Libel.

Our friend of the Bishopville Enterprise is in auck. He is about to have a suit for libel filed against him. It appears that a blind man named Massey had been giving some species of concert in and around Bishopville for sometime, and one Dr. Salvo was in some manner connected with him. Mr. Mass: y became a favorite with everybody except the Enterprise, and turned his popularity to account by owing as much money as possible.

The pair suddenly departed, and Dr. Salvo was rather surprised to be arrested in Chester and returned to this County, where for a short while, he enjoyed the public hospitality of Sheriff Carson. The charges against him not being sustained, be was discharged and family lived and some small outhouses, all covered by a policy of $1,850. A small portion of his stock of goods worth $4,000, insured for $2,200, was saved. He carried besides, a policy of $100 on his furniture which was all consumed, but that represents but a small percentage of his loss. It was almost impossible to obtain insur-

suce in this quarter of the city, and those who succeeded were compelled to pay a premium of 41 to 5 per cent. No praise is too great for the firemen of Sumter; and the stern inflexibility with which they braved that storm of quivering, blistering heat and put water where it was needed, was the admiration of all who witnessed it. Men will long remember that night of danger when the shivering, trembling little steamer won her first crown; and they will hear in their dreams the heavy thump, thump of that other machine whose arotive power of Col. W. B. MITCHELL. PARKER'S CINCERTONIC Harper's Bazar.

HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain ts reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illu-trations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fash-ion and Household departments of the most p: action and economical character. Its patternsheet supplements and fashion-plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories, and timely essays, are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black, and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christino Terhune Herrick.
