AFTER LYNCHERS. Five Arrests Have Been Made On Account of Eutawville Lynching.

One Man Turns State's Evidence and is Being Held in the State Penitentiary. Columbia, Oct. 19.—According to a telegram received from Charleston this morning by The Record, a number of special deputies have been hurried to Eutawville, in Berkeley county, to make several arrests in connection with the lynching which took place last June. Whether the men will be found, now that a considerable portion of the plans of Solicitor Hildebrand have been made public, is not known, but the fact is now made public that ever since the lynching there have been investigations going on to find out those who took part in the affair and a Pinkerton detective has been employed to find out the evidence to convict, as Solicitor Hildebrand has already stated that he knew those who took part. The affair has reached a climax in the bringing to the penitentiary of Henry C. Edwards, who is thought to have a hand in the lynching, and is now willing to turn state's evidence.

The governor, when asked about an account sent from Orangeburg this morning, had absolutely nothing to say about the arrests or his knowledge of the affair. The account of the arrest is as follows: It has been known to not a few that the investigation into the Eutawville lynching affair had not been permitted to drop and that all reasonable efforts in a proper way were being made to secure the necessary evidence against the perpetrators of the crime. During the inquest sufficient facts were brought out to cast suspicion on certain parties, but it was not sufficiently definite or positive to justify an arrest.

Solicitor Hildebrand made a full report to the governor and detectives were employed in the case. The solicitor has kept in close touch with the course of the investigation, and it has been carried on under his immediate direction and supervision. He has not disclosed the developments except to the proper legal authorities, and he has especially expressed the wish that even the fact that investigations were being carried on be not published in the newspapers. Solicitor Hildebrand went up to Columbia on Sunday night in connection with this matter, but he was in Orangeburg yesterday and stated to your correspondent that he had nothing to give out for publication as yet. He had gone down to some point in Berkeley county today and promised upon his return to give out certain information that may prove of considerable public interest.

This much is known here outside of information from the solicitor, that the principal search has been to find the young white man, Henry C. Edwards, who had the fight with the negro, Keith Bookhart, a few days before the latter's death, and who had the negro arrested. Edwards left Eatawville soon after the body of the negro was found in the Santee river. He was looted several days ago at Dunbar and came to this county from that neighborhood. Edwards has some good family connections in this county and it was thought that he could throw considerable light on the affair. Last Sunday Edwards was closeted for some time in Solicitor Hildebrand's office, in this city, with the solicitor and the Pinkerton detective who has been at work in the matter. The three went together to Columbia on Sunday night and probably conferred with the governor. It is learned that Edwards will be held as a material witness against certain parties, and that he has made certain statements of a damaging character against certain parties. It is not the idea here that Edwards had anything himself to do with killing the negro, but the rumor is that Edwards was aware of the plot to kill the negro and knows who went out that night on the mission of death to the negro prisoner in the guard house.

It is supposed here, with strong reason for believing the supposition well founded, that the arrest of several white men can now be made, and that Solicitor Hildebrand's trip today to the low country is for the purpose of putting the machinery of the law into motion that will result in the arrest of several parties. These arrests will very probably take place either today or tomorrow.

FIVE UNDER ARREST. Holly Hill, Oct. 19.—Five men are under arrest, their names being Penney, Banny, Martin, Palmer, Edens and Botler. They will be brought to Columbia tonight by Sheriff Morrison. —Columbia Record.

Columbia, Oct. 20.—Another of the men indicted on the charge of lynching at Eutawville will arrive in the city tomorrow, according to a telegram received by the governor this morning. The message was from L. A. Martin, who is a brother of Ben Martin, now in the penitentiary, and simply stated that he would be here tomorrow. The message was from Meggetts, near Young's Island, and Sheriff Morrisonsaid today that Martin had gone there after the lynching. The message indicated that Martin was coming of this own accord. Messrs. R. W. Haynes and E. J. Dennis arrived in the city this morning and have conferred with the men under arrest at the penitentiary. Booths of these gentlemen are attorneys of prominence in the lower part of the state and will represent the men. It is not known yet whether they will apply for bail or not and neither would discuss the matter now. Three steps are open to them—they can make application before any judge for habeas corpus proceedings, or they can demand a preliminary, or they can let the men remain in jail until the trial. It is thought that they will at once apply for bail and if this is done the partial case of the state against them as well as their defense will be brought out. If it is granted, it is understood that there will be no difficulty in furnishing the amount.

Charleston, Oct. 20.—Linda Davis, colored, died suddenly this morning at her room, No. 14 Charlotte street, as at result of having jumped out of a second story window when pursued by a man, said to have been her husband. The exact cause of her death will be determined at the inquest.

THE HOUSE OF DEPUTIES ADOPT COMPROMISE AGAIN.

