Prof. Edward Baxter Perry failed to reach this city last Thursday evening and give the piano recital as advertised. He was delayed by the wreck at Chester.
There were eleven applicants for admission to Clemson College at the examination held on last Thursday. The papers have been forwarded to the College for examination.
The C. S. & N. E. R. has handled to date about thirty-five cars of fertilizers. The A. C. L., somewhat more. The movement is belated this year, but the railroad people expect a rush a little later.

Rainbow Party.
The Dorcas Society will give a Rainbow Party at the residence of Mr. A. S. Brown on the evening of February 1st.

Prepare to Shiver.
Weather signal displayman, Judge C. M. Hurst, has brought in the following telegram from the weather bureau:
"Probably the most severe cold wave of the season. Temperature will fall twenty to forty degrees by Thursday night. Hoist cold wave signal, and notify papers."
In accordance with the foregoing, our people should now prepare to shiver.

Quick Work.
The kitchen of Mrs. M. F. Pate's residence, on East Liberty Street, was discovered to be on fire. The roof was ablaze, and the house near by was smoking and about to ignite. The alarm was given and in just fourteen minutes from the time the bell struck the fire had been extinguished and the firemen were ordered off duty. That is a pretty quick piece of work. Two streams were turned on the fire.

Died by Appointment.
Grand Wilson, an old negro of the Bishopville neighborhood, died a few weeks ago, which, in itself, was not a remarkable occurrence; but the unusual fact connected therewith is that on the day preceding he informed his family that he would die the next night at 3 o'clock, and requested that he should be buried at 8 o'clock the night succeeding, as was the custom "befo' de war." He died at the appointed time, and in accordance with his request he was honored with a night burial.

Prospecting for Factory Sites.
Mr. Robert F. Barker, of Manchester, England, who is travelling through the South investigating the condition of the cotton manufacturing industry and prospecting for favorable sites for the establishment of factories, spent a portion of last week in the city. He was the guest of Mr. D. James Winn, and under Mr. Winn's guidance saw and explained to him the many natural advantages that this city possesses. Mr. Barker, before leaving declared himself to be much impressed with Sumter's superiority to other places; and it is possible that his visit to Sumter may result in material benefit to the city.

Married.

Married in Georgetown, Texas, by Rev. Dr. J. R. Allen, Mr. F. Asbury Mood, of Santa Anna, Texas, to Miss Sarah E. Nuckolls, of Georgetown, Texas. They left for San Antonio, Texas, on the next train to spend the Christmas holidays with relatives there.
Mr. Richard McElveen, of this county and Miss Virginia Conyers, of Clarendon were united in marriage on January 10th, at the residence of the bride's mother near Manning. Rev. James McDowell officiating. Mr. McElveen is a son of Capt. J. M. McElveen, of Mayesville, and the bride a daughter of the late John J. Conyers and wife of Mr. J. J. Conyers of this city.

Death.

Mr. W. J. Walls died suddenly about 1.30 p. m., Sunday afternoon, Jan. 21, at his home at the Cotton Mills. Mr. Walls was about sixty-one years of age, and leaves a wife and four children.

Religions.

There will be services at the Church of the Holy Comforter next Sunday at 11 a. m. and 4.30 p. m., Rev. J. S. Hartzell officiating. Sunday School at 3.30 p. m.

"Applied Christianity"

The series of sermons announced last week, was begun last Sunday night at the Baptist Church by the Rev. C. C. Brown. The sermon delivered on that occasion will be found elsewhere. It was heard by a large and attentive congregation, and will well repay perusal. The remainder of the series will be published in course as delivered.

According to a former announcement, Dr. C. C. Brown will preach, on Sunday night the second sermon in the proposed series. The subject will be "Move on, or Move Out, or the Story of the World's Progress." Mr. Brown says it is his purpose to show, as well as to teach, the progress made in many branches of science—in medicine, agriculture, commerce, education, etc., and then to show that for a hundred or more years, at least, the Church has changed neither its plans nor its methods, and that it is therefore not meeting the requirements of the age. If, to the above, the speaker can add some suggestions as to the new and better methods, the sermon ought to do good. We are quite sure that the Church people see the proper critics of the Church and we have had enough advice from the outsiders who know little about the subject. There surely ought to be contact, but not conflict, between the Church and the world, and yet it too often happens that the contact is in the wrong place and in the wrong way, the result being that the Church receives harm but imparts no good.

