CUTTING—ACHURCH.

A Pretty Marriage Ceremony at the First Baptist Church.

Friday evening at 8 o'clock, at the First Baptist Church, Miss Julia Agnes Cuttino and Mr. Robert W. Achurch, of Charleston, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. C. C. Brown officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated with white cut flowers artistically arranged on a background of evergreens, and in the pulpit were numerous potted plants. The color effect produced by the combination of the white and green was very attractive, and was greatly admired.

Mrs. Lucy Rogers presiding at the organ and accompanied by Miss Isadore Teicher, on the violin, rendered splendid selections before, during and after the ceremony. Promptly at the appointed hour, as the peals of the wedding march broke forth, the bridal party entered the church.

First came the flower girls, little Misses Inez Cuttino and Anna Sanders, who were followed by the ushers, Messrs. B. J. Rhame, George Tindal T. C. Cuttino and W. H. Cuttino. Next came the matron of honor, Mrs. A. L. Lesesne, who carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. Then the bride, beautifully attired in a white taffata, carrying a bouquet of bride's roses and wearing the customary veil caught up with a spray of lilies of the valley, entered the church on the arm of her brother, Mr. D. W. Cuttino. From the other entrance of the church, accompanied by his best man, Mr. W. Porter Cart, came the groom, who met the bride at the altar, and while the soft, sweet strains of the music filled the church, the marriage rites were solemnized.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. William H. Cuttino, at No. 306 South Sumter street, which was attended by the relatives and a few intimate friends of the bridal couple, among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. Stephens Thomas, and Mr. Stephen Thomas, Jr., of Charleston; Mrs. W. Scott Harvin, of Manning; Mr. W. Porter Cart, of Charleston; Mrs. James E. Tindal, Mr. Geo. Tindal, Mr. T. H. Connors, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lesesne, of Clarendon.

Mr. and Mrs. Achurch left on the 9:20 train for St. Louis, where they will remain for two weeks, before returning to Charleston, which place will be their future home.

Numerous pieces of cut glass and elegant silver were among the presents received by the bride, which gave evidence of her great popularity. Sumter is unfortunate in losing such an attractive daughter.

MURDER IN DARLINGTON COUNTY.

Two Negroes Waylay and Kill a White Man—Both Negroes Arrested.

Friday afternoon or night Hill Langston, a white farmer of the Lydia section of Darlington county was waylaid by Sam Marks, a negro, and assaulted with a piece of iron. Langston was struck on the head and so seriously injured that he died Sunday morning. Marks was chased with bloodhounds and captured Saturday afternoon. He was carried to jail in Darlington Saturday night, but as there had been some talk of lynching Sheriff G. P. Scarborough, telegraphed Gov. Heyward and asked that the Darlington Guards be ordered out to guard the jail. Gov. Heyward directed Capt. Cox to assemble his company at the armory and carry out Sheriff Scarborough's orders.

There was no effort to lynch the prisoner but to avoid any possibility of trouble Sheriff Scarborough took Marks from the jail about midnight and drove to Florence where he caught the early morning train and came to this city arriving about 4 o'clock Sunday morning. He remained here until the arrival of the 9:45 train and then carried Marks to Columbia, where he was committed to jail.

The coroner's inquest which was held yesterday, implicated Moses Ham, another negro, in the murder of Mr. Langston and he has been arrested.

Read the large ad. of The Sumter Dry Goods Co. This being their 9th fall announcement, they seem determined, judging by the proportions of their stock and the every day hurry throughout their large establishment, to make this their red letter year in merchandising. They invite you to take a stroll through their store, which you may do well to accept.

Peter Larkin, colored was arrested Monday for creating a disturbance in the vicinity of the dispensary.

The receipts of cotton last week indicate that Sumter is still a pretty good market—about the best in the State, all things considered.

The Little Sunbeams Society of the Presbyterian Church will serve ice cream and cake on the Graded School grounds this afternoon from 6 until 7 p. m.

The Independent Cotton Seed Oil Company's plant, at Davis Station, was destroyed by fire Monday, about 2 o'clock. It is partly covered by insurance. It is thought that the mill will be rebuilt.

In the Recorder's Court, James Williams was found guilty of disorderly conduct for fighting and cursing in Ricker Lane, and was fined 10 dollars.

There has recently been more complaint than usual by farmers at the delay in weighing cotton. The novelty has worn off and there seems to be a growing dissatisfaction with the public weighing plan as at present operated.

Mr. F. C. Hyman, who has represented Alex Sprunt & Son, of Wilmington, N. C., on this market for a number of years did something out of the ordinary Monday. He shipped six car loads of cotton by express to Wilmington. It is not an unheard of thing to send cotton by express, but it is rarely done.
