VALUABLE STORE PROPERTY

IN Town of Manning

One of the store buildings known as the Walker Stores will be sold at Public Auction in front of the court house door in the town of Manning on Monday, June 2nd, at 12 o'clock noon.

This store is directly in front of the court house and is in the best location in the town of Manning.

This location will suit any kind of business.

In order to obtain two of these stores I was compelled to buy all three.

An opportunity will not soon occur again to get as desirable business location as this.

Manning is a Booming Business Town and valuable business property like this is not often offered for sale.

There is absolutely no business property in Manning that is vacant and property is increasing in value every day.

WOOL ALMOST UNOBTAINABLE Some Mills Too Busy To Work On Spring Designs

The woolen situation becomes more acute daily, says the New York Commercial. Desirable piece goods are unobtainable in many instances and sellers still possessing such fabrics can get almost any price for them. The demand for quality merchandise is unprecedented and contrary to all expectations and most predictions of mills, selling agents and buyers early in the year. On the other hand there are dealers and consumers of woollens who can honestly point to their declarations and truthfully say, "I told you so."

Some mills are so heavily burdened with fall 1919 business that unless they cut their orders practically in two they will not be in a position to work on spring designs, as there is no hope of their taking this business except at a very late date and for corresponding delivery.

Prices for spring goods will be on a much higher basis than fall opening quotations, all interested parties announce. Unless old experienced manufacturers and distributors of worsteds and woollens miss their guess there will be no lightweight quarter-blood worsted obtainable for spring of next year under $2.25 and no heavyweight of fine half blood offered for less than $4.00 a yard. A declaration of this kind even two months ago would have been made light of.

Possibly the most unlooked for tendency in the woolen market at present is the leaning toward strictly fine materials, and the great neglect credited to inferences, or cats and dogs, as they are called by traders. Of latter descriptions of woollens there are more than sufficient to cope with requirements.

That there are cheaper grades in the market at this late purchasing date is due almost entirely to the change of front on the part of the cutting-up trade and resellers of merchandise. Prior to the war fine numbers were the poorest sellers, the majority of orders calling for less expensive stocks. Higher wages paid the masses during and since the war have turned the tide in favor of high grade fabrics, completely upsetting mill precedent and routine.

666 has more imitations than any other Chill and Fever Tonic on the market, but no one wants imitations. They are dangerous things in the medicine line.—adv.

SALVATION ARMY VALIANT IN WAR

Having Served Gloriously in the Trenches, Is Coming Back From Overseas for Peace Time Activities.

ASKS HOME SERVICE FUND.

National Campaign to Replenish Resources Depleted by Long Direct Contact Services With Our Boys Scheduled for May 19-28.

New York (Special).—Like the 2,000,000 American boys whom it served so gloriously in the trenches of France, the Salvation Army is coming back from overseas, ready to put aside its khaki uniform of war service, don again the "Civvies" and embark once more on its normal peace time activities.

And, just like those doughboys, the Salvation Army has come out of the war victorious and with citations for bravery, decorations for gallantry under fire and golden chevrons indicative of honorably won wounds on its arm. The victory which the Salvation Army has won is a victory over the obstacles that lay before it in its purpose of efficient service of the fighters of Pershing's army. Its citations are the thanks, cheers and prayers of 2,000,000 doughboys. Its wound stripes are rightfully golden of hue, for they typify the unselfish way in which the Army threw all its resources—financial, spiritual and moral—into the effort to help the American soldiers in France.

Now the Army is asking the people of America to give it concrete evidence of the gratitude which has been so loudly, and so willingly expressed. From May 19 to 28 the Salvation Army will conduct in the United States a campaign to raise $13,000,000 for its Home Service Fund. The money is needed both to recoup the fortunes of the Army, shattered by its long service of the soldier and to permit it to carry on the work it has always done on the larger scale which the public now demands. Raising the money by this means, the Salvation Army explains, will eliminate, perhaps permanently, the necessity for the ceaseless solicitation of funds which has been a bugbear to the Army and the public alike. It will permit the workers of the Army, who, forced to devote more than half their time to gathering money, were in consequence only half efficient in their evangelistic and social service work, to devote all their time in future to the duties for which they have been trained.

OHIO BECOMES PROHIBITION

All Saloons Close Doors At Midnight Last Saturday

Ohio last Saturday night entered the ranks of prohibition States. Although constitutional prohibition did not become effective until Tuesday, though all but 163 of the 5,600 saloons in the State quit business at midnight Saturday rather than pay the $305 license in order to keep open Monday for one day. The license period for which licenses were granted expired May 24.

A goodly number of the saloons closed, will reopen later as soft drink places and restaurants. Many of the breweries will manufacture ice and go into the cold storage business. The biggest saloon in the world, located at Bridgeport, Ohio, did not close until Monday midnight. It is owned by Samuel Ungerleider and employs 77 bar tenders and clerks. For the past four years it has sold an average of 20,000 drinks a day.

Ohio now is the largest State in the country to have prohibition. The State was voted dry on last November 4, by a majority of more than 25,000.

