Shot, But Not Killed.

Every one on Main Street was startled this morning by the report of a pistol discharged in the bar room of Frank O'Donnell. A large crowd immediately filled the entrance and partially blocked the sidewalk in front of the store.

The informant of the writer pushed his way through the crowd and found Mr. Pat Burns the center of attraction. He was as Mrs. W. S. Smith. Mrs. Gordon has been in pale as death and was too badly frightened to feply to inquiries as to what was the cause of

, The porter Bill Brown said that Mr. Burns had shot Mr. Frank Morrissey, who was in the back room. Proceeding to the rear of the store, he found Mr. Morrisey seated in a chair, with a ghastly countenance and gasping for breath. Bill Brown said Mr. Morrisey was shot through the chest. Opening Mr. Motrisey's shirt, he found where the ball had ! grazed his skin and left a mark like a mosquito bite. Mr. Morrisey was, of course, glad to learn that he was not shot through and

The many friends of ROBERT W. JEN-KINS beg leave to announce his name as a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Sumter County. He is a true and tried democrat. His wounds received in defence of his Country incapacitates him from performing manual labor, but he is in every way qualified to fill this office, and is universally recognized as an honorable, Christian gentleman.

MANY FRIENDS. To the Democratic Voters of Sunter County: Permit us to present to you the name of MAJ. MARION SANDERS as a candidate for the office of Sheriff. He prosesses in a high degree the necessary qualifications for this important office, and has been "weighed in the balance, and not found wanting." We all know how well he discharged the duties of this office when he held it in former years, and as experience is the best teacher we are confident in the assurance that if elected, "duty" will be, as it always has been, his
