Humpty Dumpty.

Our readers who want to enjoy a hearty laugh are advised to keep in mind that Hewlette's Humpty Dumpty will play in Music Hall next Friday night. The Wilmington (N. C.) Star says of its appearance in that city.

"The performance of Humpty Dumpty at the Opera House yesterday afternoon and evening, by Rob. A. Hewlette's Company was a most agreeable disappointment and through-out a decidedly laughable and enjoyable entertainment. A noticeable feature was the stage management, which eleverly rushed everything through on time without the numerous hitches and painful stops so usual in all affairs of this kind. Starting with this we all affairs of this kind. Starting with this we all affairs of this kind. Starting with this we must next commend Mr. Hewlette's most clever impersonation of the Clown, upon which part the entire success of the pantomime rests. Mr. Hewlette possesses real ap-resterday titude and ability, and did himself great credit. Of the specialties, Revaldo's contortion act was a difficult and really wonderful performance. Mart Daniel's performance on the harmonicom and his clever imitations with a common lead pencil were features that pleased, and his song and dance won him a for sale in Sumter by Dr. A. J. His inside performance was cut short by the giving away of the sill of the box to which one end of the wire was fastened, but it was understood at once and the performance went on as if nothing had happened. Miss Devere's singing and dancing was excellent. The other attractions
