By JULIAN HAWTHORNE

Copyright, 1898, by American Press Association.)

SYNOPSIS.

donna, engaged at enormous expense to open offers to find an acceptable substitute at once.

possessing a remarkable voice and struggling nder financial and social reverses. She lives

SUMTER, S. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1891.

"Be Just and Fear not -- Let all the Ends thou Aims't at. be thy Country's, thy God's and Truth's "

New Series-Vol. X. No. 28.

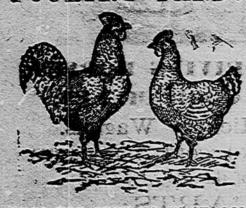

The Watchman and Southron. Published every Wednesday, N. G. OSTEEN, SUMTER, S. C.

Two Dollars per annum-in advance. ADVESTISEMBATS. One Square, first insertion ..

be made at reduced rates.

All communications which subserve private interests will be charged for as advertisements.
Obituaries and tributes of respect will be

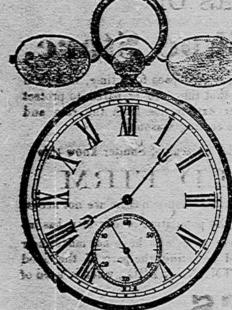

SUNNY SIDE POULTRY YARDS

EGGS, FOR SETTING IN SEASON e following thoroughbred strains; LIGHT BRAHMAS. BARRO PLYMOUTH ROCKS.

BURY COCHENS. COR BROWN LEGEORNS. CAUB WHITE LEGHORNS. $1.50 for 15; $2.50 for 30. to poultry raising with valuable o of eggs.

Sumter, S. C. H. A. HOYT, Successor to C. I. HOYT & BRO.

Gold and Silver Watches, "Clocks, Jewelry, Spectacles,

MERIDEN RRITANIA SILVERWARE, &c REPAIRING A SPECIALTY.

REMOVAL

To accommodate my largely increased and increasing business, I have removed to the handsome and commodious new Brick Store next to John Reid's, opposite my old stand, where I can now be found with a stock of DIAMONDS, Watches, Clocks, Jewelry, Silver and Plated Ware.

SPECTACLES, &c., surpassing in brilliancy, extent and variety any stock of the kind ever shown in this city. with daily additions of new attractions. Thanking my friends and the public generally for the very liberal patronage bestowed on me at my old stand, I hope to merit a continuance of the same, and I bereby extend to all a cordial invitation to pay me a visit at my new stand, where, with a larger stock and increased facilities in every way I am better prepared than ever to cater to their wants.

Don't forget the place,

REID'S BLOCK, MAIN ST., SUMTER, S. C. Yours, anxious to please, blained, and all PATENT EUNINESS a ended to for MODERATE FEES Our office is posite the U.S. Patent Office, and we can ob-TON. Send MODEL DRAWING or photo of invention. We advise as to patent ability free of charge and we make NO CHARGE UNLESS PATENT IN SECURED.

.. W. FOLSOM

onless Patent Is Selected.

For circlelar, advice, terms and references to actual clients in your own State. County 't my or nown, write to CASSION 8200

Opposite Patent Office. Washington, D C REAL ESTATE AGENCY.

THE UNDERSIGNED has established a Real Estate and Collection Agency in Sumter and desires property holders having property for sale or rent to list same with promptly. Best references given. Office on Main Street at T. B. Curtis' store.

W. H. COMMANDER. OR SALE. in Stateburg. Terms W. F. PARKER, Jr., Attorney at Law,

Transacts a General Banking Business. Careful attention given to collections. SAVINGS DEPARTMENT. Deposits of $1 and upwards received. Interest allowed at the rate of 4 per cent. per about town, that Marana, a Russian prima annum. Payable quarterly, on first days of SUMTER, S.C. CITY AND COUNTY DEPOSITORY. Transacts a general Banking business.

er annum, payable quarterly: W. F. B. HAYNSWORTH,

TOILET SOAPS, PERFUMERY

Druggist's Sundries USUALLY KEPT IN A FIRST-CLASS DRUG

GARDEN SEEDS, &C., Paints, Oils, Varnishes,

DYE STUFFS.

Physician's Prescriptions carefully compounded, and orders answered home. The woman who opened the things make as good an impression on a clergyman; I've known her for years;

ine, and of the best quality. . Call and see for yourselves.

Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that

"From personal knowledge and observation can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine I can say that Castoria is an excellent medicine for children, acting as a laxative and relieving the pent up bowels and general system very much. Many mothers have told me of its excellent effect upon their children."

Da. G. C. Osgood,

Lowell, Mass.

THE CENTALE COMPANY, 77 MUTTAY Street, N. Y.

IMPARTING VIGOR

SOLD EVERYWHERE. wherever else it may be."

aspect of my business that you feel any

"If you mean there is no longer any sentiment between us I cordially admit it," was the answer. "I don't care the snap of my finger for you or for any one else now alive. But I have some claims upon you, and I've come here to-

I see," remarked Jocelyn, turning to the table. "Poor little fellow! If he'd lived I'd have made a man of him." "Yes! You'd have made the same sort of man of him as you've made wom- Beatrix, "I will either tell them who I an of his mother. I'm glad he's dead, am or give up the whole thing." Her what sort of a father he's got! However, you said that to put me in a good humor, I suppose. What do you want?" "I vow, Meg, you're too confoundedly | ting it. "Come, you know me, don't sour for anything," exclaimed Jocelyn, you? and you know whether or not twisting his wiskers. "I've come to tell you of an arrangement that will one to insult you? Very well, then; W. Hallett& Co., Box 880 Portland, Maino enable you to live at your ease the rest of you're as safe, if the worst comes to the > ceived. Come, now!" any benefit to me that would not benefit | courage-to hold your own bravely, and you ten times more," said Mrs. Bemax | not to be too squeamish about what the > like all women with a grievance!" re- disagreeable when one is first brough. year. Have you any fault to find with world, can we? All we can do is that?"

> is the payment?" Mrs. Bemax inquired. can really hurt us. But we must have house.'

acteristic of you; a very delicate piece friend; and as a matter of course you

"Buh! Meg, your cynicism is over- scrape. I shall be only too ready to asdone; you are on a wrong scent entirely. sist you; but I don't want to seem offi-In the first place, the lady is not the person she's supposed to be. She's the daughter of an old friend of mine; I once intended to marry her, but-I thought better of it. Circumstances yourself be put upon, of course, but which you will be fully informed of | don't altogether forget that you're the have led to her personating the Marana | Marana either. If you manage it clev-IN CHAPTER 1 Gen Inigo, a prominent im--name and all-the coming season. erly her name ought to be a help to you presario, confides to Hamilton Jocelyn, a man It's a grand secret, of course, and I selected you as the only woman who could be trusted to keep it. You are to conhis new opera house in New York, has cabled firm in every way that suggests itself the that she cannot keep her contract. Jorelyn idea that she is the bona fide Marana; say CHAPTER 2 introduces to the reader Beatrix Randolph, a thoroughly trained amateur, with her widowed father on heavily incumadventures you like for her—in the past, CHAPTER 3 brings Gen. Inigo and Jocelyn, but on no account let her get into any who is an old acquaintance of the Randolphs, scrapes in the present. Do you see what "I think so. The young fellows you speak of are to be kept out of the way for your sake rather than for hers; and she is to be instructed that any scrape norant of the world, and you are to see she gets into with you is no scrape at all, but a distinction and a blessing.' "Upon my soul I should flatter myself you were jealous if I didn't know you so well," said Jocelyn with a laugh; "I only wish to protect the girl from annoyance and to insure the success of the whole scheme. If you could make me believe in your disinterestedness and virtue the only result would be that I should serve you less efficiently than otherwise. But you always liked deception for its own sake, and you are the same Hamilton Jocelyn that I knew in Richmond twelve years ago. Well, I shall know what tone to take with her."

"Take eny tone you like, in the devil's name, so long as you take the position and observe the conditions!" exclaimed Jocelyn, getting up, with some signs of impatience.