An Attractive Programme.

To-morrow night, 25th inst., at the Opera House, a musical will be given by the best local talent in aid of an object that should interest the sympathies of all.

Mrs. Nowlin, will have management of the concert.
A Gypsy Encampment will form an attractive part of the programme, and the orchestral, vocal, and instrumental music will be of a high order. Concert to begin at 8 o'clock.

Fire at Manville.

Mr. H. W. Rembert, of Manville, lost his barn by fire on Monday night of last week. The barn contained a quantity of cotton seed, fodder, hay, farm implements, etc. The total loss was not less than $400, with only $40 insurance on the building. He had fourteen bales of cotton stored in the barn previous to the evening before the fire when he removed them to make room for more cotton seed. The fire was without doubt the work of an incendiary.

Inspection of Fire Risks.

Mr. Harris the Agent of the Sea Fire Insurance Co. of New Orleans, was here yesterday inspecting the risks held by his company in this city.

We have heard considerable complaint from our citizens in reference to the high and increasing rates of insurance, despite the largely increased facilities the city enjoys for fighting fire, and which, the citizens were led to believe, would have the effect of reducing insurance rates.
Some of our leading business men are prepared now to take measures of relief, which will not be of advantage to the companies concerned, in that they will not receive their patronage, in the event that the plans of the citizens shall materialize. We know of one gentleman whose rate was raised to seven per cent, who has cancelled his insurance, preferring to assume the risk himself rather than submit to this exorbitant rate.

From the current talk on the subject we have no doubt that we will have occasion very soon to refer to it again.

A Treat in Store.

The Daughters of Israel, who are doing a great deal of charity, helping the needy in our midst, will give a theatrical performance at the Opera House on February 6th. A number of society young men and ladies are now busy in rehearsing. There will be two plays—"The Obstinate Family" and "Who Will Win Him?"
Remember the date, for you will surely be pleased.
Admission at popular prices.

Coroner's Inquests.

Two inquests were held in this county on last Sunday. One over the body of an old colored man Grandison Frost at Claremont, and the other over the remains of Mr. Wm. J. Wall at the Sumter Cotton Mills.

From facts brought out at the inquest it appears that Grandison Frost had a pistol in his hands examining the weapon when it was accidentally discharged, the ball entering his breast and killing him almost instantly. The verdict of the jury was in accordance with the facts above stated.

Mr. Wm. J. Wall who died suddenly at the Sumter Cotton Mills was a sufferer from heart disease and Dr. Wood, his physician, had informed him a few days previous that he was liable to die at any time. An inquest was held by Trial Justice Manning and the jury of inquest returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

Alliance Notice.

There will be a meeting in the interest of the Farmers Alliance of Sumter County held in the Court House on the 1st day of February next at 12 o'clock m. and a similar meeting at Bishopville on the Thursday following, to wit, the 8th inst and another at Mayesville on the 24th inst. All persons of all classes, men and women, rich and poor, of all shades of political view are earnestly requested attend these meetings and bear the cause of the Alliance expounded by its officers. The regular address will be delivered by the Board of Lecturers consisting of myself and Messrs. C. L. Williamson and J. J. Dargan; but short talks may be expected from others present. If there be any opponents of the Alliance present at any of these meetings who may wish to address the meeting a respectful and earnest hearing will be granted them.

A Schrewd Swindler.

The sensation of the month was developed on Monday morning when it was noised around that L. W. Edwards, the young lawyer who came here last week, had left without saying good-by to his newly made Sumter friends, whom he had shrewdly swindled out of $535.00. Edwards had departed taking wife and child and a pair of black horses and a new buggy which he had bargained to buy from Mr. W. J. McKain. Later in the day it was learned that Edwards had gone to Camden and was then in that place. Mr. McKain swore out a warrant before Trial Justice Manning, and together with Sheriff Sanders and Mr. R. O. Purdy set out immediately for Camden, Sheriff Sanders having first sent a telegram to the Sheriff of Kershaw to hold Edwards until his arrival.

