NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. R. D. Lee, Sec. - Notice. R. E. DeLorme - Fertilizers. Brown & Purdy - Spring 1891.

PERSONEL. Mr. James Bond, of Camden, was in the city on Saturday.

Mr. R. C. Lemp and family, of Union, are visiting in the city.

Miss Willie Russell of St. Stephens, S. C., is visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. J. H. Higgs.

Mr. J. S. Barret and Mrs. John Anderson, of Orange, N. C., are visiting in the city.

Mrs. R. G. Pierson, and her daughter Miss Maria, have returned to the city from their visit to Georgia.

Hon. T. B. Fraser left the city on Monday night for Chesterfield Court House, where he will hold court.

Miss Ellie Earle returned on Saturday to Columbia, where she studies at the South Carolina College for Women.

Rev. A. M. Sale has returned to the city from Newberry, where he went to visit his mother, who is very ill.

Mrs. J. A. Schwiner and little son will leave this week for a visit to Mrs. J. T. Solomon, of Troy, Ala.

Mr. Zimmie Mims, who has been in the store of Mr. B. J. Barnett for some time, accepted a position with Messrs. Rytenberg & Sons on the first of the month.

Mr. R. E. Ayers has rented the house on Republica Street, near New Street, lately built by Messrs. Bowman & Ingram, and expects to remove his family here soon.

Miss Jennie Whilden and Mrs. Lillian Harley, who have been the guests of Captain and Mrs. J. K. Jester, left the city this week for Chesapeake.

Mr. J. S. Hartwell returned on Saturday from a visit to Wilmington. He seemed quite pleased with the town and is considering the advisability of accepting the call which he has recently received to take charge of the Episcopal Church in that city.

The cold wave predicted to arrive here on Monday is somewhat tardy.

A wild turkey was killed by Dr. R. B. Furman in Privateer Township near Dr. J. H. Furman's place last week.

Messrs. Bowman & Ingram have given the contract to Mr. G. F. McMaster to build a six room cottage on the corner of Republica and Main Streets.

Mr. G. W. Marrell will commence next week, a handsome seven room two story building near the A. C. L. depot.

Mr. J. A. Schwiner's neat fire room cottage on Hill street, is nearing completion. Mr. Schwiner will soon give a contract to Mr. G. F. McMaster to build two and perhaps three more houses on the same street.

In spite of the temperance lectures given nearly every night last week reports say another bar-room will be opened shortly on Main Street, which will increase the number of bar-rooms to ten.

Mr. J. A. Schwiner proposes organizing a stock repertory company for the next theatrical season, to give the people of Sumter a good show three nights in every week at popular prices.

Mr. L. Glick, who announced to the readers of the Watchman and Southron that he would open a general merchandise business about February 1st, at the store named with a stock of desirable goods. He has engaged the services of Mr. K. M. Montgomery and J. T. Houshopper.

There seems to be a decided partiality now in Sumter for the poultry business, which doubtless has been stimulated by the success of our fellow townsmen at the late poultry show. Besides Messrs. Sims, Murray and Reid, Dr. A. F. Chisholm and H. L. Darr have taken hold of it and already have quite a creditable collection of chickens. One has no idea of the number of fine fowls there are in Sumter.

The Rev. John Kenbow will conduct the services at the Church of the Holy Comforter on Sunday next, at 11 a. m., and 7.30 p. m.

Chandler, Shaw & Co. This firm will hereafter be found at the old stand of P. D. J. Winn. They make an important announcement in this paper.

More Horses and Mules. R. F. Hoyt has received another lot of Tennessee Horses and Mules at the lot near Matthews's Machinery store on Main Street.

Our Band in Bishopville. The 4th Regiment Band will give a concert in Bishopville to-morrow evening for their benefit. The same conductor, who assisted them here will accompany them, and there will be for the most part a reproduction of the delightful program rendered here. We wish it were possible for us to go along too.

Salesday. Monday being salesday, brought as usual, a large crowd to town. The streets were thronged and there were number of bargains made. Capt. Jerry sold about forty horses. The highest price brought was $35. The lowest, $25.

The following real estate was sold: Two lots of land belonging to the estate of Mrs. T. J. Moore, situate in the city of Lynchburg. The first was purchased by Capt. W. J. McLeod for $20. The second containing one-sixth of an acre, by Mr. Friersen for $40.

