

The Watchman and Southron.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9.

The Southron Watchman was founded in 1850 and the True Southron in 1866. The Watchman and Southron now has the combined circulation and influence of both of the old papers, and is manifestly the best advertising medium in Sumter.

Attention Advertisers.

The Watchman and Southron will hereafter be published on Wednesday, and advertisements should be sent in not later than Tuesday afternoon. Changes of contract advertisements must be made Monday morning.

CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

Mr. H. R. Thomas in an article in this paper defends the Farmers' Movement, against charges made in a late editorial in the Bishopville Enterprise, and calls upon the Editor of that paper to give names to substantiate his position. Read what he has to say. The piece from the Enterprise can be found elsewhere.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

President Cleveland has issued the annual Proclamation appointing Thursday, Nov. 24th, a Thanksgiving Day. Let us all observe that day and testify with loving hearts our deep gratitude for the many blessings God has bestowed upon each and every one of us this year.

As will be seen by the notice elsewhere the merchants of Sumter have agreed to close their stores, and consequently the day will be duly kept here.

LET THEM HANG.

It is very much to be hoped that Governor Oglesby will not commute the sentences of the seven condemned anarchists to imprisonment for life. Such an outrage on justice, peace and good order would only invite a renewal of such scenes as the wholesale murderers perpetrated at the Haymarket in Chicago. Let them be hanged on Friday. Let the country be rid of such diabolical demons. Let a wholesome example be set in the execution of these anarchists who are the leaders of a most dangerous and destructive element out West.

STATE FAIR.

Columbia is spreading herself no little this week. She is entertaining the whole State. All have gone there and there is nobody at home outside the limits of that beautiful and charming city.

If our capital is not painted red this week, it will be a wonder most passing strange, and can only be accounted for on the ground that our young bloods are afraid of having too big a notice in that wide-awake and newsy journal, the Register.

THE FARMERS' MEETING.

The Farmers' Meeting on last Saturday was not as largely attended as it ought to have been. For some reason or other there is little or no interest taken in this County in what is known as the Farmers' Movement. Mr. H. R. Thomas has made repeated efforts to arouse his fellow-farmers and inspire a modicum of enthusiasm in them on the subject of the Movement, but so far all his exertions have almost been fruitless.

The meeting was called to order about 12 o'clock by Mr. Thomas who delivered an address of some length. He delineated in sombre hues and melancholy tints the condition of the poor farmers in South Carolina. A most morose view was taken of the financial standing of the farmers of this County. The picture was so heavily draped in mourning that the farmer, his horse, his mule and plow were completely covered up from the mental view by those gloomy colors, fens, mortgages and those awful promises to ship so many bales of cotton for supplies. The Tillman phrase, "heaters of wood and drawers of water," was hazled forth and gracefully applied to the farmers of Sumter County. "Each year," said the speaker, "the price of cotton was growing lower and lower and taxes growing higher and higher." His fellow-citizens were told that his help better rally under the farmers' flag, because he said, "our system of business means confiscation of farm property." "The devil must be fought with fire."

Our system of education was next taken hold of and handled without gloves by Mr. Thomas. He declared that our educational system means ignorance to the Farmers' children, and that out of their taxes the State Superintendent of education is paid $2,100, including traveling and office expenses, and $1,200 for clerk hire. He said, "I ask you taxpayers if you ever saw the Superintendent of education or his clerk, and if you ever received one cent of benefit from either of them. And so on, on our educational system." Capt. B. J. Brownfield followed Mr. Thomas and argued in favor of an Agricultural College, but with forcible logic showed the facility of the arguments against the maintenance of the Citadel and South Carolina College. Capt. Brownfield briefly and convincingly proved by his arguments based upon solid facts and experience that these institutions had been and are now of great benefit to us and that the people of the State were in need of free education of every kind, and that they ought to have it, literary, agricultural and mechanical. Capt. Brownfield referred to the everlasting cry made at these meetings about the poor farmers and their terrible despair and suffering. He said he was tired hearing of it. The farmers of this County were not suffering and in despair. That their crops were good this year, and they were in good spirits. As to the failure of their business arrangements, that the farmers alone were responsible for them, and that they could not be saddled on to the shoulders of others.

Capt. John S. Richardson next spoke, subscribing to all that had just been said and argued in the same spirit as did Capt. Brownfield. Capt. Richardson produced a statement showing the result of his experimental farming this year and which demonstrates that Mr. Peterkin was right when he said that more money can be made by using cotton seed meal than by the use of any other fertilizer, and that a great deal less is realized by the use of the seed:

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 1; fertilizers used, none; cost of manures, nothing; paid for picking, $3.77; number of bushels of seed, 114; value of seed, $2.90; value of lint, $22.11; net, $21.24.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 2; fertilizers used, 200 pounds acid, 300 pounds cotton seed meal; cost of manures, $6.30; paid for picking, $5.13; number of bushels of seed, 214.5; value of seed, $1.56; value of lint, $30.12; net, $23.25; made by use of manure, $2.01.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 3; fertilizers used, 100 pounds kainit, 300 pounds cotton seed meal; cost of manures, $5.25; paid for picking, $5.82; number of bushels of seed, 25.5; value of seed, $1.16; value of lint, $34.17; net, $28.26; made by use of manure, $7.02.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 3; fertilizers used, 100 pounds kainit, 200 pounds acid; cost of manures, $2.55; paid for picking, $4.41; number of bushels of seed, 10.15; value of seed, $3.92; value of lint, $22.90; net, $22.86; made by use of manures, $1.62.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 5; fertilizers used, 30 bushels of cotton seed; cost of manures, $5; paid for picking, $4.78; number of bushels of seed, 217; value of seed, $4.25; value of lint, $28.04; net, $22.51; made by use of manures, $1.27.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 6; fertilizers used, 360 pounds of pea meal; cost of manures, $4.50; paid for picking, $4.39; number of bushels of seed, 193; value of seed, $3.90; value of lint, $25.75; net, $20.76; lost by use of manure, 48.

Acres planted, 1; number of experiments, 7; fertilizers used, 360 pounds pea meal, 200 pounds acid, 100 pounds kainit; cost of manures, $7.05; paid for picking, $5.24; number of bushels of seed, 23.1-5; value of seed, $4.64; value of lint, $30.62; net, $22.49; made by the use of manure, $1.25.

In these experiments I have charged cotton seed at 10 cents per bushel, that being the price last Spring. I now put seed at 20 cents per bushel, present price. The rest of manures put at price paid for them. I have picked over cotton five times and will pick again.

Mr. Harry Sanders and other gentlemen also spoke, testifying to the great value of the cotton seed meal as a fertilizer over that of the cotton seed.

A Farmers' Meeting has been called for Nov. 21st, when five delegates will be elected to represent the farmers of this County at the Farmers' Convention to be held in Columbia next month. The attention of farmers is directed to the notice published in this paper for said meeting.

Standing up for His Father. Senator Moise, of Sumter, presents an Insult Offered by Mr. Robert Ellerbe. News and Courier, Nov. 2.

A difficulty took place in the Charleston Hotel barroom on Tuesday afternoon which, but for prompt interference, would have resulted seriously.

Mr. Robert Ellerbe and Senator Marion Moise, both of Sumter County, met in the bar. Mr. Ellerbe walked up, shook hands with Mr. Moise, and said: "I am glad to see you, but your father is a rascal." As he uttered these words, Mr. Moise spat in his face and quickly drew a revolver, with which he struck Mr. Ellerbe on the head, and then stepped back prepared to fire. At this moment a party of friends intervened and took Mr. Ellerbe away, which ended the dispute.

Mrs. Swell of Indianapolis, in an address to the Woman's Congress, said that she believed that there was a great danger in confiding the education of our youth to a disfranchised class—women. As this has been the case for some hundreds of years, the danger would not seem to be very grave. This remark also recalls the fact that if woman are disfranchised, they are in great part responsible for it themselves. If all the women teachers who have charge of the instruction of our youth should instill into their minds the sacredness of the cause of woman's suffrage, it would not be many years before, in the natural course of events, there would be a majority of the voters in his favor.

If the success of Gala Week in Charleston is to be measured by the worth of the contemporary issues of the News and Courier, the highest standard has been obtained. The News and Courier, in its twelve-page clothes, is one of the finest newspapers in the country, North or South. Whatever Charleston may lack, her people supports her papers.—Augusta Chronicle.

PRESIDENT DAVIS. INVITED TO OUR STATE FAIR.

We have not time to write about all the Bargains in stock, but desire to call attention to a few.

WE MAKE NO LEADERS,

Do not sell one line below cost and others at more than their value to catch up. We have no special days.

Every Day is Bargain Day with us; goods are as cheap on Thursday as on Wednesday. Customers who have been dealing with us since we first entered business, still stick to us, and we daily bear expressions of satisfaction from them.

DRESS GOODS

32 inches wide at 25 cts., which cannot fail to give satisfaction; they are in all colors, both solid and stripes. These goods were marked down on the 24th of October.

Flannels and Ladies' Cloths in solid colors and plaids. They are the best and warmest goods for winter wear. Try "our dead shot Rheumatism Flannel."

EXTRA BARGAINS

In Gent's Shoes, we are doing an enormous business for the money; the only paper about them is the package in which we wrap them up. People are recognizing the fact that they do not desire to buy paper when they buy shoes. In we are not raising a hullabaloo, and cannot sell a first-class article at the same price as is asked for shoddy suits. In the past week three gentlemen here told us that the suits sold them four years ago (1883) are perfectly good now. Names given on application. That tells the kind of clothing we sell. If you want any, call and examine them. We have just received a line of fine Overcoats, made by the celebrated house of Alfred Benjamin & Co. Have them at all prices. Our 8.00 Overcoat is heavy and will wear for years. Our 18.00 Overcoat is a beauty, full satin lined and equal to any custom-made garment. Elegant stock of underwear.

GLASSWARE AND CROCKERY

(on second floor.) Both these lines overrunning with Bargains. Have no room to talk about Groceries; it is a household word that you get the Best Groceries at Moses'.

Best Groceries at Moses'

Sugar is booming, but we are still selling that beautiful light article at 16 lbs. for a dollar. Parties desiring goods in large quantities should get our jobbing prices before ordering elsewhere. We do not deal in Chestnuts, you will find them next door. If you want to bear more call on
