ANOTHER OIL MILL. A Proposition From Outside Capitalists to Furnish Half the Money for a Big Mill. A movement to establish another cotton oil mill in this city is well under way and if the business men of Sumter will do their part the mill will be built at an early day. Mr. Ben H. Harvin of Clarendon county has been in the city for two days in the interest of the proposed mill and has succeeded in interesting several of our substantial business men in the enterprise. A meeting was held Monday night at which the plans were informally discussed and it was decided to hold another meeting yesterday at which a larger number of those likely to be interested could be present. A meeting was accordingly held in the Court House at 12.30 o'clock. Mr. Harvin laid his plans before the meeting which were, briefly stated, that a cotton oil mill company be organized with a capital of $40,000 of which the business men of Sumter should subscribe one half, the other half to be provided by outside capitalists. The proposition was favorably received by those present and $8,000 in subscription were made on the spot. A committee was selected to canvass for and receive subscriptions and this committee will go to work at once. It is hoped that the necessary stock will be subscribed without delay so that it will be decided within a few days whether or not Sumter is to have another oil mill located here. Hunt's Round Pointed Pens for sale at Osteen's Book Store.	In Memoriam. In loving remembrance of Mrs. Eliza West Hammett, who departed this life, one year ago, July 29th, 1903, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Venetia Auld, in Sumter, S. C. The deceased was a daughter of Joseph West, Esqr., and was born on the 27th of April, 1823, so that at the time of her death, she was in her 81st year. In 1844 she was united in marriage with Mr. William Hammett who laid down his life in the battle of Seven Pines, May 31st, 1862, a gallant Confederate soldier fighting for his country. By this afflictive dispensation, she was left a needy widow, with eight helpless children, for whose maintenance and education she toiled day and night, although frail in body and of feeble health. Two of them preceded her to the grave; the remaining four sons and two daughters survive her. In 1853 she professed faith in Jesus Christ, was baptized and received into the Presbyterian church, in which she continued a communicant until her death, about half a century. Amid the many trials of life, the failure of health, and the approach of death, she still declared that her reliance was in Jesus Christ, her Saviour, and His sweet words are, "Him that cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out." "Her children rise up, and call her blessed." Mr. John T. Green has sold his residence on West Hampton Avenue and will build on Broad street in the near future.	County Democratic Executive Committee. The County Democratic Executive Committee met Saturday at 11 o'clock. They are requested to send to Secretary list of managers at once. The assessment of candidates for Magistrates was reduced to $2.50. All bills were audited and paid from funds on hand. It was resolved to pay the managers who serve, $1 each per day for one days service at each primary. The complete list of managers will be advertised in each of the county papers two weeks before the primary. Prospective candidates will do well to remember that the pledges and assessments must be in the hands of the County Chairman on or before 12 o'clock, Aug. 11th, and they should preserve the published list of campaign meetings.