The Monumental Association. As will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, a special meeting of this association has been called. The object of the meeting is to determine whether the Association shall lease to the Commissioners of this School District, the southern part of Magnolia square, for the purpose of erecting thereon a public school building. The meeting is called for Monday next at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Washington Street school house.

The Graded School Building. Mr. Frank Nierse, the Architect, brought over his plans and specifications and submitted them to the Board of School Commissioners, last night. The plans certainly are captivating, and the building, when completed, will be the most conspicuous of any in Sumter.

Married. Miss Belle Mulrow and Mr. T. J. Baker, of Sumter, were united in marriage on the evening of Sunday last. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, Dr. R. M. Mulrow, of Salem. The Rev. Mr. McKay performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. After a sumptuous banquet was served, and it will long be remembered as a joyful and happy occasion by all who attended. The esteem in which the young couple are held and the love that is manifested in their mutual and costly presents they received. Along with others we extend to them our good wishes for a bright and happy future.

On Jan. 7th, at Bishopville, by the Rev. Mr. Curtis, Mr. T. M. Mulrow, of Providence and Miss Lizzie Stackney, of Bishopville.

[From the Advance of Jan. 31st.] Married on the 28th instant, at Rose Bank, Georgetown County, at the residence of her parents, Miss Mizzelle Fraser to Mr. Jas. W. Dick of this County, the Rev. Mr. Alston of the Episcopal Church officiating. The happy event was celebrated in grand style by a fine banquet. There was a large crowd of well-wishers and the attendants and the order in which they were arranged:

Miss Josephine Fraser with Mr. W. Robt. DeLear, Jr. of this city. Miss Alice LaBruce with Mr. Percy Smith. Miss Lucy Tucker with Mr. Thorne Sparkman. Miss Julia Smith with Mr. Davidson. Miss May Holman with Mr. David Fraser. Miss E. Sparkman with Mr. M. Jos. Sporkman.

The presents received by the happy couple were numerous and costly. We extend our congratulations and wish them a long life of happiness.

Fire at Summertown. Capt. Wm. Briggs, of Summertown, had his house destroyed by fire last Monday evening. Capt. and Mrs. Briggs were absent at the time and the only persons on the premises were their little daughter and a colored man. The fire is supposed to have originated from the kitchen chimney. The little girl suggested to the man the advisability of tearing off the shingles from the roof to prevent the spreading of the fire, and which might have had the desired effect but he was afraid "Captain" might not like it, so the flames rolled on. The house and out buildings were insured for about $2,000, but there is some doubt as to whether it might not have expired.

The Observation Party. An Observation Party was given Monday evening by the Daughters of Israel at the residence of Mrs. Rebecca Moise for charitable purposes, admission fee being ten cents. The entertainment consisted in a number of articles being placed upon a table and each one of those present were admitted and allowed three minutes for observations, and then taken out into an adjoining room and allowed five minutes to write down the number of things observed. The one recording the largest number of observations to receive the prize.

Mrs. F. Levi and Dr. S. C. Baker were the closest observers, having recorded the largest number of observations, and received the prizes. Mr. DeLeon Moses was awarded the booby prize.

Odd Fellows Feast. The Sumter Lodge No. 2173 gave a hot supper last night to the Hall recently occupied by the W. G. S. The menu was excellent, consisting of all kinds of meats, fish, oysters, etc., and the banquet was in every way a complete success. The speeches and songs were enjoyed by all who attended. It is gratifying to know that the evening was an enjoyable one to those who devote themselves to such useful and meritorious purposes at the order of the odd fellows. We regret that circumstances prevented our acceptance of their kind invitation to be present.

Change of Date. The Alberta Gallatin troupe, which was billed to appear in Music Hall on Friday afternoon and night has been prevented by R. E. misconnection from meeting at the opera house and has made a new engagement for this place for the 12th and 13th February.

Miss Gallatin, the star of the troupe is a native of Virginia, and is the daughter of the late Albert Gallatin, Jr., of Connecticut fame, who was killed towards the end of the Civil War, near Roanoke, Va. Miss Gallatin has been on the stage about six years, and in that time has appeared with Minnie and with the Booth-Barrett, Mrs. Bowers and the New York Lyceum Theatre companies. This is her third starring tour through the South.

