PERSONAL.

Miss Judith Hodges is visiting Mrs. J. H. Saunders in Darlington. Mr. Frieron Reid left yesterday for Lexington, Ky., to attend business college. Mr. E. W. Dabbs leaves to-day for North Alabama on a prospecting tour. Miss Sumie Hale, of Camden, will be the guest of Miss Little Delgar during the next week. Allan J. Green, Esq., of the Columbia bar was in the city Monday on professional business. Mr. T. M. D-Lorne has gone to Umatilla, Fla., where he will remain for some months for the benefit of his health. Mr. E. Maxwell Jenkins and family will move to this city to live during the latter part of this week. Mr. Sam Huxey, of Columbia, son of Mr. B. A. Huxey, of this county, was in the city last week. Capt. J. N. Phillips has rented the Richardson place in the suburbs of this city and will run a truck farm thereon. Misses Maggie Brennan and Nora Yroman, returned to Columbia on Saturday after spending a few pleasant days in the city. Miss Kyle, of Fayetteville, N. C., sister of Mr. E. D. Kyle, General Passenger Agent of the C. S. & N. E. R., is visiting Mrs. W. B. Bloom. Miss Mattie Mills, who has been teaching in St. Johns Academy, Darlington, has resigned her position on account of continued ill health. Messrs. Frank Branson, Stuart Booth and Johnston White, left on Sunday night for Dillon, Marion Co., S. C., where they go to work in the new mill business. Mrs. George Loring has returned from a visit of several months duration to relatives in St. Louis, Mo., Richmond, Va., and Wilmington, N. C. Mr. Felix Bochardt, the nephew of Mr. David Morris, of this city, arrived in Sumter on the 14th from New York, whither he had come from Berlin, by the steamer Scandia. He brings the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Jacob Bochardt, the father of Mrs. Morris, on Nov. 11th.

I. O. G. T. Entertainment.

The Good Templars of this city, proposed to give an entertainment at an early day, the character of which will be made known hereafter.

A Pertinent Hit.

St. Paul said that he wanted to run for Street Commissioner of Sumter as he wanted to put down some new crossings on Main Street. A visitor of one day perceived our need, what of us who are here all the time?

Dance.

There will be a dance at the Jersey House on Thursday evening the 21st instant. It will be given by the Knights who contest in the Tournament that afternoon. The Tournament promises to be a great success and the dance will, no doubt, be quite brilliant.

Jarbeau.

The appearance of Verona Jarbeau and her company of comedians at the Academy of Music on last Friday evening was greeted by one of the largest audiences of the season. The exhibition was one of the best of the season and every one spent an evening of hearty enjoyment and merriment. The impression made was so favorable that if Jarbeau ever returns to Sumter she will be welcomed by an audience that will tax the capacity of the Academy to its utmost.

Negro Gamblers Arrested.

Eighteen negro gamblers were arrested on Saturday afternoon by policemen Weeks and Sawicki. They were in a house on Sumter Street to the rear of Harry's Stable, at the time, playing skin, craps and all sorts of games of chance. They were brought before the Mayor on Monday morning and were dismissed in the absence of evidence to convict. There is no doubt but that there is an amount of gambling going on among whites as well as negroes, and vigorous efforts should be made to stamp out the evil.

New B. & L. Association.

At a meeting held in the colored Presbyterian Church on Monday evening a local Branch of the South Western Building and Loan Association, of New Orleans, La., was formed. The following officers were elected: A. T. Evans, President; J. L. Sanders, Vice President; Rev. J. C. Watkins, Secretary and Treasurer; H. Frank Wilson, Esq., Attorney. P. A. Sanders, R. Smith and J. L. Sanders were elected to serve on the board of directors.

Fire.

The residence of Mr. N. P. Lenoir on Calhoun street was burned on Sunday morning about 10.30 o'clock. The fire was discovered before it had gained much headway and everything in the house was saved. The fire spread on the roof was unmanageable and before the engines arrived the whole house was a blaze and the roof falling in. The outhouses were saved by the engines. No one got a life was saved by the exertions of the fire companies. The goat in question was under the house, and, although badly scorched, would not come out until a stream of water struck him, then he came in a hurry for a goat can no more resist water than Tillman can a free pass. The house was insured for $1100.

