Bank Statement.

The statement of the condition of the Simonds National Bank at the close of business on the 11th instant, is published to-day under the call of the Comptroller of the Currency. The large amount of the deposits, for this time of year, shows that the bank has the confidence of those who have surplus money, and the comparatively small amount of "Bills Payable" account indicates that the bank is able to handle its busiress without requiring much outside funds.

Our young townsman, Hugh Haynsworth who has been elected principal of the West End Graded School in Greenville, is thus spoken of by the papers of that city.

Baptist Courier : Mr. Hugh C. Havnsworth. of Sumter, who graduated from Furman University at the last commencement, taking the A. B course, was elected a few days ago the principal of the West End Graded School, Greenville. Mr. Haynsworth is a talented young man and we predict for him a brilliant future.

Mountaineer : The selection of the principal of the West End School is an excellent one. Mr Haysworth is well known here, where he has attended Furman University for the last three years. During his whole course at the University he stood at the head of his classes, making one year an average on all final examinations of ninety-nine and a fraction. Mr. Haysworth graduated this year, taking he degree of Bachelor of Arts, which fact is in itself a sufficient guarantee

The Coast Line engine had to be sent from out the tollowing circular : Columbia to pull the train down. This delay caused the train on the Coast Line to be about one hour late leaving Columbia. A part of the lost time was made up between Columbia and this city, but the train come in late.

Mr. McDonald Furman, of Sumter county, has been visiting the Catawba Indians. The Indians treated nim with great hospitality, and he has written an interesting account of his visit ; but as to whether he got any information on the line desired, does not vet appear. The Indians are not especially interesting talkers. Some people are inclined to attribute this to a disposition to keep things to themselves ; but we suspect that the ieal secret is to be found in the fact that they know very little to tell .- Yorkville Enquirer.

When the Reform convention adjourned on Saturday without having taken any action in reference to accepting the compromise offered by the Conservatives there was a great deal of dissatisfaction expressed by the moderate Reformers who were sincere in a desire to avoid a factional fight in Sumter County. A number of these held a caucus and decided to call a mass meeting independently of the regular Reform organization, and take steps that would secure peace between the factions and a division of delegates. R. Thomas call a mass meeting, and it was generally understood that the mass meeting would we called for next Friday, and that it would be composed of conservative Reformers who desired to accept the proposition made by the Conservatives.