"I will take the position on condition of being guaranteed my outfit and twelve hundred dollars," said Mrs. Bemax. "It now. I'm not so fastidious in other re- safely refer to me as an old friend on all spects as you do me the honor to imag-

street, and asked if Mrs. Bemax were at genial view of things, I hope. Above all son. She's an English lady, daughter of door said, in a weary and discontented the lady as possible. She must learn to an excellent creature; really a lady of elyn went upstairs. He entered the in all social matters from the outset. precisely suited to your needs. She will front room on the first floor. This room | You can do anything with her if she had a dingy and brownish aspect. The likes you and trusts you, and nothing if posted about everything you ought to askew a print of the Prince of Wales quiet and yet so repellent that Jocelyn | course, that she's been living with you made no attempt to reply, but took his leave without further ceremony. Certainly Beatrix needed a mother at this epoch of her career. The peculiar tasteful standard frame of stamped conditions under which she was making leather, and a small vase containing two her entrance into the world rendered or three flowers stood in front of it. The ber especially defenseless. She was not photograph itself was much faded and only ignorant (as any girl brought up in theseclusion of home is likely to be) of the In a few minutes a tall, middle aged | ways and wickedness of mankind, but voman, with a square shaped face and the strict necessity of her incognito cut rather strongly marked features, came her off from the support and society of both her father and of all the other relawere dark; her hair was slightly touched | tives and friends who should naturally with gray. The corners of her large be around her. She was not herself, mouth had acquired an indrawn look, and she was somebody wholly different apparently from a habit of pressing her from herself as well. Furthermore she lips together; her general expression was | was a singer, with all the sensitiveness studiously impassive. She looked like and the liability to emotional impresone accustomed to meet with rebuffs sions that the musical temperament imand disappointments, and to put up plies. Upon the whole a young woman can select no career more dangerous than with meekness and resignation. There that upon which Boatrix had just entered, and the external circumstances which attended her entrance could scarcely have been more untoward.

Meantime the subject most constantly present to her thoughts, since it gave character of the Marana. To be herself began to appear in the light of someupon maintaining the deception. Nor could she disguise from herself that the men she met treated her with a sort of freedom to which she was quite unaccustomed. This perplexed and annoyed her, and Mrs. Bemax, when she appealed to her, only smiled and said she mustn't mind them. Finally she thought it poard. I've had none to spend on my- would be a good idea to ask information

"Fellows bother you, do they!" said that gentleman in answer to her complaint, with a reassuring smile. "Well. ma'mselle, you know we mustn't be too been on the stage a little longer we shall learn to look upon all men as our brothers, and not mind a little fun. Besides, you know, you are the famous and invincible Marana, and are supposed to be able to settle all such Jack-a-dandies with one hand, so to speak!" "Idon't understand you," said Beatrix. with a slight flush. "Well, my dear, the amount of it all is they mean no harm, and they've heard so many stories about the Marana's adrentures that they feel justified in trying to find out what she's made of. The fact is, you know, she's said to be a little hazarde-dangerous-as soon ruin a man as look at him, and you mustact out the character."

to be anything that is not-good?" "Oh! no. no-not that, of course! Only a sort of give-and-take, live-andlet-live style -that's what you want." "If they think I am different from what I am, in any bad way," continued

"Now my good little prima donna, don't yen say anything so foolish!" said

Jocelyn, taking her hand in his and patshiping courts above. Hamilton Jocelyn would permit any center of the pyramid of Cheops! But people you meet with say and do. The After my mother's death I went to the Alliance is worth as much as ton. Though the seeds are dead the

"The prima donna at the new opera reputation as lies before you. It's a lit- good morals in their scholars. The hoping that brother Donaldson will do dressed him. the freemasoury we all have to learn. heart needs more care in its cultivation nothing of the kind-deprecating any As the best evidence of its value it sideration, Hamilton, that is very char- you can't help trusting your father's old sary for me to begin the struggle for be healed.

cious either to you or to others, and I want you to fight your own way as much as possible at first. It will make it all I ever received for my services; that from which I have derived most benefit and most pleasure. My mind was in our best schools

my darkened pathway.

I now serve as junior deacon swept away by the emancipation of her

"In what way?" "Oh, the sharper the fight the sooner over, you know, and the more decisive, said Jocelyn, laughing. "Yes, it is an you've lived with her for years in Eu- advantage in every way. If you were rope, and so on. But she is wholly ig- entered in the lists in your own name with your father and all your friends to to it that none of the young fellows gets | fall back on, you would be falling back ahead of her. You may invent all the all the time. You would be trusting to

"My gracious, no!" exclaimed Jocolyn, lifting his hands in half playful consternation. "In the eyes of the world, remember he's nothing but a respectable old gentleman, in no sort of way related to you. To have him in attendance on you would be most-what shall I say?-inexpedient; and if it led to nothing else, it might lead to his true relationship being found out. No, you may see him occasionally, of course, but on the same footing as any other chance acquaintance. Ha, ha! You wouldn't want to compromise your own father,

"Well, I certainly am alone!" said Beatrix gravely. "In appearance, yes; but so long as unfailing resource." "I should compromise you as well," thing. Mme. Bemax, she'll be here tomorrow morning. You'll be certain to like her immensely."

