BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Mr. James Neveland Brand and Miss Maud Allison McLeod Married at Grace M. E. Church.

Grace M. E. Church, South, was the scene of a brilliant and beautiful wedding last evening at 5 45 o'clock when Mr. James Neveland Brand led to the altar Miss Maud Allison McLeod, daughter of Mrs. M. L. McLeod, all of this city.

The altar was profusely decorated with wild smilax, palms, roses and other tropical plants, geraniums, roses and chrysanthemums, and the church was overflowing with the friends and acquaintances of the couple.

The music for the marriage was by a selected choir and orchestra, both of which were voluntary. The quartette consisted of Mrs. W. L. Latta, soprano; Mrs. E. G. Woody, alto; Mr. C. H. Cooper, tenor; and Mr. A. S. Holden, baritone.

The ushers led the way in the following order: Mr. Hugh L. Miller, of Columbia, S. C., cousin of the bride, with Mr. John J. Blair, of Wilmington; Mr. H. H. Brand, of Augusta, brother of the groom, with Mr. John C. James, of Wilmington. They wore lovely large pink chrysanthemums as boutonniere.

Following the ushers came the maid of honor, the bride's cousin, Miss Alice Borden, who was attired in a dress of grey cloth, trimmed with passementerie and wore a black velvet Gainsborough hat. She carried a lovely bouquet of large pink chrysanthemums.

The groom came in from the pastor's entrance to the right of the altar, accompanied by his best man, Mr. J. W. Perrin, of this city. They had boutonnieres of pink chrysanthemums. At the altar, Mr. Borden gave away his niece, and the Rev. J. N. Cole, pastor of the church, performed the marriage with the ring service.

The bride was dressed in white satin with white satin ribbons. The ushers led the way in the following order: Mr. Hugh L. Miller, of Columbia, S. C., cousin of the bride, with Mr. John J. Blair, of Wilmington; Mr. H. H. Brand, of Augusta, brother of the groom, with Mr. John C. James, of Wilmington.

After her came the bride, who was led to the altar by her uncle, Mr. Herbert Leigh Borden, who wore a pink chrysanthemum in his button hole. She was attired in a rich costume of lilac crepe de chene over taffeta silk, richly trimmed with passementerie and gold. She had on a regal black velvet hat with plumes and trimmings of gilt. She wore a brooch of diamonds and pearls, the gift of the groom, and bore a magnificent bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair ferns.

MARRIED.

Mr. Sam C. Reid and Mrs. Lampley were married at the residence of the bride on Main street last evening, Rev. W. A. Kelly performing the ceremony.

Brailsford-Schofield

Mollins, Nov 16.—The loveliest wedding ever witnessed here was solemnized in the Baptist church yesterday at 5 30 p. m., when Dr. A. H. Brailsford and Miss Lizzie Schofield were united.

The pulpit of the church was backed with lovely evergreens, holly, cedar, and ivy intermingled, and the floor of the stand was covered with many beautiful palms and ferns. At the head of each aisle was a large arch covered with white, over which green ivy was twined. White cloth was laid over the floor on which the bridal party stood, and amid soft lights from shaded lamps, the beautiful Episcopal ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. H. Earnwell, of Stateburg, S. C.

Punctual to the hour appointed, the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by Miss Maggie McKeena in her usual beautiful manner.

The ushers came first, two at a time, up opposite aisles: Mr. John Boatwright, Danville, Va., and Will Richardson, Orangeburg; Dr. G. S. White, Charleston, and Mr. Henry B. Richardson, Jr., Clarendon, and Mr. W. A. Gray, South Boston, Va.; Mr. H. B. Richardson, Panama, and Mr. J. M. Richardson, Panama; Prof. J. E. Brozard, Mullin, and R. C. Richardson, Clarendon.

As they reached the chancel, they crossed and stood opposite each other. Next came the two beautiful bridesmaids, Miss Myrtle Lee from Danville, and Miss Henrietta Brailsford of Clarendon, sister of the groom, they were dressed precisely alike in dainty costumes of white organdie, trimmed with satin ribbon and white schubes carried gracefully over the shoulders. They carried armfuls of beautiful American beauty roses. The handsome groom came in on the arm of his cousin and best man, Mr. L. E. Brailsford of Mullins, and the sweet and charming bride with her brother, Mr. R. P. Schofield of Danville.

