When the street bands finish trimming the shade trees of the city the extent of the damage | Moise and R O Purdy. done by the freeze will be painfully apparent. A great many trees will be shorn of nearly all of their branches, and those that have been trimmed are little more than bare trunks.

The cotton receipts last Friday were heavier than for a week or more, which is pretty good evidence that those who have been holding cotton for higher prices have given up hope of an advance in the market and are unloading. The ruling price on the streets to-day was 62 cents.

The people of Sumter irrespective of denominational affiliations will regret that Rev W. C Power and family will remove from this city to Greenville. Mr. Power has resided here for four years and has made friends of all with whom he has come in contact. The return of Messrs Daniel and Herbert to their charges in this city for another year is very gratifying, as they are both very popular and are loved by their congregations.

The Postal line between this city and Camden has been repaired, which gives communication with all parts of the country, and the local office is again prepared to handle all business with the usual promptness. The Sumter-Camden line is the property of Mrs. B. K. DeLorme, and is essentially a home enterprise, and as such should receive a liberal patronage from all Sumter people.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday evening December 9, at 8 o'clock, H J Havnsworth, of Greenville, and Miss Rhoda Livingston, daughter of Col. Knox Livingston, were united in marriage at Col. Livingston's residence in Bennetts-

Mr Haynsworth is a preminent lawyer of Greenville, S. C. He was a member of the late Constitutional Convention, in the deliberations of which he took a conspicus and able part, and has held various positions of honor and trust

The bride is one of the brightest young ladies in Eastern Carolina. Colonel Livingston is one of the ablest lawyers in this section, and his daughter has inherited in full force the rare intellectual qualities of ber Board of Commissioners-Public distinguished father. She was valdictorian of her class at Converse College, and taught last year, with marked success, the highest grade in Greenville graded schools.

After the wedding, a reception was given at the elegant home of the bride's father, where a large number of the friends of the bride and groom enjoyed the lavish bospitality of Colonel and Mrs. Livingston. .

Married at the home of the bride near Rembert, this county, on Thursday, December 10th, Capt. John M. McElveen, of Salem, and Mrs. S. L. Keels, Rev. W. J. McKay officiating. A number of the friends of the contracting parties were present and witnessed

Sunday at the residence of Parkkeeper Flowers the Rev G. KILLED IN A RUNAWAY.

Skull Fractured by a Mule's Kick

Joe Barrett an Italian laborer in the employ of Mr. W. T. Brogdon, of Brogdon's brought a load of cotton to this city Friday, and when on his way home with the empty wagon, the mules ran away, throwing him from the wagon and running over his body. It is supposed that he was thrown under the feet of the mules and was kicked on the head and face, there being a deep gash across the chin, the left cheek tone was fractured, and a fracture extended across his forehead just above the eyes When found he was in an ers, who has -pent the last two weeks at his | nnconscious condition | He died last night without regaining consciousness, and the particulars of the accident could not be ascer-

Meeting of County Commissioners

The Board of County Commissioners met on Saturday for the purpose of receiving tht report of the committee on repair of Cour-House and to approve the bonds of Sheriffs elect Pierson and Coroner-elect Moses.

The report of the Court House committee recommended that the plans and specifications submitted by Architect C H. Moise, of this city, be accepted. The Board adopted the committee report and ordered that bids on the work be advertised for and Mr Moise was employed as supervising architect. The plans submitted by Mr. Moise provide for the addition of 20 feet in rear of Court House which will give space for two fire proof vaults for the storage, of the records in the offices of the Clerk of Court and Probate Judge on the ground floor, and for an office for the Master and a Grand Jury room on second floor. And also provides an office for the Coroner on first floor. The fire proof vaults will be 22 ft 6 inches and have ample light for consultation of the records. Sanitary methods will be introduced in the building traction than was anticipated, for quite a and all improvements will be in keeping with modern methods The entire building inside and out will be thoroughly repaired and repainted, and the cost will come within the a Lount originally appropriated for the purpose.

Mr. Moise is an architect of many years experience, having been actively engaged in his profesion in New Orleans for a long term of years. The Board has done well to secure his services and will succeed in having the Court House substantially and economically repaired under his supervision.

Capt. B. G. Pierson, Sheriff-elect, preseated his bond with the following sureties: Geo F Epperson, H Harby, R P Monaghan, Neil O'Donnell, A.J. China, D. J. Chandler, R. A. Brand, E. W. Hurst, W. F. Shaw and R. O. Purdy. The bond was approved, as was also the bond of Mr. A D Moses, Coroner-elect The sureties on the latter bond were E W is answered.

A Hot Supper will be given at the residence of Dr. H Y. DuBose, on Wednesday evening, December 23rd, for the benefit of Hebron Church. Oysters and a substantial will be served. The public is invited to at- for same goods.

A Small Fire.

A small stable in the rear of O'Donnell & Co's store was discovered to be on fire about o'clock Friday night, and in a few minutes the whole building was in a blaze Whethe fire department arrived Graham's large sale stable was in imminent danger, as it was but a few feet from the burning building Three lines of hose were stretched and in a short time the fire was extingui hed. No damage was done Graham's Stable and the entire loss is not great. Thirty-five bushels of pe-s and a lot of forage, which were stored in the stable were burned. The fire would have been gotten under control much more quickly had the hose not burst almost as soon as the water was turned on, thereby causing several minutes delay At nearly every fire the same accident occurs and to an onlooker it appears that heavier hose is needed to stand the pressure The city should purchase a sufficient quantity of heavy hose to replace the light weight hose

The Y. M C. A. Service.

THE BABY SHOW.

The mothers of Sumter and hundreds of others filled the Ducker & Bultman hall Friday afternoon between the hours of halfpast three and five o'clock. The attraction was the Bahy Show under the direction of the Delgar Reel Squad Bozan committee. Such a complete jam of people has rarely been seen in this city, and any one who previously doubted that a baby is the most interesting creature in the world now doubts no more. There were about thirty-five babies exhibited, but the crowd of mothers and other admirers was so great that the reporter had no opportunity of inspecting the exhibit, save es a whole, and from a distance, and can therefore say nothing about beauty of the future women of Sumter or how handsome the little men

The judges performed their difficult and dangerous duties with care and deliberation and very wisely decided that the announcement of the prize winners would not be made immediately, but at the Bazaar last night. The awards were then announced as follows:

Babies in Arms : Prettiest-Marie Antoniette Stuckey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stuckey. Finest-Mary Delgar, daughter of Mr. and