"Well, what must be, must, I suppose," said Beatrix, folding her hands in her lap and looking down. "It does seem hopeless to think of going back now I have come so far. But if I had understood beforehand." * * * She paused, but went on after a moment. "I seem to be living in the midst of falsehoods, and it seems to me that that is more likely to take away courage than to give it." "Pooh, pooh! things will very soon shake down, and then in everything but name you can be more yourself than you ever were beforet" returned her father's old friend encouragingly. The next day Mane. Bernax was introduced, and was very genial, helpful

TO BE CONTINUED]

Joel E. Brunson.

E. Brunson, who now fills in a worthy and efficient manner-as he always does everything he undertakes-the office of Grand Chief of the I O. G. T. of South Carolina, is copied from the Christian Messenger, published at Timmonsville by Rev S. M. Richardson:

DEAR BROTHER RICHARDSON:

I received your card on my birthday (16:b instant.) but was so busy earing for the baby boy which arrived a few days before, I could not find time to

You ask "an auto biographical particular about that. When we have sketch of my life to read before the lodge and for publication in the Christian Messenger." Now I am somewhat averse to that kind of writ ing. For first of all it brings before the traffic. me the words of Solon to Croeius: "That no man could be happy before death;" and so I may say that no man's who make no effort to remove this life can be reckoned a complete suc- great curse from them .. cess until he has met this greatest of man's foes. In the second place, whatever of merit there may be in my life, for me to set it forth with my own The Keitt-Stokes Controversy. in the price between the finer grades will grade one of its stanuch friends, behand would smack so much of egotism as to destroy all good effect-the end sought. I can only give you some of the leading facts of my life, and, as State Alliance has written some scath- sibility to get stained cotton white "Do you mean that I should pretend you have known me from my youth, ing letters attacking the action of the without injuring it. This problem has leave you to fill out from your own

Your card came to me on my fortyfourth birthday. I was born within a few miles of Sumter C. II, and have spent most of my life in the county. when I was four years old, and my held in Columbia. He charges them after he has done this he leaves it for a sample buttle free Remember, this Remedy mother left with four small children, with having "permitted a scurvey fel- almost three days. The stained and is sold on a positive guarantee by J. F. W. taught school here in Sumter for five low, leprous with crime and without blue cotton when taken out is clean vided in my step-grandmother. Eliza- the Senate, as they had the power to farmer is saved the difference in price beth Landsdell, a second mother, who do to push their measure to success. treated the four little orphans with as To this severe distribe, President ton, besides gaining one pound in much tenderness as it is possible to Stokes administers a mild rebuke; he eight in ginning. The heat generated bestow. She satisfied their every want positively denies all of Keitt's charges in the packing kills the germ in the until her means were exhausted during and ridicules his statements. He goes cotton seed, but when the ginning is school to Mr. Richard Kendrick and Keitt's bare assertion that he was not oil in them is not injured, and they are turned Jocelyn, whose temper was cer- in contact with it-full of people not then to Mr. Copeland Stiles. I owe a candidate for the U.S. Senate in a still salable to the oil mills tainly very easy. "My scheme is to put a bit like our quiet folks out in the much to both of them. I was growing common acceptation of that word. you in receipt of an income of $1,200 a country. But we can't change the to be a big boy when I went to Mr. A member from Stateburg writes a this may be to the Southern farmer. Stiles, and he made special effort to de- letter to the Cotton Plant asking for He gains one pound in eight on his DeLorme. velope my moral character, and to this brother Donaldson's views in reference cotton. "What are the services for which this best of it. If we are all right nothing day I never think of him, with his to Keitt's charges that Stokes was false He has no blue and stained cotton straggling silver locks, without feelings to his leadership in the Alliance-and to sell a reduced price. He still has "A lady!" repeated the other, a pe- mustn't talk of giving up! We must be culiar smile drawing down the corners a little woman of the world. Every I wonder how many of the teachers of on the matter. of her mouth; "I begin to understand! woman must be who intends to accom- to-day in South Carolina give the In reply to this a letter is written himself and knows its value, and will plish anything, let alone to make such a necessary thought and time to grow from a member at Berkeley, sincerely be glad to answer any inquiries ad-

