

DEATH

Mr. James Barrett died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. N. P. Teacher at a quarter past seven o'clock, Sunday evening. He was in his ninety-second year. Funeral from St. Joseph's Chapel at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday. Services will be conducted by Rev. Jos. Foley, of Washington, D. C.

Mr. Barrett was a native of Ireland, but had been a citizen of Sumter for more than sixty years and few men were better known throughout the county. Prior to the Confederate War and for fifteen or twenty years subsequent thereto he ran a general merchandise business on Main Street. Mr. Barrett leaves two children, Mrs. F. F. Teacher and Mr. Jos. J. Barrett, both of this city.

Mrs. Julia Furman died at Georgetown Saturday morning after a brief illness. The funeral services were held Monday morning at the Episcopal Church and the interment made in the cemetery.

Charter For the First Baptist Church

At a church meeting held Sunday the members of the First Baptist Church appointed a committee, consisting of Col. T. V. Walsh, Dr. W. J. Pringle and Mr. B. R. Nash, to apply to the Secretary of State for an amendment to the charter changing the name to the "First Baptist Church of Sumter, S. C."

Services at Bartlette Street Baptist Church.

The first services were held in the Bartlette Street Baptist Church last Sunday morning. Rev. F. M. Satterwhite, the pastor, occupied the pulpit and preached a thoughtful and forcible sermon to a large and attentive congregation. At night it was expected that the church would be dedicated, but Rev. J. O. Gough, of Manning, who was to have been present and preach the dedicatory sermon was unable to come, and the dedication was postponed. Rev. Mr. Satterwhite again occupied the pulpit and preached. The church was crowded to the doors, even the aisles being filled, and many were unable to gain admission.

Post Office Changes.

The post office at Bossards has been discontinued. The post office formerly known as Neason has been changed to Soeven.

Broke His Arm.

James Kilgo, son of Rev. J. W. Kilgo, of this city, broke his arm Monday afternoon. It seems he fell from a fence or was pulled from it in playing. The break is said to be a bad one. Dr. Mood was summoned and set the broken bone.

There is very little cotton seen in town these days, and in a few more weeks, there will probably be none to be sold. The price appears to decline a few points every day, and those who have been holding their cotton ever since last fall expecting higher prices are, no doubt, sadly disappointed at this time.

Their promptness and their pleasant effects make DeWitt's Little Early Risers the most popular little pills wherever they are known. They are simply perfect for liver and bowel troubles.—J S Huggson & Co.

Last Wednesday night was one of the coldest nights we have had this winter. At 1 o'clock the thermometer registered 23° and about daylight the temperature had fallen to 20°. A policeman gave these figures. It must have been a pretty hard night for the officers, and they should have the sympathy of all citizens.

The lingering cough following gripe calls for One Minute Cough Cure. For all throat and lung troubles this is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Prevents consumption.—J S Huggson & Co.

The next work that the chain gang does in the vicinity of this city should be the completion of the city roadway from Shot Pouch Branch to the city limits. This work was undertaken about four and a half years ago but after a short piece of first class road had been constructed the work was discontinued and nothing more has ever been done.

Like Oliver Twist, children ask for more when given One Minute Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for gripe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough.—J S Huggson & Co.

Before work is commenced on the continuation of the macadam roadway on Main Street the telegraph and telephone poles should be removed from the middle of the street. The poles are in the way and disfigure the street as it now stands and they will be more than ever out of place in the middle of a macadamized street that is none too wide for the traffic that it must accommodate.

Headache often results from a disordered condition of the stomach and constipation of the bowels. A dose or two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct these disorders and cure the headache. Sold by Dr. A. J. China.

A few bales of cotton keep straggling in every day and are sold for the market price, which is rather low at present. Much of the cotton that is held for some time becomes very much damaged, and also loses in weight. Altogether holding cotton seems a poor business, and especially keeping it out in all kinds of weather.

Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve are liable to cause blood poisoning. Leave them alone. The original has the name DeWitt's upon the box and wrapper. It is a harmless and healing salve for skin diseases. Unequaled for piles.—J S Huggson & Co.

Health Officer Reardon warns all citizens for whom Sam McDuffie had washing, that McDuffie has a severe case of smallpox at his home and that all washing handled by McDuffie had best be disinfected. It is best for all citizens not to send any washing out in the neighborhood of the infected district outside of the city. McDuffie lives outside of the city. There is no smallpox in the city of Sumter.