Belgian Bloc's for Main Street. In the last two or three days the streets of Sumter, especially Main, Liberty and Republica, have been in a worse condition than ever remember to have seen them. They are actually a disgrace to the city. Where there are not pools of muddy, slimy water collected, the mud is, without exaggeration very nearly, and in some places quite, a half a foot deep. This condition of things has been brought about by only two days of rain. The City Council apparently mean well, and have made efforts to relieve the situation, but which lack the important essential of being well directed. For instance, a cart or two is sent out and filled with mud from a place in the street where it is so boggy as to be almost impossible to drive through. After cutting off several loads the rain fills up the cavity, and an ugly puddle is the result. Then a batch of hands is sent out with shovels and spades who shovel up the mud from the sides, and throw it into the middle of the street, where a perfect blockade is formed for wayfarers to drive or walk through.

The city expends large amounts of money in these apparently utterly futile attempts to improve the condition of the streets. From April '89 to April '90 the city spent $1,853.34 in work on the streets, and up to 1st January, 1891, they have paid out $1,965.60.

We believe the City Council are interested in relieving a plan by which the amount expended on curbing the sidewalk with plank, which has to be replaced from time to time, could be saved by curbing with the blocks at the same time they are laid.

We are agents for Bradley's Sea Fowl and Eagle Brand. Levi Bogue.

The Maxxy Murder. No developments of material importance have taken place in the Maxxy case except that last week the two prisoners, Hampton Nelson and Centry Butler, were taken away to the State Prison. It was understood they wanted to make a confession. They stated in the presence of the Sheriff, Trial Justice and another witness that a colored man from Capt. Maxxy's neighborhood had shot away because he had been indicted by Maxxy for some criminal offense sometime before Christmas came across a field in which they were working with a gun on his shoulder and in the next breath he had fallen. Maxxy said they had had trouble and he was going to kill him.

Last Saturday Hampton Nelson made the following statement to the Sheriff of his own free will: Centry Butler rode Captain Maxxy's horse on Christmas day and when he came back the horse seemed to be foundered and Captain Maxxy said to Centry, Centry you will have to get a new horse for me for hurting my horse, and on the last day of December Centry told me [Hampton Nelson] that he would kill him [Captain Maxxy] before he would work the year out with him, and moreover Captain Maxxy told me he would be glad when the year would come to a close in order that he might get rid of me as he was afraid all the time [Centry] might do him some bad thing. Centry told me that he would be glad when the year would come to a close and never had any fuss with him.

Dunn Departs. J. F. Dunn, of the St. Paul lumber camp, who was bound and brought to this city on Christmas time, for breaking into the ticket office at the C. S. & N. R. R. depot, escaped from Sheriff Carson and C. P. Barwick, as they were taking him to jail last night. At the time of the hearing Dunn was committed to jail in default of bail, where he remained until Capt. A. N. Webb, of the lumber camp, arranged about three weeks ago to go on with him, for fear of some harm.

Dunn would not stand his trial, Mr. Webb telegraphed the Clerk of Court yesterday that he would be here last night to deliver up Dunn and get his release. The Sheriff was waiting for him at the jail, and when he came to the office, Mr. Webb had evidently not informed Dunn of his purpose and was entertaining him at some restaurant, when the Sheriff came up and Mr. Webb told the Sheriff to take his prisoner, Dunn was very much surprised. He, however, went along apparently so willingly with the Sheriff that he did not think it necessary to make any fuss. He called Mr. C. P. Barwick, one of the policemen, to accompany them to the jail. They went along very serenely until they were about to turn the corner at Craig's, when Dunn took leg bail and went off at a great pace up Main Street. Mr. Barwick having a pair of good long legs put out in hot pursuit closely followed by the Sheriff, and they pursued him beyond the limits, as they reached this point the prisoner began to distance them. The Sheriff called in vain to Barwick to side and he attempted to get a little to one side in order, himself, to get a neck at Dunn, but Barwick's overcoat had become unbuttoned, and spreading to the breeze, afforded a friendly cover not only for himself, but for Dunn—as the Sheriff, not knowing at what point in the overcoat the body of Mr. Barwick might be prudently refrained from opening fire. It is as well he did not fire on him as the evidence failed to show any felonious intent and could only be presumed from the circumstances. As Dunn got a check cashed here it is likely he will attempt to make his way North. He is a young man of medium height, with dark hair and blue eyes, of slender build, weighing about 130 pounds.