The bride was attired in a pretty and stylish traveling dress of brown mode cloth, with trimmings of white broadcloth. She wore a brown velvet hat and gloves to match. The bride's bouquet was exquisite bridal roses. The groom and ushers wore black cutaway coats, light pants and gloves.

Dr. Brailsford is a popular young physician of this place. He has only been here a short while, but has built up a fine practice and his future is very promising.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Schofield. The family have only recently moved here from Danville, but Miss Lizzie has won many friends here and is a very popular and charming young lady.—The State.

Marriage in Camden.

Camden, Nov. 15.—A very pretty home wedding was witnessed last night by the relatives and friends of the popular young couple, Mr. Charles H. Zemp and Miss Mary Kershaw Shannon, at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. J. B. Kershaw.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. B. Gordon, rector of Grace Episcopal church.

Marriage at Providence.

Mr. Editor: On the 15th of this month at 8 p. m. a bridal party composed of the bride, Miss Emma Brown, the groom, Mr. Ed. Davis, and attendants drove up to Tirzah Church. They found the church handsomely decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums and crowded almost to overflowing.

As they entered the church the wedding march was well executed by Mrs. Woodley and in a few minutes the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Davis a cousin of the groom.

The following were the attendants: Miss Sarah Brown with Mr. James Davis; Miss Eva Raffield with Mr. McCaskill; Miss Oleta Andrews with Mr. Willie Burrows; Miss Davis with Mr. George Booth; Miss Mattie Vinson with Mr. C. Davis; Miss Mamie Brown with Mr. Bramlett; Miss Eloise Hamer with Mr. Marion Andrews; Miss Sarah Ann Parkett with Mr. Gilbert Brown.

The bride was dressed in white cashmere and the bridesmaids in blue organdie. After the ceremony the bridal party and their friends attended a reception at the residence of Mr. S. J. Brown and they will not soon forget the substantial and well conducted reception.

The groom is from our neighboring county, Kershaw, and all of their Sumter friends wish both bride and groom a long and happy life. A. P. V.

A Coming Marriage.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. W. Scott Harvin to Miss Mary A. Thomas, of Charleston, on the twenty-eighth of this month. Miss Thomas is a daughter of Mr. Stephen Thomas and her mother is a daughter of the late Col. Thomas H. Connor, of this county.—Manning Farmer.

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lume Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvellous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles, and never disappoints. Price 50c at J. F. W. DeLorme's drug store.

The Most Brilliant Affair Ever Given by the Sumter Club. The dance given by the Sumter Club has been acknowledged by every one to be the most successful ever held since its organization.

The hall was artistically draped in emilax, the band stand one bower of green. The music increased to 7 pieces, with the addition of the drum was indeed a treat and the music of last night ranks this Orchestra among the first.

A large number of visiting ladies were present and never have a lovelier set of women been seen at one time in this city. The supper was all to be desired and at midnight filled a long list went.

The costumes far exceeded anything ever seen, and no notably lovely gown, worn by one of our young matrons, was indeed a vision of loveliness, a black net covered with jet sparkles, demi train.

DEATH.

Mr. Monroe Belvin, of Spring Hill, died last week from typhoid fever, and was buried at the Smithville Church on Thursday, after services by Rev. J. H. Thacker. He leaves a wife and a large family of children.

Mr. D. J. Holliday, of P. privateer, died at his home on last Saturday, the 17th, from paralysis, with which he was taken on Tuesday before. He was 63 years old. He went through the civil war, first in Co. D, Second Regiment, and afterwards in Garden's Battery. He left no family, his wife having preceded him in death several years.

A Village Blacksmith saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. R. Black, the well known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so bad have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as an adult. For sale by Dr. A. J. China.

The proposition to convert the Opera House into a hotel is rather startling and before the people would agree to it the cost of remodeling the building would have to be counted and proof furnished that the change will be profitable.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect it from the shoe.

As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Dr. A. J. China.

F. C. Stoney, the tailor who works for D. J. Chandler, met with a serious accident last Sunday night by being thrown from his vehicle against a tree, fracturing his hip or upper bone of the thigh. He was on his way home from the neighborhood of Stateburg, when his horse became frightened and shied, suddenly throwing him out. The horse did not leave him, but he was unable to move until some one happened to come along the road and found him. He will be laid up for six or eight weeks probably.
