SUMTER'S GREAT DAY!

A Grand Ovation to Gen. Earle. To-day has been an era in the history of the Gamecock County. A day, the like of which, it has never seen before. ...

With merry hearts the deaf and willing hands of the fair daughters of Sumter, and with each other, regardless of the inclement weather yesterday, and robbed midsummer of evergreens to garland and festoon the stage. ...

As the gentle rains fell last evening, and amid the splash of the long train of handsome equipages and high stepping steeds, repaired to the depot, on the arrival of the speakers, accompanied by an immense concourse on foot. ...

The carriage in which the Sumter champion of the "Straightouts" sat was very tastefully decorated, and the passage of its occupant, up Main Street, was the centre from which went up dins of applause. ...

The enlivening strains of music, from the 4th Reg't. Brass Band, added most materially to the occasion, they beading the column. ...

Just as General Earle's carriage had passed the Court House, on Main Street, many thunderous calls for Earle! Earle! went up. The General had to respond and deliberate, from the Court House steps, to that sea of upturned faces, a speech in which he returned thanks, &c, for the honors done him by his own people, and there is no dispute, but that the sentiments were entirely sincere. ...

Happy efforts were also made by Gen. M. L. Bonham, Jr., and Capt. Bellinger, who was nominated to the full, with everything anti-Tillman. The candidates were very comfortably provided for at the Jersey House. ...

The 9th of July was ushered in by enthusiasm increased to a pitch beyond description—crowd after crowd pouring in from every quarter, until around the Court House there was a compact mass of humanity. ...

Columbia forwarded a noble band of men with Col. A. C. Haskell among them, to aid Sumter in her day of trial. ...

Mr. Tillman, who had stopped at Wedgefield the overnight—to gather strength and sympathy probably, from his friends by the wayside—came in the city about 10:30 o'clock and was hailed around the square and up to the stand in a wagon, pulled by a hundred or two of his adherents. ...

In being the reverse of securing "entire harmony and good will among all mankind and brotherly love among ourselves," and instead of suppressing "personal, local, sectional and national prejudices, all unhealthful rivalry and all selfish ambition," it will promote the growth of these very evils condemned in our "declaration of intentions." ...

2nd. That we condemn the action of these alliances as unconstitutional: In being calculated to lower the high standard of the order to the plane of partisan politics, a bad school for the education of the agricultural classes in the science of economical government in a strictly non-partisan spirit."
