The Musical Association.

The Concert given last Wednesday eveping at the Music Hall, for the benefit of the cept in the size of the audience.

The Overture by an Amateur String Band followed by the Quintette, Moonlight on the Take, was a most appropriate opening to the "concord of sweet sounds" which followed. We were especially pleased with the instrupental duett by little Mamie and Agnes McCallum. It was splendid, and the talented little girls received a perfect ovation of applause. "Harps Angelical" by Mrs. McLaurin and Mrs. Harby was as sweet as the sil- T. C Scaffe's. very voices of the fair songstresses. Mrs. Teicher sang two solos, and her splendid woice seemed at its best. The instrumental pieces by Mrs McLaurin and Mrs. McCallum were fine, while Mrs. Graham's selection was just such as to fill and satisfy the music hungry soul. (We made a horrible blunder once in calling the brilliant effort of a lady a jig, whereas it was a polka, and hence lest we fall into a worse blunder, we must speak of the Miss Pearl Aneson, St. Louis, Mo. instrumental music in a very general way.) Mrs. Harby's rendering of a song from Donigetti was delicious; and the Concert closed with "Sitting on the Golden Fence." which was boisterously applauded.

The bot oyster supper afterwards was well patronized and the audience, from appearances had a most enjoyable evening.
