In traditioning the advertisement of Mr. tamone Moses, felling of his removal to his evisione the types played us the trick of drop-sing out his pame. That it was not wholly second for the same to be there, however, was made manifest by the fact that a gentleman from the country called the attention of Mr. Moses to the emission. He evidently knew whose removal it chronicled. On behalf of the tricky types we tender this expli-

An Appreciated Compliment. We learn from the Darlington News that on the first Sunday in August, services will be conducted in the new Episcopal chapel in that town, for the first time, by the Rev.