terested. Taking everything into con- you won't love me-naughty child!-yet At the age of lifteen it became neces- hoping, instead, that the rupture might his entire crop as first class cotton .-

will come to me if you get into any real | bread, and I entered the Watchman | The Stateburg Sub Alliance have A Georgia Newspaper on office at a salary of two dollars and a since held a meeting and acted as folhalf a weck, which I paid over to my lows: step-grandmother every Saturday even- To the editor of the News and Couing. In other words, it about paid for rier: As instructed by the Stateburg State, signing himself "A True Demothe easier for you hereafter. Don't let my board and clother. That was not Sub-Alliance I send you a copy of the crat," sends us a copy of the Wash-

> Recording Secretary. Resolved 1. That the Alliance keenly alive and the printing office should teach all its members that all opened before me a new world of in- charges against brother members for formation in which to satisfy it. Mr. failure to live and act up to Alliance thing by the observance of courtesy. H. L. Darr had the entire management principles and methods must be preof the paper-Mr. Gilbert being in the ferred through Alliance channels to be army-and while he exacted good work entertained by the Alliance.

> Resolved 2. That we commend in he was kind and considerate, an excellent printer and conducted the busi- the highest terms the well-timed and strike the balance between these two ness in a most methodical manner. | well-tempered reply of our State Presi- | feelings which have many points of con-Yes, while there I gathered that from dent, brother Stokes, to brother Keitt's the printing office, which I would not gross charges, and pledge him. as our The only way is to cultivate both feelto day exchange for a life time's tuition | chosen leader, carnest, active, and lings and so form a babit of good mandetermined support against all assailants | ners. When the "reserves" were called I while he shows himself, as at present went into the army and returned at the he appears able, zealous, and faithful courtesy, are as important to His close of the war to find the last vestige to the Order. of my step-grandmother's property negroes. Her brother, Henry Spears, lished the following: then about seventy years old, was doing lived in Bishopville, kept a chest of Alliance, is endorsed as "zealous and men are more noted than farmers. good carpenter's tools in Sumter and faithful to the Order."

I was permitted to use them. In fact | Will the members of that Sub-Allicarpenter's tools were my toys in child- ance, please consider and answer the shows that he might take a lesson from hood and when I now went out to work | following questions:

I found I was already far better skilled Is it loyalty to the Order for the exaggerated, but we reprint it below as in the use of tools than the ordinary president of the State Alliance to workman. After a few years Mr. exercise the power of his high effice, Spears was so unfeebled by age and and call in a meeting of Alliance men, and wealthy phosphate men of Charlesdisease as to be unable to work. Mrs. agreed upon and appointed to nominate ton went to Governor Tillman. Their Landsdell was in the same condition a candidate for the United States object was to obtain some accommodaand my brother, who came home from Senatorship, against the protest of tion with regard to new inspection tage the army of Virginia with homorrhage Alliance men and go into a meeting of on bagged goods for shipment. The of the lungs, was now a confirmed con- Non-Alliance men from which Alliance new tags are not ready, and a congesas comfortably as I can, so long as I do godfather to all prime donne on their sumptive Then it was that gaunt men are excluded, and with them ballot tion of business is threatened unless poverty, with her long, bony fingers, for a candidate for the United States some arrangement can be made. Govput in her best work. I had to leave Senatorship my business and stay at home to nurse voice, that Mrs. Bemax was in, and Joo confide in you, and to take your advice great refinement and experience, and belp some of the children of those and faithful to the Order" because of man, who refused to hear him through, who, by their charity, shed light on this act? Do the members of that Sub- and who stated his views He broke Alliance not know that Alliance men out into a tirade against swindlers, and The sick ones passed away and I re- should no more go into a meeting of said he would put all who committed turned to my work looking more dead Non-Alliance men than they should frauds against the new law in the penthan alive. Gradually recovering my admit Non-Alliance men into their itentiary. If any delay or loss was ocstrength I continued mill-wrighting, meetings when Alliance interests are casioned by the tags not being ready. screw-building, etc., until employed to involved?