The name of Petticoat lane is doomed to become obsolete.

NOTICE OF ELECTION

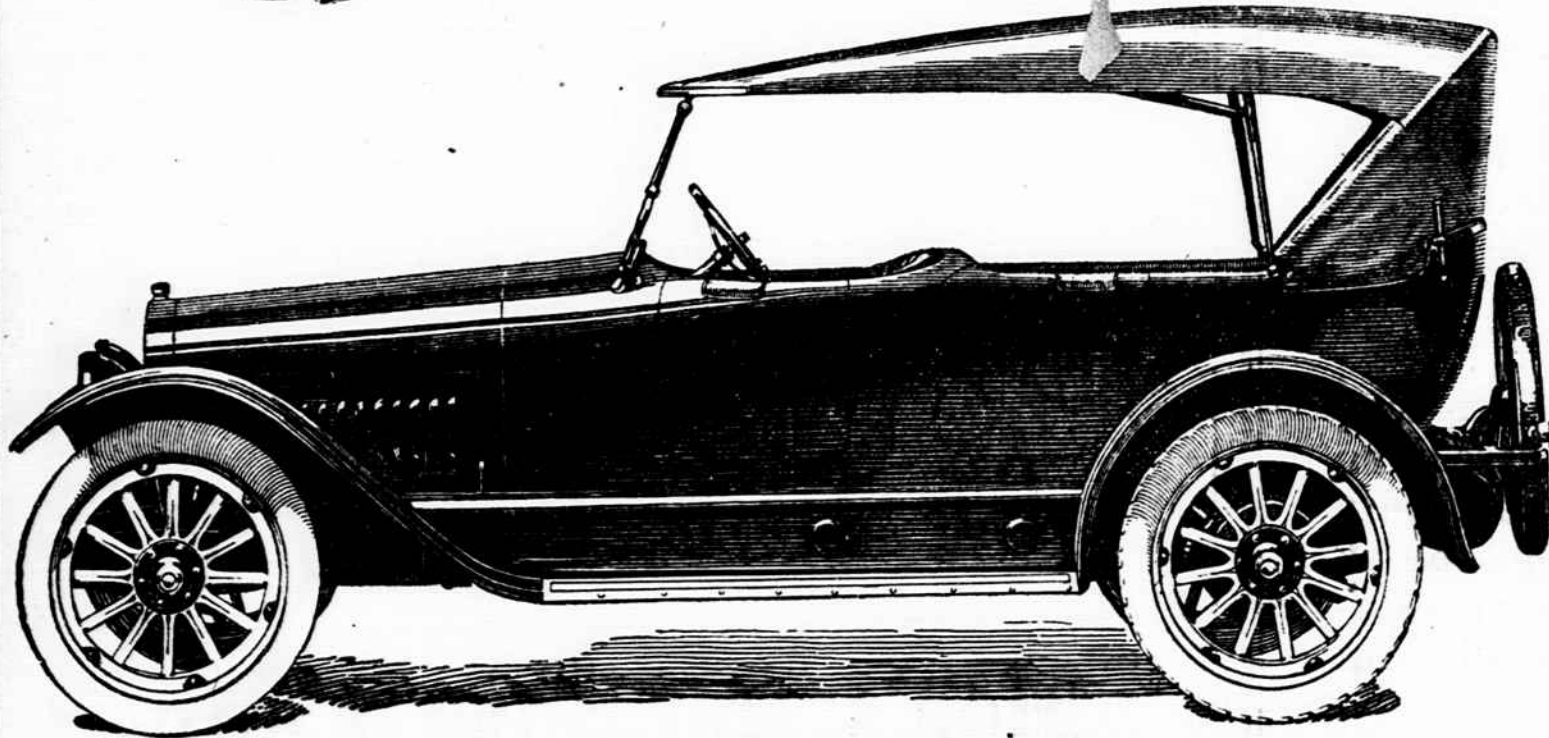

Notice is hereby given, that pursuant to an order of the County Board of Education of the County of Williamsburg, State of South Carolina, the undersigned, as Trustees of Spring Bank School District Number 43, of said County and State, will hold and conduct an election at the Spring Bank building, in said District, County, and State, on the 3rd, day of June, 1919, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters and electors of said School District residing therein the question of levying and collecting an annual tax of four (4) mills on the property in said School District, which tax shall be used to supplement the taxes now collected in said School District for school purposes; that for the purpose of said election the polls will be opened at eight o'clock in the forenoon and closed at four o'clock in the afternoon; that at said election only qualified electors who return real or personal property for taxation and who exhibit their tax receipts and registration certificates as required in general elections shall be allowed to vote, and each elector favoring the proposed levy shall cast a ballot containing the word "YES" printed or written thereon, and each elector opposed to said levy shall cast a ballot containing the word "NO" written or printed thereon, and the undersigned shall act as managers of said election, and the same will be held and conducted in the manner prescribed by Section 1742 of the Code of Laws of South Carolina, Volume 1, 1912.
