

TUESDAY, JUNE 2.

EXAMINE YOUR DATES.

We request each of our subscribers to examine the address on his paper, and particularly to observe the date upon it.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

W. B. Murray—A Card. Lottier's Chimney Tobacco. J. W. Dargan—Sumter Cemetery.

Personal.

Mrs. M. F. Pate is very ill. Mrs. J. B. Carr has been sick for some days, and is still quite ill.

Miss Lizzie Lowry is visiting her sister, Mrs. Carr. H. J. Haysworth, Esq., of the Kingtree bar, was in town last week.

Mr. F. A. Folson has returned to his home in Charlotte, N. C. Miss Minnie Moore, of Menning, is visiting Maj. Dargan's family.

Mr. Len Kennedy has taken a place in Mr. Tomney's office, in Charleston. Misses Enlow and Olsen, of Charleston, are visiting Rev. D. X. LaFar's family.

Mr. Benjamin Weeks has been in failing health for some time, and is still very low. Master Willie White, son of Mr. Anthony White, is home from the High School at Chitons.

Dr. S. M. Dinkins was stricken with paralysis last week. We are glad to know that he is improving.

A communication from Rev. H. F. Christberg informs us that he will be at home to-morrow morning. Mr. J. T. Dargan of Dallas, Texas, is on a visit to his relatives, Mrs. E. A. Brunson and Maj. J. W. Dargan.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Col. Blanding's trip to Columbia has not benefited her health, and she is expected home this afternoon.

Mr. B. R. Nash was enjoying the pleasant breeze of the Gulf last Sunday, so we infer from a copy of Sunday's Mobile Register.

Master Charlie Yates and his sister, Miss Carrie, the nephew and niece of Mr. W. H. Yates, and who have been spending some months in Sumter, have returned to their home in Greenville.

Read Mr. W. B. Murray's card. Mr. D. B. Anderson puts his card in to-day's paper.

The Council have done some needed work on the buildings in rear of Music Hall. A big colored excursion has gone to Columbia to-day.

Main Street looks better. The trees have been trimmed up and the air has a chance to circulate. Mr. A. A. Solomon continues to sell goods, just the same as if it was not hot weather and hard times.

We would refer our readers to the fourth page in to-day's paper. Mr. Korshak's sermon is very interesting reading. We have the pleasure of informing our readers that a correspondent in the Fork of Black River will tell them of the important happenings in that part of the County.

Read the Grand Jury present carefully, and tell us what you think of its suggestions, especially the one relating to the whipping-post. We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to the Twenty-first Annual Commemoration of St. Joseph's Academy, which takes place at 6 o'clock P. M., June 22nd, 1885.

Bartlett Street, between Washington and Council Street, has been considerably widened and improved. The ground taken up in widening was given by Mr. R. P. Monaghan and the A. M. E. Church.

Sale day yesterday came as near being no sale-day as possible. The Sheriff sold two tracts of land and the contents of Whitehart's liquor store—only that and nothing more. We never saw so small an attendance on that important institution—a regular sale day.

Capt. J. D. McFaddin, in Concord, has as fine a field of corn as can be seen in Sumter County, and it is not a small field either, it's his entire crop. Plenty of corn is one of the necessities of a farmer's success. Capt. McFaddin purposes to do his share to that end.

Postponed.

The S. L. Association have postponed Gen. Moise's lecture on his Western trip, until Wednesday June 10th. Don't forget to attend. It will be a good thing.

The B. and L. A.

The subscribers to the above association are paying up very promptly. From present indications, that organization will make a fine start in life.

Religious.

Rev. A. M. Christberg preached Sunday last at a crowded house. The Baptist and Presbyterian Churches were both closed because of the absence of their pastor.

Lunacy.

Mr. W. John Brunson, of Concord, who has previously been in the Asylum, was sent back the 25th of May. Miss Vidow Ann Hawkins, of Springhill, was sent to the same institution this morning.

A Nice Time.

The children of the Sumter Baptist Sunday School met in Mr. W. F. B. Haysworth's spacious front yard Wednesday evening and enjoyed an ice cream and strawberry festival.

Crop Prospects.

A trip to the Kershaw line a few days ago, gave us a bird's-eye view of the crops throughout a portion of Providence, Bacon Creek and Springhill. Grass is growing finely and so is corn and cotton.

Married. At the residence of the bride's parents in Berkeley County, S. C., on the evening of the 20th of May, 1885, by Rev. S. T. Russell, Mr. W. P. Russell to Miss S. F. Egerton.