Are the members of the Stateburg of his cabinet. He greeted the memafter day for long weeks there was not Sub Alliance ignorant of the fact that bers of the committee stiffy, without enough hread in the house to last till Senator Stokes in the Cotton Plant of removing his hat from his head, and the next day, and yet, the kindness of December 27, 1890, assumed the sole shook hands as though with a broken neighbors kept starvation away. What responsibility for this act?

conduct a mill and lumber business for Do the members of that Sub-Alliance A member of the committee asked other parties. In a year or two I we not know that Senator Stokes, when he what the companies would do about the taken in as a co-partner and have con- called in the Alliance meeting agreed matter, as it was a severe inconvenience tinued in the lumber business ever upon and appointed against the pro- to them. Governor Tillman replied of forming the S E Association. ciples are involved? Served two years as moderator of the Will the members of that Sub-Alli- delay in going off on a four day's frolic. S E Association. Was returned to ance kindly permit me to ask them to He concluded his remarks by saying he Sumter Church about a year ago, where subscribe for the National Economist was unable to help the committee in and learn the principles, demands and getting the tags, but that blood couldn't I have always been earnest in tem- measures of the Order to which they be got out of a turnip. In dismissing perance work. I joined the I. O G. belong; that in future when they act the committee the Governor stood at his T. soon after its organization in this they will know what they are doing? desk with his back to them, and shook State. Served two years as G Coun- Will they kindly permit me to tell them hands without turning his face to them. selor, and am now serving my second my end and aim is to keep the Order The members of the committee, who term as G. C. Templar of South Caro- on the plane of purity that it may be returned here last night, are dazed and lina. I have never drank, all told, crowned with success, and no earthly at a loss what to think of the remarkaone half pint of intoxicating liquor, power can keep me from speaking the ble exhibition of the Governor. They and have yet to learn to chew or smoke | truth?

my life? I answer by stating a fact : | and brave. They heroically stood to unpolished manners me well known and One third of all the little boys who their colors and elected a champion to much allowance made for them, but his played marbies with me along the represent them on the floor of the wanton, truculent, unprovoked discourstreets of Sumter before the war either American Senate. They demonstrated tesy to the committee seems manical in filled drunkards graves or are unfitted that they mean what they say. They its violation of all decency in official for business by liquor to day. Tis were not sold out. Respectfully, ELLISON S. KEITT. horrible to think of one third of our town boys destroyed, body and soul, by Enoree Plantation, Newberry County, liquor, and our good people sanction February 1. Stained Cotton.

And How to Whiten it-Something

Stained and blue cotton costs the farmers of the South many thousands of dollars annually. The difference and stained cotton is great, although the staple may be the same. Heretofore it has seemed an impos Alliance, in the most bitter way He. at last been solved by Mr. J. J. Wilaccuses the President, J. W. Stokes, liams, a successful farmer who lives at of treachery, in having sold out the Ellenton, S. C., says the Augusta cor-Alliance for the shadow of being Gov- respondent of the Arlanta Constitution ernor of the State four years bence. He takes his seed cotton and packs English Remedy is in every way superior to He scores members of the Alliance it in layers. Over each layer he My father, John E. Brunson, died for their action in the caucuses recently sprinkles water with a pine top, and years after his death, when she, an element of statesmanship to worm and white, with staple just as good as blessed woman, was also called to the himself by political trickery into high ever. The cotton when packed in the position"-instead of electing a clean manner above described generates heat. God, in his care for orphans, pro- and able man to represent the order in This heat removes the stains, and the quickened pulse, childness in the evening or between the stained and the white cot-

This shows what a wonderful gain English Flood Elixir has never failed to re-

Mr Williams has tried this process

further discussion of the matter-and may be stated that this year he sold

Marion Index.

Governor Tillman.

A friend from over in the Empire a large salary, and yet, as I now look following resolutions adopted by them ington (Ga.) Gazette, with the followback upon my printing office life, I at their last meeting, with the request ing article on the manners of Governor Tillman and requests that we give same

> An old lady well known in this community as a sayer of pithy things often says "Manners are cheap." No man loses anything and he may gain some-Good manners came from the combination of two feelings, just regard for one's self, and just regard for other people. It is sometimes difficult to flict in the 'Struggle for existence."