Prof. Ivison, of Lonaconing, Md., suffered terribly from neuralgia of the stomach and indigestion for thirteen years and after the doctors failed to cure him they fed him on morphine. A friend advised the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and after taking a few bottles of it he says, "It has cured me entirely. I can't say too much for Kodol Dyspepsia Cure." It digests what you eat.—J S Huggson & Co.

Crosswell & Co., the wholesale grocers have an advertisement today that their old patrons will read with interest for it contains the announcement that they can buy goods from the firm at prices never before equalled in Sumter. They sell only at wholesale prices and in unbroken packages, and these prices are the very lowest the market affords.

The Mayor's court has almost gone out of business.

The advertisement of D. J. Chandler will not be hard to find, and all men should read it.

The ladies of the Jewish Lecture Hall Society will give a dinner Monday, April 1st. The place will be mentioned later.

The movement of fertilizers has been so heavy this year that the railroads have been taxed to obtain a sufficient number of cars to handle the business.

Quite a crowd went to Camden Monday to witness the game of Polo at the Camden Country Club between the Camden and Aiken teams.

Mr. Allan R. Flowers, acting for Miss Eleanor Thomson has sold her Washington Street residence to Dr. H. T. Abbott, of Bossards, who expects to remove to this city.

An unusually large turnip was found among a lot purchased by Mr. E. R. Murray. The turnip weighed 2 1/2 pounds. This is about as large as they grow.

The street forces are working today on East Liberty Street. The mud holes are being filled up with brick and dirt and the street put in a better condition. This is a timely improvement.

The foundations of the new brick stores on Main Street are being rapidly built and the walls will soon begin to rise. These stores will add greatly to the appearance of the street at this point.

The blood hounds received by the police last week, were given a trial Thursday and again Friday. They did not prove satisfactory, however, and were returned to their owner.

A woman preacher on Ryttenberg's corner created quite a sensation last Saturday. It was quite an innovation to this city. She is the wife of the preacher who has been speaking on the Court House square for the past two nights.

The dull season seems to have hit us, for things are beginning to look quiet. Our streets are not very crowded with people these days. Of course, this time has to come every spring and people are used to it.

A fakir at the Greeks' corner attracted quite a large crowd one day last week. He seemed to be selling several small articles and showed a number of good tricks with figures and other things.

Two small negro boys got into an altercation over some matter on Main Street last Wednesday and one cut the other with a knife. They were separated by a number of other negroes and went away without further trouble.

It was stated authoritatively about two months ago that the Atlantic Coast Line officials had issued orders for work to begin at once on a car shed at the passenger depot. At once seems to be a term that is capable of several meanings.

There were two very large locomotives at the depot Friday morning. They were being hauled "dead" to some point in Florida for the Southern Georgia and Florida R. R. They are to be used on the Suwanee River Route.

One reason that the macadam on Main Street is always muddy and has not given the satisfaction anticipated is because it is of such short length that wagons and buggies bring in mud on their wheels from the roads and other streets and cover the macadam with mud. When the work has been completed the streets should be in a much better condition.

A SERIOUS RUNAWAY ACCIDENT.

Phil Gaillard Receives Severe Injuries.

A serious accident occurred on Main Street about 12:30 Saturday. Phil Gaillard, a son of Capt. Philip P. Gaillard, was thrown from a wagon and received quite painful injuries. It seems the young boy was driving a one-horse wagon, loaded with several large sacks of fertilizer. The horse became frightened at something and ran. The wagon hit a telephone pole in the middle of the street in front of the Postal Telegraph Office, breaking the wagon and throwing young Gaillard off. A sack of the fertilizer, weighing probably 300 pounds fell across his body, it is said by those who were near at the time. There was, also, a large bruise on his temple. Something may have struck him or when he hit the ground it may have been caused then. He was carried into the Telegraph Office and Dr. China was called in.

The little fellow remained in an unconscious state for many hours, retaining consciousness during Sunday. His condition today, while still critical, is much improved.

See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when you ask for it. The genuine is a certain cure for piles, sores and skin diseases.—J S Huggson & Co.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children.

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad cough, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Dr. A. J. China.