During the day while awaiting news from Camden, the story of Edwards' operations was told and retold on every side. Stripped of all details the facts are as follows:

L. W. Edwards, accompanied by wife and child, came to this city about ten days ago and engaged board at Mrs. E. C. Green's. He secured an office in the Masonic Temple, and announced that he had located here for the practice of the law. He defended M. D. Wheeler in the blind tiger case, and upon conviction appealed to the higher court. Edwards is a rather tall and erect man of about 30 years, clean shaven and carries himself with considerable dash. His manners were pleasant and exceedingly pleasurable—so say those who had dealings with him. He was not long in renewing his acquaintance with several gentlemen of this city who were at school with him, and then he began to get in his work.

He made one or two small purchases from Cuttino & Delgar, paying cash. The next day he made other purchases and gave in payment a check on the Loan and Exchange Bank of Charleston, telling them that he had money deposited there and had not had time to have it transferred to the bank here. The check was accepted and he was given the difference in cash. Other merchants were victimized in the same manner. Mr. L. S. Carson cashed a check for $30. Mr. Robt. Delgar identified him at the Bank of Sumter, and endorsed a check for $50. On Saturday he purchased a pair of horses and buggy from Mr. Wiley McKain giving him a check of $300 in payment. The horses were to be left at Mr. McKain's stable until the check could be collected. Sunday morning he took the horses out to drive his wife around the city. When he did not return Mr. McKain began to get uneasy. Monday morning a telegram was sent to the Charleston Bank inquiring concerning Edwards. The reply stated that he had no account there. This satisfied everyone that they had been duped. The checks have been returned.

When Edwards reached Camden on Sunday he stopped at the Latham House. On Monday he sold the team to Mr. George Little for $170. Soon after the sale was made Sheriff Sanders' telegram was received in Camden. The Sheriff looked Edwards up, but he coolly refused to be arrested without the warrant, and denied each and every charge. He was, however, kept under espionage all day, but just after dark and a short while before Sheriff Sanders and McKain arrived, he succeeded in slipping out of town, leaving his wife and child. Yesterday morning it was learned that he had made his way on foot to the town of Kershaw. There he was arrested, and he was brought back to this city under arrest on the evening train. His wife and child accompanied him.

Mr. McKain recovered his team without loss to himself or Mr. Little, the $170 being recovered from Edwards.

After reaching here last night Edwards declared his intention to settle up all accounts against him. The swindled persons presented their claims and he allowed them all. He then made a draft for the whole amount on Mrs. Mary C. Rion, of Winnsboro, and got his wife to sign it. The writer understands that she did so with reluctance, and conveyed the impression to those present that the draft would not be cashed. [A telegraphic reply has been received from Winnsboro saying the draft would not be honored.]

This being completed, Edwards was placed in jail to spend the night. Mrs. Edwards and child went from the depot to Mrs. Green's where they still are.

Edwards belongs to a good family and was raised in Walterboro. Both his father and mother were known to a number of people here. His wife is a daughter of the late Col. Jas. H. Rion, of Winnsboro. Edwards is said to be a regular black-sheep and has been in other scrapes. He has recently completed a term in prison for forging. He merits and should receive punishment to the extent of the law, but no one can fail to sympathize with and pity his wife and child, the little girl in particular. It was a sad spectacle yesterday evening when the party got off the train, Edwards, the prisoner, the Deputy Sheriff on one side, his wife on the other, and the little girl, apparently about five years' old walking ahead, a bunch of flowers in her hands, seemingly unconscious of the meaning of the scene, and then the eager, pushing crowd of curiosity-drawn people surrounding them on all sides. What a memory for after years for that child!

A Successful Sumter Boy.

Mr. Milton Dargan arrived in the city yesterday from Dallas, Texas. He comes for the purpose of establishing a southern department of the Lancashire Insurance company, Manchester, England.

Heretofore his business in the south has been divided. Mr. Dargan has hitherto had the general agency for two or three states, with headquarters at Dallas, Texas. Other agents reported at New Orleans, at Charleston, and some perhaps to Richmond.