If the Bishops Concur the Divorce Matter Will Be Settled for Three Years.

Boston, Oct. 2.—By an overwhelming majority a compromise canon on the remarriage of divorced persons was adopted by the house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention today and if it is concurred in by the house of bishops, the most important issue that has come before the present convention will be disposed of for at least three years. The committee's compromise measure, like the old law, permits the remarriage of the innocent person in a divorce for the cause of infidelity, but further provides that no remarriage shall be allowed within one year after a decree has been issued by a civil court. Satisfactory proof of the innocence of the applicant for remarriage must be furnished in the shape of court records and after the consent of the bishop is obtained a clergyman may refuse to perform such a ceremony without subjecting himself to censure or discipline.

In the opinion of Francis A. Lewis of Philadelphia, a member of the committee on canons who favored no remarriage of any divorced person, but who accepted the compromise, the canon adopted today is so strict that if endorsed by the bishops it will practically put the church, as he expressed it, "out of the divorce business." Others, however, claimed that they saw "loopholes" in it. The vote on the passage stood: Clerical, 52 dioceses for, 46 dioceses two divided; lay vote, seven against, two divided; and two divided.

The house of bishops today nominated Rev. Henry A. Aves of Houston, Texas, for missionary bishop of Mexico, to have supervision over English speaking congregations in that country. A two days' session of the national council of the clerical union for the maintenance and defense of catholic principles, a high church organization, was opened with solemn vespers at the Church of the Advent tonight. Bishop Isaac Lee Nicholson of Milwaukee, president of the union, officiated.

BOODLE ALDERMAN IN AIKEN.

Aiken, Oct. 19.—The grand jury returned their findings this afternoon upon the indictments against Alderman L. M. C. Oliveros. There are two indictments—one containing charges as preferred in the affidavit of J. M. Richardson as to the purchase of a lot from the city of Aiken, and the other charging Mr. Oliveros with accepting bribes from city officials to use his influence to have their salaries raised.

No bill against Oliveros was returned as to the Richardson matter, and a true bill was returned as to the police matter. In a separate report the grand jury recommended that Wesley Johnson, superintendent of streets; James H. Cadden, Chief Doby, J. S. Black, J. H. Kennedy and James Weatherford be indicted for bribing an officer, to wit: Alderman Oliveros, to vote to increase salaries, and that the above mentioned had so sworn before the grand jury, that the money had actually been paid. The men named are policemen and ex-policemen.

Your correspondent has interviewed Solicitor Davis on the matter and he states that the statute under which this prosecution is brought makes the foregoing officers who informed upon Mr. Oliveros immune from punishment.

The special recommendation of the grand jury will have to be disregarded. —The State.

A Hot Supper will be given at the home of Mr. W. H. Jennings Jr., on the evening of Friday October 28th, for the benefit of St. James Church.

The people in this city who first "got acquainted through a want advertisement" would make a pretty big crowd. The horse show of the Forepaugh and Sells Brothers exhibition deserves more than passing mention. It has possibly the most numerous and magnificent collection of its kind, in which the most noted, noblest and most beautiful breeds are conspicuous. Many of them, too, have been taught to perform the most intricate, and dainty feats, including the genuine cakewalk, which the New York press pronounced incomparable.

HAMPTON MONUMENT. Sculptor Appeared Before the Commission.

Design Will Be Thirty Feet in Height and Be of Manganese Bronze.

The Hampton monument commission held a meeting to confer with Mr. F. Wellington Ruckstahl, the sculptor selected to do the work on the monument. The commission has on hand nearly enough money for the work, and it is expected that the balance will be raised in the time taken to do the work, which will be two years or more. The statement submitted by Senator Marshall, the secretary of the commission, was as follows, showing the amount of money deposited or in sight: Carolina Bank, $1,851.12 Loan and Exchange Bank, 1,016.21 Palmetto Bank, 1,184.61 Bank of Darlington, 1,000.00 Sumter Bank, 304.85 In hand of Mrs. Waring, for D. of C., 1,192.85 In hands of Mrs. Stoney, 500.00 Total, $8,346.68 To this is to be added the $20,000 given by the general assembly.

Mr. Ruckstahl appeared before the commission and asked that he be given time for the work. He will make the model for an equestrian statue, which will be shown the commission in the next few weeks, and while this will not adequately display the beauty of the work, it will give the members of the commission an idea as to its scope. The statue will be of bronze, about thirty feet in height, and the work will be done in Paris, where the sculptor can have all of the time he wishes to work without interruption. As soon as the model is examined by the commission he will at once go to Paris and there commence work, which will take about two years.

Mr. Ruckstahl wishes to be a member of the French Legion of Honor, and in the past two years he has advanced several points in the contest, so that he promises to make his work of his lifetime. He is already a leading member and officer in all of the American art societies.—Columbia Record.
