

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25. Entered at the Post Office at Sumter, S. C., as Second Class Matter.

EXAMINE YOUR PAPERS. We request each of our subscribers to examine the address on his paper, and particularly to observe the date upon it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. G. W. Steffens—Wholesale Grocer. W. D. Blanding—Estate of A. W. Brown.

PERSONAL. Mr. B. R. Nash is off again. First here since then.

Mr. J. W. Hinson from Charleston S. C., gave us a call last week. Mr. P. G. Rowan of Manning with his wife and daughter were in Sumter last week.

Mr. W. D. Rice, after a pleasant visit to Sumter, returned to Barnwell Thursday night. Mr. Joel E. Branson has moved his family to Sumter.

Miss Clara M. Olsen of Charleston, who has been visiting Rev. D. X. LaFar's family has returned home.

Col. J. F. Dargan was in our office yesterday. He says he is feeling quite well again. We congratulate both the Colonel and the General.

Senator Kerle and Representative Lee, both of whom are on the committee to examine the State Treasurer's books, left for Columbia to attend to that duty last Thursday morning.

An old subscriber to the Watchman and Southern, Mr. W. A. Nelson, formerly of Salisbury, but now of John's Island, was in town last week, and made us a pleasant call.

Rev. C. C. Brown, Mr. W. M. Graham and Col. T. V. Walsh attended the meeting of the Baptist conference which was at Marion C. H. last Thursday.

Mr. W. M. Jones, Editor of the Spartanburg Herald was in Sumter last week, visiting Mr. J. B. Bonch's family. We enjoyed a pleasant call from him, and were delighted to make his acquaintance.

Remember that town taxes must be paid in November. Sheriff Sanders expects to take possession of his office, the 1st December.

Don't forget the Farmer's meeting next Monday. Every farmer who can, should attend.

The Council has been putting up signs on the street corners, and folks can now tell the names of streets by their own.

The attention of our readers is called to the cards of our Charleston friend, which will be noticed more fully next week.

The election for Representative in the 4th District, yesterday, was very light. As there was no opposition of course Gen. Bratton was elected.

In our notice of Premiums at the State Fair last week, we omitted to mention that Mr. T. E. Richardson received the first Premium for best bushel white wheat.

The advertised sale of the Estate of Eliza Anderson has been changed to December 6th, when all the property, both personal and real will be disposed of at the Court House.

We had a little shower, a tiny little shower, last Wednesday afternoon, but that is all gone too.

And since writing the above we have had another shower Saturday night, but that is all gone too.

Base Ball. We have received a plate, entitled: Representatives of Professional Base Ball in America, it being the likeness of a number of professionals in that game.

The White Public School. The Public School is getting on well. There are 91 pupils on the roll and the number will probably increase to 100 before Christmas.

Piano Tuning. Prof. Wm. Baker of London, piano tuner and repairer, will be in Sumter about the 27th instant, and any one wishing his services either in town or country will be served if they will leave their orders with Dr. Auld.

The Electoral Vote in S. C. Col. J. D. Blanding and Gen. Prince received the highest vote for Presidential Elector, each having 69,890. The lowest vote was 69,690. The average majority of Democratic electors was 48,150.

Good Templars. Wednesday night, the Lodge in Sumter will install its officers for the ensuing quarter. The arrangements for the County Lodge, which meet next day, will also be completed.

Big Organ. Mt. Pisgah A. M. E. Church has a fine, new organ, and the largest possibly in the town. Wednesday night there will be a musical concert in which it will play a conspicuous part, at the Pianos' Ware House, and prizes will be given to the best Church Choir, the best Sunday School Choir, and to the person selling the greatest number of tickets.

County Commissioners' Report. That paper takes up a large amount of our space, and crowd out some of the favors of our correspondents. However, it is well worth reading, and our patrons can form an opinion of its merits, as to where the money goes.

A Happy Event. STATBURG, S. C., November 24, 1884. Mr. Editor: On Tuesday night a charming dance was given at the palatial mansion of Mr. H. L. Finckley, by the Starling Glee Club.

Mayesville Items. MAYESVILLE, S. C., November 24, 1884. Mr. Editor: At last the rains have come, and now our farmers can begin putting in their seeds, and let them remember to brood some plenty of cotton seed or fertilizers.

Cleveland and Hendricks Ball. On Thursday night, the 23rd inst., after the performance of the Kismet, the Grand Company, Grand Ball and Supper will be given.

The Sumter Post Office. The citizens of Sumter and vicinity are earnestly requested to assemble in Music Hall on Thursday night, 27th inst., and night following, not to decide who shall be postmaster of Sumter, but to witness the performance of the Kismet Comedy Company.

Cleaver. Our New Brighton, Pa. correspondent who intimated some time ago that he had something nice for us, has come to time with a barrel of oat meal, made by people who understand the divine art of its manufacture.

Splendid Chance. Write to Messrs. Kingsland & Heath and get prices of anything you want—China, Crockery, Tin-ware, Wood and Willow-ware, Spoons, Cutlery, Knives and Forks, Caskets, Tumblers, Lamp-glasses, Picture Frames, Chromes, Motives, Vases, Baskets, Kerosec Stoves, Bread Trays, Waiters', Bowls and Pitchers, Indian Carriage—no dogs.

Religions. The Rev. A. Melver Fraser, of the Synod of Kentucky, is expected to occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

Dime Reading. The Dime Reading will be held at Mr. C. E. Stubbs' residence to-morrow (Wednesday) night—services to commence at 8 o'clock. The services of the best readers and musicians in town have been secured.

FOR SALE OR RENT. MY DWELLING in the land around it, about 5 acres, in the town of Sumter, known as the "Francis Farm."