The Sheriff says he has seen many Yankees run in his time, but Dunn "takes the cake." He has taken all possible precautions to secure his arrest.

A Model Dairy. Mr. Bultman's dairy farm is a credit to Sumter. In addition to Sumter's fine poultry, horses, etc., she can boast of some of the finest cows in the State. The dairy is conducted in a most systematic and orderly style, and it is a real pleasure to go through it. The long line of stalls on one side of the barn are neatly floored and kept broom clean. The rack in each stall is filled with sweet hay. Each cow is milked in the morning, eating her tub of slops which is placed there in readiness. When through being milked, she goes out and proceeds of her own accord to her separate stall, making room for another, and so on until the whole lot are milked. Opposite the milking place in the same large barn, is the store-room where the grain is kept, and the feed room where the slops are prepared, and in front of the barn is the cow little dairy or milking room.

Mr. Herman Bultman has the management and charge of the dairy, and has made quite a success of it, supplying a large number of families in the city with fresh milk.

Most of their cows are Holsteins, which are generally considered the best milkers.

The Fields Minstrels. Al Field's Minstrels, which were at the Grand Opera House last night, gave the best minstrel show that has been in Charleston this season.

All of the specialties are first-class. Billy Van made a bigger "hit" last night than any other minstrel act that has been in Charleston for several years. Estus' act, too, was very fine, as also was the statuette dog dance.

Most of the acts were very good. Al Field's Minstrels is the absolute newness of all of them, the stereotyped first part, with end and middle man attachment, being entirely done away with.

There will be a matinee this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the final performance to-night. It is a good show, and well worth seeing.—The World, Charleston, S. C., January 29, 1891.

Our citizens will remember that the above troupe delighted the Sumter public last season. It is strictly a first-class performance and we bespeak a large house. Manager Schwiner has been well in securing this troupe. Remember the date February 7th for Sumter.

IONIA ITEMS. Mr. Editor: we are having any amount of rain now, which is a great inconvenience to our farm work. We are setting out to work a big crop of cotton.

Al had two marriages to report—Mr. Harrison Adkinson and Miss Abbie McCaskill, on last Sunday, by Mr. C. M. Alexander, Notary Public. Also, Mr. Mosco Boykin to Miss Mary Blyther by the Rev. Mr. Smith. We are about over the grip.

You can begin to hear the ge, haw, all over the country now. Mr. and Mrs. E. Matthews are visiting the family of A. F. Matthews.

We have not had the chance to smile at our County Commissioners yet. We hear that the Board of County Commissioners is to meet in Sumter next Monday, but that is not making our road and bridges good. The bridge we reported last week is in the same condition yet, and we still wish for the $10 mule to ride in that old bridge.

Smithville Items. Mr. Editor: The Smithville Debating Society met, and was regularly organized, at the new school house at Smithville, on Friday evening, January 30th, with very favorable results. Eleven names have been handed in for admittance. Mr. W. A. Massabue, President of Smithville High School, was elected President, with Mr. T. J. White, Vice President; C. L. Kirkley, Secretary; Dr. S. E. McCutchen, Treasurer; B. M. Robertson, Literary Critic; J. H. Weldon and H. L. Munnerly, 1st and 2nd Clerks. A written constitution was adopted and other important business transacted. A query has been chosen for next meeting, and a lively debate is anticipated. Public exhibitions may be expected here long. This society has opened under bright auspices, and the members are determined to make it a success.

Miss Alice Allen left on Sunday evening for Bishopville, where she will spend some time with her relatives and friends.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Basil James is very ill. There are a great many cases of sickness in the neighborhood.

Mr. W. L. Wroten filed his pulpit, at the M. E. Church here, on last Sunday, and preached a very interesting sermon to an unusually large congregation. He was making his road and bridges good. The bridge we reported last week is in the same condition yet, and we still wish for the $10 mule to ride in that old bridge.

Mr. J. T. Munnerly has accepted a situation in Sumter and will soon make that place his home again.

Mr. H. L. Munnerly will soon leave us and make his home in Texas.

When you are constipated, have headache, or loss of appetite, take Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Pills; they are pleasant to take and will cure you.
