

LEVER FOR CONGRESS.

His Faithfulness to Duty Entitles Him to Re-election.
Every One Concedes that it is But Just and Proper that He Should be Given a Chance to Demonstrate His Fitness for the Place.

The Great Popularity of the "Baby Congressman" Makes Him Useful at Washington to His Constituents.

[From the Lexington Dispatch.]
 Congressman Lever announces himself in this issue as a candidate for re-election. Last year, after the hottest and fairest contest ever seen in this District, he won out by a most handsome majority. The bill redistricting the State will have little or no effect upon his chances for re-election. In the three counties of the old, now in the new, last year he had a majority something like 2,000 over one of the strongest men in the District. Only about 2,800 new votes are added to the District, out of which he will get, it is certain, a majority, for Richland and Lexington are practically one people, being bound by the closest ties of blood and trade. All other things being equal, Lexington will naturally expect a large vote from Richland, and Richland is too loyal not to give it. In Sumter and Lee, from all we can learn, his vote will be almost unanimous, and there are those who are confident that he will carry his opponent's own county.

Throughout the District everyone concedes that it is but just and proper and fair that he should be given a chance to demonstrate his fitness or usefulness for the place; and it is somewhat surprising that he should have any opposition whatever at this time, when it is considered that it is the unwritten law to give an incumbent at least two terms, especially so when that incumbent has given such universal satisfaction in the performance of his duty as Mr. Lever has. He has, by his untiring devotion to duty, gotten the affairs of the District, which had become badly out of shape during the time it was without representation, from July to December, in splendid shape and has just reached the point where he can go at his work in a systematic manner, with everything in front of him. Too, he has had his hands tied and his energies sapped by having to fight a contested election case with a negro—the contest he inherited from his predecessor. This is practically out of the way, so far as we have been able to learn. He was now to the regular legislative work, though his knowledge of the departmental work has been of incalculable service to him and the District. With all these drawbacks his record is in itself sufficient to stamp him a most active, energetic, attentive and able representative of the will of the people, who cannot reasonably ask more of him than that which he has given in the short time he has been serving them. The strong point in the young Congressman's character, is his willingness to try to do his best for the District, and he rarely fails in an undertaking if he is given a reasonable time.

He is the idol of the great mass of the people of his home county, and is each day growing more popular with those of the District by reason of his faithful, intelligent and effective services rendered the District in the short time he has been in the position to secure for it the advantages and conveniences within the province of the National government to bestow, the enjoyment of which increases the prosperity and happiness of the people, and in appreciation of his untiring zeal his native county will give him practically a solid vote, as the balance of the counties composing the District will probably do as soon as the people have an opportunity to do so.

We take pleasure in presenting the candidacy of the "Baby Congressman," as he is affectionately called, and feel sure that it will receive the almost unanimous endorsement of his fellow citizens.

Leads Them All.
 "The Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Carrin, of Loganton, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctor often arrives too late. It yields at once to one Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Sure cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. J. S. WAIL OF THE CANDIDATES.

One Tells of the "Leg Pulling" They Are Subjected To.

While the county papers are filled with the announcements of candidates, some of them having a column already of such advertising, there has been but one announcement in this county so far. A prospective candidate, who was asked to explain the seeming tardiness on the part of himself and brethren, said: "Oh, no, it is not the small amount of $5 to insert a card that is keeping us back, but it is the leg pulling on the part of the 'dear people' that immediately begins after announcement. Candidates in other counties may suffer in this respect, but I venture to say that in no county in the State is this black-mailing scheme more persistently and successfully worked than in Richland. As soon as a man announces himself for office nearly every church in the county finds itself in need of a new organ or the building needs painting or something of the sort. All of them, of course, are a little strong, but it really looks that way from the number of subscription papers that are thrust at a candidate. He cannot get out of aiding the good cause for less than $5. Then there are barbecues to be helped along during the campaign, many of which never materialize; there are schools to be helped out, and so many other things to be aided that a candidate has to have a plethoric bank account if he would keep in the good graces of these fellows, all of whom have a vote and maybe can influence others. I remember one candidate on law range whose first campaign cost him so much that in the second he never went to his office on Saturdays, in order to dodge these beggars, for Saturday was the favorite day to hold up candidates and rob them. None of us have any more money than we can conveniently handle, and that's why we are lying low. Some of us have been there before."—Columbia Record.

Wages Advanced.

Jones & Laughlin, iron and steel manufacturers, have voluntarily advanced the wages of their employees, says a Washington dispatch. The increase effects over 8,000 men and the increase will average 10 per cent. Laborers who are paid $1.35 will in the future receive $1.50 per day. The furnace employees of the Carnegie Steel Company have been advanced during the past week and it is understood that all the day laborers in the mills of this company will be treated in a similar manner as those employed by the Jones & Laughlin. The advances have been wholly on account of the general prosperous condition of the steel trade and the increased earning power of the plants.

