In the account given of the wedding the Newberry Observer has the following to say of the newly-married couple: "Newberry has never had a wedding in which more people were sincerely interested. The bride and groom are both very popular, having numerous friends among old and young, and are highly esteemed by all who know them. The bride has lived all her life in Newberry, except the years spent at college. The groom is a native of Sumter, but has made his home in Newberry for several years and is thoroughly identified with the business life of the city, being a member of the firm of Gilder and Weeks. Many good wishes attend the happy couple."

DEATH OF MRS. SCARBOROUGH.

The following notice is from a special dispatch in the State, and tells of the death of a lady well known to the old inhabitants of Sumter as Miss Miranda Miller, a daughter of the late Col. John B. Miller, and sister of the late Dr. John I. Miller of this city.

Ridge Springs, Oct. 25.—Intelligence reached here on Sunday morning of the death of Mrs. M. E. Scarborough in Arkansas. Mrs. Scarborough was a Miss Miller, from an old Sumter county family, and relict of Mr. Wm. Scarborough of Columbia, an artist and eminent portrait painter. For a great many years Mrs. Scarborough had made her home with the late Dr. John B. DuBose and family, who married her only daughter. She was well beloved in this community, was a charitable woman, and did much to the establishing of Grace church (Episcopal) at Ridge Spring.

She was 82 years of age. Only two weeks ago Mrs. Scarborough, accompanied by her sons, went to Arkansas. She was a gentle lady of the old south.

Death of an Infant.

The infant child of Captain and Mrs. J. V. Harker, who lives just across Jeffrey's a few miles from the city died this morning. The little one will be taken to Adkins tonight for burial.—Florence Times.—Oct. 23.

The Meeting at Bartlette Street Church.

The meeting that has been carried on in during the past two weeks at Bartlette street church by Dr. H. P. Fitch, State Evangelist, closed last Friday evening.

It was a most successful revival. The church was in most through accord with the good doctor, and during the meeting last night he took occasion to say that in all his previous evangelistic work he had never had more satisfactory congregations. Of course he refers to behavior and interest. He said that not a solitary incident occurred that jarred on his feelings or marred the solemnity of the services during the two weeks of his work.

Twenty-two candidates for baptism and membership had been received up to Friday night, at which time several others, presented themselves. It is thought the accessions to the church will be between twenty-five and thirty. The church was comfortably filled at every night service and at times crowded, and Dr. Fitch carries with him from Sumter, loving good will from many breasts. His work here will live for years in the hearts and memories of the members of Bartlette street church, and more especially of those who have been brought to a knowledge of Saving Grace through his instrumentality. W. F. Rhame.

The Meeting at the First Methodist Church.

For the Item: With last evening's service closed a series of meetings at the First Methodist Church, which has been conducted there both afternoon and evening for the last two weeks.

Bro. Brunson from Manning who is a fluent and earnest speaker, preached the word of God, and the interest taken was shown by the large and appreciative congregations which assembled at each meeting daily. The gentle wooings of the Holy Spirit were manifested by the large number who went to the altar for prayer, saying by that act that they wanted to know Christ, and to live the life of peace, joy and gladness, which is known only to those who live close to Jesus.

Between twenty-five and thirty young people and children were received in full connection with the church. Quite a number confessed Christ, and we trust that every heart was awakened and filled with an earnest desire for a truer, sweeter life.

Our own faithful pastor, I am sure, has been encouraged and abundantly blessed. We hope that the good influence began in the hearts and lives of our people will grow and live throughout all Eternity. October 26. A Methodist.

MAYOR'S COURT.

The Mayors' court on Monday again tussled with the problem—who struck Julius Wilson. There can be no question that Julius was struck and struck hard unless he fell down and stepped on his eye.

On Saturday night 10th inst., Julius started up Main street in company with Wilson Newman. At the corner of Hampton Avenue he suddenly fell to the sidewalk and was taken up bleeding and insensible. From that time his left eye has been sightless. William Newman promptly reported that Sam Franklin had done the deed. There was bad blood between Franklin and Wilson. Franklin had promised to get satisfaction. There were other negroes around, but none of them would testify against Franklin who had half a dozen friends to prove an alibi. There was some corroboration of Newman's statements, and the general belief is that his story is true in every respect. The alibi theory was strongly sustained and created the "reasonable doubt" of the law which warranted acquittal. This is the second man tried and acquitted of this serious assault, committed under light of an electric lamp on Main street, in the presence of several witnesses. It is a good illustration of the extreme difficulty of getting at facts through webs of falsehood woven by ready perjurers. Likewise a fair example of truth and right among the average citizens of the African gender.

An Appeal to the Law-Abiding.

As the hunting season is now about to open, we feel constrained to ask of every law-abiding citizen of both town and country to put forth every effort to suppress the unlawful selling of quail.

It is a well-known fact that if the game law is not rigidly enforced, the time is near at hand when we will have none of the birds left. Whereas if they are only killed for home consumption, there remains for us and posterity, not only the source of the sportsman's keenest pleasure, but an appetizing luxury for the working man and all.

Needless to say that heretofore there has been a great deal of this lawlessness in this section of the state; and now we would appeal especially to the land-owners to do all in their power to prevent it,—and also do we urge our worthy policemen that they keep their eyes ever open for the apprehension of such narrow minded illegality. E.

The Sumter Transfer Co.

Mr. C. W. Hayes who has conducted a general transfer sale and feed stable here for a couple of years has sold out to a new concern by the name of The Sumter Transfer Co., who have considerably enlarged and added to the present business.

E. A. Edwards and E. A. Jenkins two energetic and hustling young men are proprietors of the new concern.

The improvement of Main street is progressing satisfactorily and we shall soon have a first class roadway from the railroad to the city limits, a distance of about a mile and three quarters.

A New Negro Paper.

The Defender, a seven column four page paper, published in the interest of the colored people of South Carolina, made its appearance on the 15th instant. It is published by the Defender Publishing Co., of this city, and W. T. Andrews, for a number of years principal of the Lincoln School, has charge as editor and manager. The paper should succeed, if the colored people extend to it the proper support, for it is well edited and begins with a liberal advertising patronage from the business men of this city.

Dispensary Profits Divided.

The County Board of Control at their meeting Monday divided $1,940 of dispensary profits as follows: City of Sumter, $871.01. Mayesville, 98.98. County of Sumter, 970.00.

Cotton Fluctuating.

Futures are reported to be lower today, and consequently prices are quoted about 15 points off from yesterday's prices, although sales have been made today at 10 cents, the same as yesterday.

The train going to Columbia this morning was crowded with people supposed to be going to the fair.

When you want something nice in the confectionery line go to the Greeks and ask Mr. George for Vanilla Alakuma. He makes it and it is fresh and good.

Parents should give careful attention to the proper protection of the feet of their children, as well as their own. Something of interest in this line will be found in the advertisement today of D. J. Chandler.

People who have wood to sell find ready sale, and the demand is hard to supply. The lumber mill which usually sells quantities of blocks, has not been sawing lately and has sold out all its stock of firewood.

At the Bartlette Street Baptist Church Monday night 20 persons were baptised who have united themselves with the church during the revival meeting conducted by the Rev. Mr. Fitch, and which closed on last Friday night.

Attention of visitors to the Fair is directed to the notice of special trains by the Coast Line and Southern Railway on the 28th and 29th (Wednesday and Thursday).

Train on Coast Line leaves at 9.10 and returning arrives at 9.30. On Southern, train leaves Sumter at 7.00 and returning arrives at 10.10.