The company has decided to make one general headquarters for the entire south, including the Virginias, Kentucky, Tennessee and all the southern states to and including Texas. Mr. Dargan has been placed in charge of the southern department, and has secured elegant quarters in the Equitable building. This removal will bring at least twenty-five people to Atlanta, with the office force and their families.
The magnitude of the business of this company can scarcely be estimated. It is one of the foremost of the companies of the world, and has done an immense business in the south as well as elsewhere. All the agents in the southern territory will in future report to Atlanta.

Mr. Dargan will require the use of five offices in the Equitable building.
After the Lancashire company had determined to establish general southern headquarters, Mr. Dargan was given the choice between Atlanta, and New Orleans and the selection of this city was the result of summing up its advantages with reference to thrift, future prosperity and climate.

Mr. Dargan is connected with one of the oldest families in South Carolina, from which state he went to Texas. He is an elegant, cultured gentleman, and will be a valuable addition to Atlanta's business and social circles.—Atlanta Constitution.

Governor Tillman's Son Accidentally Shoots a Companion.

ELBERTON, Ga., January 12. Quite a serious if not a fatal accident occurred in lower Elbert Friday. Young Mr. Ben Tillman, son of Governor Tillman of South Carolina, is visiting his cousin, young Mr. Sam Stake, of this county. These two young gentlemen were practicing shooting at a target on Friday, when the gun, while in the hands of young Tillman, accidentally discharged, the ball passing through the body of young Mr. State, producing a serious wound.

CEREALITE,

A RELIABLE CHEMICAL TOP-DRESSING FOR Corn, Cotton, Wheat, OATS, GRASS, RYE, ETC,
Will increase the yield and prove a profitable investment.

CAMEEN, S. C., Oct. 14, 1862.

Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co., Nos. 11 and 13 N. Liberty St., Baltimore, Md.

Dear Sirs: In reply to yours of the 7th inst., I would say I used the "Cerealite" bought of you, principally as a top-dressing on oats. Applied it about the 10th of March, and in my opinion the yield was increased and in 4 days after the application I could see a marked improvement in the growth and condition of the crops. The soil on which crop was grown is a light sandy loam, which, without fertilizer, would produce say, 25 bushels oats per acre, or 12 bushels corn. I used some of the "Cerealite" on corn, applied it at time of planting and was much pleased with the result. The corn grew off rapidly and matured early. I am much pleased with your "Cerealite," and will continue to use it. Yours very respectfully,
E. MILLER BOYKIN.

"Home Fertilizer" FOR Cotton, Corn and General Crops.

See what prominent farmers in North and South Carolina say about it:
CHERRAW, S. C., Oct. 16, 1893.

Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co.
It gives us pleasure to say we have been using your Home Fertilizer for more than fifteen years continuously, and expect to continue to do so. Of course, we are entirely satisfied that it pays us to use it.
Respectfully,
J. W. MCKAY,
R. M. MCKAY.

OAK GROVE, S. C., Oct. 19, 1893.

Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co., Balto., Md.
Gentlemen: In reply to yours of the 15th, beg to say that the Home Fertilizer chemicals paid this year on my farm better than any other fertilizer used by me. I think it was owing to its holding out so much longer than the ammoniated fertilizers which appear to start off crops early and after appear to fall too quickly. Yours truly,
S. D. LANE.

JACKSON, N. C., Oct. 17, 1892.

Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co.
Gentlemen: In reply to your enquiries as to the efficacy of Home Formulas, I have used the same for the past six years in quantities varying from 3 to 25 tons. I consider it one of the most reliable fertilizers that I have ever used, and, cost considered, cheaper than other fertilizers that I have used. My experience is confined to its use under and by the side of corn and cotton only. When carefully and properly made, and used as per directions, I consider it unequalled. Respectfully,
GEO. P. BURGWIN.

MARVILLE, N. C., Sept. 20, 1893.
Messrs. Boykin, Carmer & Co.
Gentlemen: The chemicals I bought of you for making "Home Fertilizer" continue to give satisfaction. I only use it under cotton. You know I must think it good or I should not have used it so long. This makes 16 or 17 years that I have been using it, and its use has made me able to pay for it in cash, not on crop time. Yours truly,
THOS. S. EVANS.

Buy some and you will be able to do the same.