For biliousness use Chamberlain's Stomach & Liver Tablets. They cleanse the stomach and regulate the liver and bowels, effecting a quick and permanent cure. For sale by Dr. A. J. China.

Collector of Internal Revenue.

The Washington correspondent of the Charleston Post says that another interesting development in political circles is likely to be the appointment of Ernest Cochran, the Assistant United States District Attorney, as Internal Revenue Collector, to succeed Collector Koester, whose nomination is now held up by the Senate finance committee. It is generally regarded as impossible for Koester to be confirmed and the withdrawal of his nomination by the President has been common gossip for some time. It is said that Mr. Cochran will have the endorsement of District Attorney Capers and will be the most likely candidate.

A telegraphic dispatch from Greensboro, Ala., says: "The honorary degree of doctor of divinity was conferred by the Southern University of this place upon President John L. Weber, of the Kentucky Wesleyan College, at Winchester. It was done upon the request of Bishop H. C. Morrison, who preached the commencement sermon here. Dr. Weber is one of the youngest and brainiest doctors of divinity in his church."

Dr. Weber is a native of South Carolina and a son of the Rev. S. A. Weber. He was for several years on the editorial staff of the Charleston News and Courier and was at one time school commissioner of Charleston County.

Read It in His Newspaper.

George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volkszeitung. He knows that this paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by Dr. A. J. China.

REMARKABLE SCARE.

Union People Believed a Clairvoyant's Predictions.

Union has suffered the disasters and total effects of one tornado this season, and some of the inhabitants have hardly recovered from their nervousness, for a little cloud in the sky no bigger than a man's hand seems to cause grave apprehension. According to the Progress of that city, many of the knitting mill people and others have been very much alarmed over the predictions of one Mrs. Ward, an Augusta clairvoyant. She had visited Union and gained many followers, and after she left it was stated that she had predicted a terrible storm for last Sunday. She denied making such a prophecy, but the faith that many of the people had in her occult powers was remarkable, simply the report that she had made such a prophecy throwing many people into a panic.

SAVINGS DEPARTMENT.

During the past few days countless reports were afloat about predictions that a terrible cyclone was to overtake Union on Sunday, the 15th.

At first it was said that several portions of the town were to be swept out of existence and one hundred people killed, but as the report passed from mouth to mouth the number became greater until at last it had reached three or four hundred.

Lots of people felt the whole thing was a joke, a fake, but many other took it in dead seriousness and at the knitting mill, where the cyclone on May 26 played such havoc, they prepared for it by digging storm pits. Seven have already been completed. In most instances two or three families combining to build them and later share in their safety.

The slight wind storm that came up about dusk Thursday evening caused great uneasiness, and many persons remained dressed the whole night, ready for an emergency.

Continuing, the paper says: As to what this exponent of occult science says in regard to whether or not the storm will come, we hope the people will not trust in her predictions. But there is a source from which we can get almost unending and reliable information. That is the United States weather bureau, and to them we telegraphed Saturday morning as follows:

Weather Bureau, Columbia, S. C.: Are there any indications that severe storm or cyclone will pass over Union tomorrow, Sunday? Ask bureau at Washington, if necessary, and wire answer quick, limited to fifty words.

Here is the answer received, and it is one which we thought our citizens could place confidence in, as the bureau is conducted on such a broad scientific basis, it being rarely, if ever, that their forecasts are not fulfilled: Columbia, S. C., June 14.

Editor Progress: There is a prospect of rain, but there are no indications of tornado winds, and there need be no alarm felt, on that point.

Sunday night about 8 or 9 o'clock again the next morning before day-break the wind freshened and blew at a lively rate, and while many at the knitting mill were uneasy and remained dressed but one family went to their storm pit.

Spring Fever.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. DeWitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Never grip. "I have taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years," writes R. M. Everly, Mountville, W. Va. "They do more good than anything I have ever tried." J. S. Hughson & Co.

Millennium Near at Hand.

Dr. MacArthur, preaching in the Calvary Baptist Church, New York, has declared the ushering in of the millennium to have already been partly accomplished. He predicted federation in the near future of all the nations on earth on the basis of the Golden Rule and with this country and Great Britain as the dominant factors.

"These are days," he said, "of gigantic enterprises, of large mergers and of world-wide undertakings. Many great trusts doubtless are mercenary, but there may be a 'selfless' altruistic and spiritual trust. There may be an imperialism of love which one day may dominate the world. God is raising up a love trust to offset the 'self trusts' which are menacing our civilization."

"On the basis of the Golden Rule a federation of the whole world will one day be accomplished. We are approaching such a federation today."
