Che Maichman and Southron. WEDERSDAY, SEP'T 16, '91. Delects of the "Demands."

Winnsboro News and Herald. I have read with interest the Ocala platform, printed in your columns at the request of the Blythewood Alliance. As you eay, it raises burning stions and should be read with the greatest care, not only by all voters, but by all who have a cent of property or an iota of patriotism. It will not do either to accept or re-ject these demands as a whole without carnest stody of them. Some of them raise issues that have been mosted a long time and are still un-settled problems among the leading to and statesmen of the

I propose simply to ask some ques-tions in order to attract attention to the significance of these demands.

(A.) After all le not government nice? There is scarcely any good measure without its atten-dant evil, a truth that becomes more apparent the more it is studied, and the winest legislation is that which receives as much good with as little the wine t legislation is that which money to get crop reports and the money to get crop reports and the liquid money t cannot be expected. The statesman who is cock sure on any measure when theory is put into practice.

National banks have their good points and their bad ones. For those who desire a redeemable bank currency the system of national banks is the best that has ever been devised in this country. It was copied from the New York law, and it might be applied to this State, if Congress would abolish the tax on State bank money market is rather an incident State banks would destroy the mo-
