments, salves, ointments, pastes, drops, waters, essences, spirits, oils, and other medicinal preparations, compounds or compositions, (not including serums and antitoxins), upon which the manufacturer or producer claims to have any private formula, secret, or occult art for making or preparing the same, or has or claims to have any exclusive right or title to the making or preparing, etc etc.

This tax is to be collected by the seller from the purchaser at the time of the sale, and the commissioner has ruled that the articles sold shall be stamped by the seller instead of keeping a record and filing returns. The proprietary stamps for this purpose have now been received, and orders for same will be immediately filled. The retailer selling to the consumer is responsible for the collection of the tax, and a stamp must be attached and cancelled to each of the above articles when sold. It is not required that they be stamped prior to sale, but all goods in stock may be stamped before actual sale if the retailer so desires.

Printed regulations are expected to be received under each of the above sections in the next few days, and all taxpayers having requested their name to be placed upon the list will immediately receive a copy thereof.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a Kingstree woman says:

Mrs. H. L. DuBose, Mill St., says: "I caught cold in my kidneys and it sometimes gave me a good bit of pain. When I would stoop over to do any dusting, I would get dizzy and often had nervous spells and at times specks floated before my eyes. I often had to sit down until this feeling passed away. My kidneys acted irregularly and caused me considerable annoyance. I could never rest comfortably and felt tired and languid constantly. I went over to the Kingstree Drug Co., and got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. Three doses and I felt great relief. When I had finished one box, all the kidney trouble was gone and I can highly recommend Doan's. I always keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house as a preventive."

WILSON ENDORSES SALVATION ARMY.

President Wilson, burdened as he is, found time to cable his endorsement of the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign, which will be conducted during the week of May 19-26. The cablegram:

Commander Miss E. Booth, Personal, Salvation Army, 120 West Fourteenth street, New York:

I am very much interested to know that the Salvation Army is about to enter into a campaign for a sustaining fund. I feel that the Salvation Army needs no commendation from me. The love and gratitude it has elicited from the troops is a sufficient evidence of the work it has done, and I feel that I should not so much commend it as to congratulate it. Cordially and sincerely yours,
WOODROW WILSON.

USED BEETLE MORT POWDER
Tabor, N. C.

The Kii-Tone Company, Vineland, N. J.

Dear Sirs:-
I used your Beetle Mort powder on my tobacco last year and find it is all you claim for it. It stimulates the growth of the plants as well as controls the flea, bug and worms. I will always use Beetle Mort powder when I can procure it.
Signed: J. F. Ward,

Beetle Mort Powder for sale by People's Mercantile Co. Kingstree.

Mr. Kettering Says:-

DELCO-LIGHT is the physical manifestation of a thought. Never cuss a Gasoline Engine. Cuss the Designer.

DELCO-LIGHT ran 2000 hours before the first plant was sold.

All things are manufactured by man for man's comfort and needs--If men were twice as large as they are, chairs would be made just double their present size.

So long as man is willing to debase his ideals for the dollars he can make, we shall have wars.

Commercialism "don't go" in DELCO-LIGHTING.

"Speed" counts for nothing, in making a success. If you are on the wrong road, the faster you go, the farther you will get from the desired object. The chief thing is to "get right"--then "stay right".

We shall go out of business rather than design or manufacture cheap apparatus.

DELCO-LIGHT is practically a "custom-made" plant. It is cut to fit the needs of the Farmer.

Ask J. V. CARTER, Lake City for a demonstration.

Can't help wondering how many side dishes would be served if men had the dish washing to do.