Graded School Building.

The work on the Graded School Building has been progressing steadily and most of the brick work is completed. Work has been suspended during the past week on account of bad weather but as soon as the weather becomes settled the building will be pushed to completion. It will be the finest building in this section of the State, and one that every citizen can be proud of. It is to be hoped that the building will be ready for occupancy before the warm season begins, as the present one is very crowded and totally unfit for school purposes.

Now prepare to laugh, as laugh you must,

As Manager Schwerin has contracted with Ray L. Royce and his "Tom's Vacation Co." to come here for one night only, Saturday, Jan. 30, and this Company is one that can make fun and not indulge in any rough horse play, hence it has become one of the most popular in America. The Charleston News and Courier speaks in glowing terms of them, also all of the leading papers in New Orleans. This is the twelfth season that the company has been before the public and is a success.

A Negro Shot by Jno. R. Keels.

John R. Keels' house was robbed on last Thursday night, and Friday morning he obtained a search warrant for the house of Willie McCoy, having reason to suspect McCoy of having committed the robbery. McCoy went to Keels' house and used threatening and abusive language. Keels warned him to leave as he did not wish a difficulty. McCoy left but soon returned armed with a hatchet. He went into Keels's yard after being ordered to keep out. Keels got his gun and as McCoy was ascending the steps, hatchet in hand advancing on Keels, Keels shot him in the thigh. The leg was badly shattered and was amputated on Saturday. McCoy did not rally after the operation and died on Monday night. He was a carpenter and had heretofore borne a good reputation.

Notice to Advertisers.

Copy for changes in contract advertisements must be brought in on Monday or changes will not be made until the week following. Notice of desired change must be given on Saturday, so that we can make provision for the position of the advertisement. We have adopted this rule as a means of getting the work done. At present we are exceedingly inconvenienced by having changes in copy for advertisements brought in at the last minute.

Marriage.

Mr. A. P. Levy, of Darlington, will be united in marriage with Miss Emma Strauss, of this city, this afternoon at the residence of the bride's mother.

An Amusing Mishap.

On last Friday night the train for Columbia met with a mishap that was as amusing to those unconcerned, as vexatious to those on the train and the railroad authorities. When the train pulled out from the depot, instead of proceeding on the main line to Columbia it went full tilt down the M. & A. branch, the switch happening to be set wrong. The mistake was not discovered by anyone on the train until they got away down in Pristerer, the brakeman yelled "Wedgfield," and the people got out to find themselves in the woods. The only thing to be done was to return to this place, and this they did at a snail pace with one man walking ahead and another behind with lanterns to signal any approaching train, as the regulations prescribe. It required about two hours to make the return trip. In the mean time the train dispatcher at Wilmington was on his head to know what had become of the train. He telegraphed Sumter to know if the operator was positive the train had left, then he would telegraph to Wedgfield to inquire if the train was in sight. He kept telegraphing back and forth until the train turned up. His state of mind over the disappearance of the train between Sumter and Wedgfield, a distance of ten miles, can better be imagined than described.

The C. S. and N. Railroad in the Hands of a Receiver.

BALTIMORE, January 16—Special to the News and Courier—Astruc information is given that Judge Bond appointed a temporary receiver of the Charleston, Sumter and Northern Railroad this morning. The receiver was appointed on a bill filed in a small case Circuit Court for South Carolina by Alfred A. Howlett. The temporary receiver appointed is Mr. Charles E. Kimball, of New York.

Hunter's Notice.

Boot Slaughter at Heizer and Walsh's Shoe Store. Having just received a lot of Hunting Boots, too late for the fall season, we will sell them now at a sacrifice, and all other styles of boots, will go at a great reduction.

Improve Your Stock.

I have a fine lot of Brown and White Leghorns, Buff Cochins and Black Minorca Cockerels that I wish to dispose of in the next thirty days, and will sell them very much below their value. These birds are from the best prize stock and will make a creditable showing at any exhibition.