Good manners, genuine heartfels Excellency the Governor as to anybody else Our governor Northen is s In reply to this Col. Keitt has pub- very courteous man. We do not know that the governors of our state have To the Editor of The News and ever been wanting in good manners, carpenter's work around through the Courier : I have just read in The News but our Farmer Governor is perhaps an country and it fell to my lot to assist and Courier two resolutions proposed unusually courteous man. There is him. Now, it so happened that during by the Stateburg Sub-Alliance in which nothing surprising in this. For my school days, Mr. Spears, though he | Senator Stokes, president of the State | genuine, Learty, sincere courtesy no > on Governor Tillman which if true, Governor Northen. It is perhaps it appears in the Telegraph of Macon.

ernor Tillman met the committee in his Is not treason the opposite of loyalty? office, and in the presence of members arm. The spokesman of the party be-> him that he was responsible for this do not know whether to laugh or swear intercourse, and exceeds all conception of his possibilities in that line. His bounds of pardon." The New Discovery.

You have heard your friends and neighbors alking about it. You may yourself be one o the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever

OUR VERY BEST PEOPLE. Confirm our statemen, when we say that Acker's

THAT TERRIBLE COUGH In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acker's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful antee by J. F. W. DeLorme. THE FIRST STRPPOMS OF DEATH. Tired feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, pimples or sores, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it becomes poisoned it must be purified to avoid teath. Dr. Acker's

If you have a painful sense of fatigue, find vour duties irksome, take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla. It will brace you up, make you If you suffer from any affection caused by impure blood, such as scrofula, salt rheum, move serefulous or exphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee, by J. P. W.

An Attractive Combined POCKET ALMANAC and MEMORANDUM BOOK advertising BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

WITH TWENTY-ONE Charleston, S C. April 17-0

THE SIMONDS NATIONAL BANK, BOOTPIX ROUNDING. STATE, CITY AND COUNTY DEPOSI-TORY, SUMTER, S. C. Paid up Capital $75,000 00

Surplus Fund 7,500 00 January, April, July and October. R. M. WALLACE,

A Savings Bank Department. Deposits of $1.00 and upwards received.

AND ALL KINDS OF

Tobacco, Snuff and Segars,

GJ.ASS. PUTTY, &c.

with care and dispatch. The public will find my stock of Medicines complete, warranted genu-

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

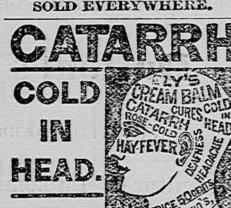

I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "I use Castoria in my practice, and find it pecially adapted to affections of children."

ALEX. ROBERTSON, M. D.,

1057-2d Ave., New York.

Advice to the Aged.

to the kidneys, bladder and liver. They are adapted to old or young.

Try the Cure Ely's Cream Balm Cleanses the Nasal Passages. Allays Inflammation. Heals the Sores. Restores the Senses of Taste, Smell A particle is applied into each nostril and ing all your time of spare moments only to the work. All is new. Great pay StRE for every worker. We start you, furnishing everything. FASILY, SIEEDILY learned. PARTICULARS FREE. Address at once, SIEASS & CO., PORTLAND, EAINE G. W. DICK, D. D. S.

Office over Bogin's New Store, ENTRANCE ON MAIN STREET, SUMTER, S. C. Office Hours .- 9 to 1:30; 2:30 to 5.

Dr. T. W. BOOKHART,

DENTAL SURGEON. Office over Bultman & Bro.'s Shoe Store ENTRANCE ON MAIN STREET. SUMTER, S. C. Office Hours-9 to 1:30 ; 2.30 to 5.

to their retired homestead, and Beatrix is engaged at a large salary to impersonate Marana, using the Russian's name.
IN CHAPTER 4 Mr. Geoffrey Bellingham, a rising young architect, who is superintending work on the new opera house, suggests some changes to Gen. Inigo and wins a high com-

ered estates up the Hudson

What are the scrvices for which this is the payment?" Mrs. Bemax inquired. Two or three days afterward Jocelyn betook himself to a small and rather shabby looking house in East Eighteenth furniture was meager and rickety. Upon | she doesn't." the wall between the windows hung and his family, taken from some illustrated paper and framed in a wooden frame stained black and varnished. The only pretty thing in the room was a photograph of a chubby little child about 4 years of age. It was mounted in a was in the style of ten years ago.

into the room. Her eyes and brows with them when nocessary, though never was an air about her that showed she had once been familiar with the handsome side of the world, but, from whatever cause, had discontinued to enjoy or practice its refinements. There were more hard and unpleasant things in her color to everything else, was her assumed memory than the contrary, and these memories and experiences had worn away her former comeliness and made thing criminal. Everything depended her skeptical and somewhat malicious.