Deaths. Mrs. Gamble, wife of Mr. J. F. Gamble of Jordan, died last Friday from an attack of pneumonia.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Boatick died yesterday very suddenly. Mr. Jimmie Dabbs of Privater, aged 17, died Saturday morning after a short illness. His remains were carried to Darlington for burial.

Scarcity of Money. Some of our friends think our statement of the scarcity of money a mistake, and that our County is not so poor as we think. Well, may be not. Our opinion was possibly formed after a careful and painstaking search of our exchequer. Money may not be scarce. Oh no! but somehow it manages to elude our grasp with remarkable alacrity.

The Simms Sisters Wednesday evening in Music Hall, last Wednesday evening, and had a full house. The audience was disappointed, however, in the evening's amusement. The young ladies we think do their best, and really show considerable skill in playing both the violin and guitar under somewhat difficult circumstances, but they have no voices for singing, and their efforts in that line were fat failures.

Hard to Beat. We received last week, from Mr. O. C. Scarborough, of Bishopville, two turkeys of elephantine proportions. One measured twenty inches in circumference, and the other seventeen, and was eight inches in length.

Guano Sales in Sumter. Mr. R. A. Brand, our R. R. Agent, gives us the following figures on guano. Delivered to Merchants, 1,371 tons. Farmers, 250 "

The R. W. G. L. of I. O. G. T. We have received through the courtesy of G. W. C. T., Christberg, copies of Toronto papers, giving a full account of the meeting of the R. G. Lodge of the World, which was in session in Toronto, Canada, last week.

Those Stumps. We understand that the Warden in Ward 2 has undertaken the task of removing the stumps in Ward 4. That by the aid of dynamite, gunpowder, electricity or some other explosive material they will be blown into thin air, and the place that now knows them will soon know them no more forever.

LYNCHBURG ITEMS. LYNCHBURG, S. C., May 30, 1885. Mr. Editor: We have been having quite a religious fest in our midst of late. The Rev. LaFar, Perry, Reid, and McCullough assisted our efficient and much-loved pastor, Rev. H. B. Garriss.

Counterfeiting a Valuable Article. The publisher of the Madison County Record writes from Huntsville, Ark., as to the effect of Brown's Iron Bitters on his wife. Mr. Dargan's family, who has been using the Bitters for some months; the effect in her case is remarkable.

Providence Items. PROVIDENCE, May 20, 1885. Mr. Editor: Fine showers and an abundance of them. Crops look well, early vegetables are plentiful, cabbage are heading and our wives, whenever we are lucky enough to have them, can get up a good dinner without much trouble.

The Weather. Besides the regular Editors, the Observer has a host of paid contributors and correspondents all over the world, including home and foreign missionaries, travelers, scholars, divines, poets and literary men and women.

A CARD. THE UNDERSIGNED is pleased to inform his friends and former patrons, throughout the Eastern section of South Carolina that he has connected himself with the business; and will be at the service of his friends at the House of Messrs. E. T. BROWN & CO., of Charleston, S. C., and will hereafter represent them in the section above mentioned.

THE WATCHMAN AND SOUTHRON. Editor: We have been having quite a religious fest in our midst of late. The Rev. LaFar, Perry, Reid, and McCullough assisted our efficient and much-loved pastor, Rev. H. B. Garriss.

Mayesville Items. MAYESVILLE, S. C., June 1, 1885. Mr. Editor: Warm weather and good seasons. We have some sickness, and among others will mention the family of Mr. T. B. Rhame as being quite unwell.

Mrs. Victoria Griffin of Florida, with two children, is visiting our Mr. Griffin. Both the children are sick. Mrs. Dr. Rembert and daughter are sick with chills. They are Berkeley County chills.

Mr. T. G. Mayes, son of Mr. T. A. Mayes has returned from New Orleans. Miss Burgess is visiting her sister, Mrs. Peter Mayes.

Dr. Corbett is kept quite busy looking after the sick. Mrs. D. W. Chandler has gone on a visit to Columbia. Mr. C., is engaged in the brokerage business with headquarters there.

Our Young Lawyers. COLUMBIA, S. C., May 29, 1885. Editor Watchman and Southron: As it was my privilege and pleasure to be present in the Supreme Court room on the evening of the 26th, when the class of young men were examined and admitted to the bar to practice law, I think that it might not be uninteresting to your readers to hear how the young men from Sumter acquitted themselves.

Winburn made some nice photos last week, and can make more this week. Items from the Fork. FINE BLACK REEF, May 30, 1885. Mr. Editor: The corn crop, though small, has an excellent color. I notice, since the refreshing rains and few hot sunny days we have had, that it is rapidly improving from the check it received during those cold nights we had some time since.
