

Edward McCrady.

Edward McCrady, who was the oldest living graduate of Yale College, and the oldest member of the South Carolina Bar, and the last prominent participant in nullification, died at his home in Charleston, S. C. Wednesday last, aged 91 years.

A Steam Line to Europe.

Mr. James Knott, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, has determined to put on a regular line of steamers between Charleston and the Mediterranean ports, and the Charleston agency will be in the hands of Messrs Street Bros.

Mr. Knott owns and controls a large number of steamers of the Prince Line. He is one of the most enterprising shipowners in England, and has given Charleston an opportunity of showing whether or not it can support a direct line of steamers.—News and Courier.

He Alone is Right.

From the first to the last line of his message, the Governor has found nothing to commend, except perhaps some of his own sets, or the act of his immediate associates, while he attempts to convey the idea that all that he speaks of is wrong, and that he and his associates alone are right.—Press and Banner.

It is not time to re-arrange the Congressional Districts, so that the Black District will be eliminated from the calculation of political chances? Governor Tillman has advised a reconstruction of the registration law, and in this he is right, but along with it ought to come a reformation of the Federal election districts.

France pays 4 per cent. of its annual revenue for pensions, and the United States pay 40 per cent.

Our Gift to Every One of Our Readers.

By special arrangement with the Publishers, we are enabled to make every one of our readers a present of one of our Oil Pictures 26 inches long, a companion to "A Yard of Roses," which all have seen and admired. This exquisite picture, "A Yard of Pansies," was painted by the same noted artist who did the "Roses." It is the same size, and is pronounced by art critics to be far superior to the "Roses." The reproduction is equal in respect to the original, which cost $300, and accompanying it are full directions for framing at home, at a cost of a few cents, thus forming a beautiful ornament for your parlor or a superb Christmas Gift, worth at least $5. Send your name and address to the publisher, W. Jennings Demorest, 15 East 14 St., New York, with three two-cent stamps to pay for the package mailing etc., and mention that you are a reader of the Watchman and Southern and you will receive by return mail one of these valuable Works of Art.

A Welcome Visitor.

December makes the opening number of The New Peterson an illustrated magazine devoted solely to literature and art. The names of the editors are a host in themselves; they comprise Frank Lee Benedict, Howard Seely, Octave Thuret, and M. G. McClelland. Among the contributors are such names as E. E. Hale, T. W. Higginson, Hamlin Garland, Joseph Kirkland, John Vance Cheney, William Archer, Margaret Kent, Rebecca Herd, Deris, Gertrude Atherton, Ruth McBrye Stuart, Charles W. Coleman—in short, the cream of the essayists, story-writers, and poets in the entire length and breadth of the country. The New Peterson will be the cheapest literary magazine in the world, yet the names quoted above form a guaranty that in every respect it will be the equal of the highest-priced literary monthlies.

The December number is a wondrous, too, in the matter of illustrations, paper, typography, etc., it will prove a formidable rival to more expensive periodicals. "The Amateur's Camera," by Frances Stevens, is capably written and gives a series of admirable photographs by some of our most distinguished amateur artists. "High Jinks at Eden," by Howard Seely, is decidedly the best Christmas story of the year. "Wrecked," by Minna Irving, illustrated, is one of that gifted poet's strongest lyrics. "Alfred Tennyson," by Charles Addison Mayhew, is beautifully illustrated and written. There are a few of the number's attractions—it must be seen to be appreciated. Our readers should not fail to send for it. Terms, $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months. A sample number will be sent for five cents. Address The Peterson Magazine Co., Philadelphia.

Success in everything depends largely upon good health. De Witt's Little Early Risers are little health producing pills. See the point? Then take an "Early Riser." J. S. Huggins & Co.

If you are suffering from liver complaint, kidney trouble, dyspepsia, sick headache or loss of appetite try Gleason's Spring Water. You can get it through W. R. Delgar, Jr.

Compound Oxygen.

If you are suffering from catarrh—if you have incipient consumption—if you have little or no appetite—if you have lost relish for your work—if life has become a burden instead of a joy—if you are tormented night and day with a nervousness that will allow you no peace—if you feel that you do need a stimulant, but shrink from poisoning your life with alcohol—if you are beginning to run down—if you would seek relief without risk—if you would use a remedy that already has the endorsement of tens of thousands of intelligent people, and is thoroughly established in the public confidence, send a postal of inquiry—it will cost you one cent—to Dr. Starkey & Palen, 1529 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa., or to Mrs. A. W. Moore, Florence, S. C.

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs, and Colds.—If you have never used this Great Cough Medicine, one trial will convince you that it has wonderful curative powers in all diseases of the Chest and Lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. F. W. DeLorme's Drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Backlin's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell so well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. J. F. W. DeLorme, Druggist. 1