instead of gentle and engaging. "Well, Hamilton," she said, as she came in, "I hope you've brought me some money." "Money, my dear Meg! Didn't I cend ou some last week?" "Yes, enough to pay up my arrears of self for a month, and I have only one of Mr. Jocelyn.

other dress to my back, and that is not "Things are more expensive here than in England. I told you that when you insisted on coming here. You would have been more comfortable at home." "Home is where the heart is," she replied, with an intonation of somber sarcasm. "My heart is not in England, "Well, I've been very busy," said

"So you always tell me; but I presume, as usual, it is no business of "Well, my dear, it's only the money

"You have the photograph there still,

if it's only to save him from knowing | voice trembled.

your days, and this is the way I am re- worst, as if you were scaled up in the "It is impossible you should intend | what I want you to learn is to have

"You do mo gross injustice; you are | world always seems queer and a little to take things as they are, and make the "Yes; in whom you are tenderly in- nothing more; and, as I said, though than the intellect rather than the contrary."

their strength instead of to your own. But since you're alone you'll discover your own force, and make it evident to the others into the bargain." "But will not papa live in the hotel would you? not to speak of being compromised by him!"

Hamilton Jocelyn is alive you'll have an said she, looking at him fixedly. He made a laughing gesture of depreciation. "Oh, don't be afraid of that! I'm known; everybody understands me! We is not high wages for the devil to pay, | can do no possible harm to each other. but it's better than nothing, and to live It's an understood thing that I stand live, is the best I have to look forward to entry into New York society. You may occasions. And, by the by, I've taken the liberty to do you a bit of service al- the sick members of the family. Day "Well, Meg. when you've enjoyed a ready. You need a companion, and I've few months' luxury you'll take a more | been so lucky as to secure just the pertake perfect care of you, and keep you do and all that sort of thing. I have let "I understand; I am to be another her into the secret, the only other permother to her!" said Margaret Bemax, sons who know it being your father, in a tone and with a look in her eyes so Inigo, and myself. The idea is, of on the continent, and all that sort of

The following biography of Mr. Joel

SUMTER, S. C., Jan. 19, 1891.

on to say his denial of having sold out done the seeds easily let go all the cot-

God will require the blood of our boys at the hands of those good people

Yours faithfully.

Col Ellison S. Keitt, of Newberry, who is a prominent member of the unhesitatingly pronounce it the best pay that they be published. W. WATIES REES,

But late newspapers publish a story "A special committee of prominent

he would shoulder the responsibility.

tests of Alliance men, trampled upon that they could keep cool by going to My education has been gathered by the welfare of the Order, and when he Sullivan's island and airing themselves. constant effort at home, by reading good | went into the meeting of Non-Alliance | Tillman seems to have no conception of books, and last but not least, by obser- men he made his conduct a matter for the loss that the companies might susvation as I came along life's journey. | the whole State, to the dishonor of the tain by having their orders cancelled I joined the Sumter Baptist Church State, for which the Alliance is not and being unable to fill them and he threatabout 1873, was transferred to Kings- responsible? Hence my appeal to the coed to put a man at each end of the tree Church about ten years ago and State. Will the members of that Sub- line to see that the goods were tagged then ordained deacon. Presided over Alliance kindly tell me where Schator when they were delivered from the the body of delegates which met at Stokes gets his authority to deal with cars. Governor Tillman then jumped Lake City to consider the advisability Non-Alliance men when Alliance prin- on to Comptroller Ellerbee and told The writer respectfully asks Alliance when they think of his rough insults. Looking back over my life I find the men throughout the State to consider They are a grim looking set, and gendark places growing brighter and the and answer the above questions before erally inclined to be mum about their lessons which came with poverty and they vote for resolutions aiding and treatment, but several of them were too suffering wrought more of good than abetting treason against the Order if indignant to keep the joke to themny other.

Did total abstinence play any part in they have any respect for its purity.

Alliance men in Kansas are loyal hold of it. Governor Tillman's rough conduct since his inauguration with respect to this city has tended to incense all factions against him, and this last act is regarded as going beyond the couse the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest fair trial. It is guaranteed every time or money refunded. Trial bottles free at Dr. J. F. W. DeLorme's Drug Store.

symptoms, and is sold under a positive guar-strong and vigorous. sores boils pimples, tetter, ringworm, take Dr. J. H. McLean's Sarsaparilla. vjanl

e best fonic, given away at Drug and general stores. Apply at once.