WEDDED IN PARIS.

Miss Laura Mood and Mr. Andrew Schneider Married in St. Luke's Church.

Miss Laura Mood, the second daughter of Dr. J. A. Mood, who has been residing in Paris for the past two years for the purpose of completing her musical education, was married to Mr. Andrew Schneider, of that city, on Thursday morning, June 15.

The following brief account of the marriage is taken from a letter received by Dr. Mood from a friend of the bride who witnessed the ceremony:

"The civil and church marriages took place this morning in beautiful weather. She was to have been married next Saturday, but Mr. Van Winkle, the American chaplain at the little St. Luke's church here, found he had to go to Switzerland and wished to perform the church ceremony himself before going for a fortnight's duty at Lucerne.

The civil marriage at the Mairie—town hall—before the mayor was very soon got through, after once the bride and bridegroom and their four witnesses had filled up several papers. The Rev. Dr. Stoddard (American) and Mrs. Van Winkle were Laura's witnesses and two American ladies, Herr Schneider, as his friend, Mr. Pattee—the head of the firm he is in—had to come in from his country chateau last night too late to fill in a paper to be sent to the mayor.

After that was over we went to St. Luke's. Dr. Stoddard took Laura into the church, "gave her away" and Mr. Pattee was Mr. Schneider's best man. Mr. Van Winkle officiated as clergyman. There were several of their friends in church but not half as many as there would have been next Saturday, as there was not time enough to let all know.

There were beautiful white flowers on the altar, which had kindly been arranged by the young Miss Van Winkles and which they afterwards sent up to Laura's home.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Winkle had a splendid lunch at their home for Mr. Schneider and Laura, also inviting Mr. Pattee and myself. The health of the bride and bridegroom was proposed by our host, also a toast to all absent friends.

I forgot to say that Laura looked very pretty in a big hat and traveling costume. She received many bouquets of magnificent flowers and some very pretty and useful presents."

Supervisor Seale complains that the traction engines which some of the lumber mills are now using are damaging the bridges on the public roads, making frequent repairs necessary.

A Coming Marriage.

Dr. and Mrs. William M. Bradley, of Mayesville, have issued invitations to the marriage of their sister, Miss Annie Freeland, and Mr. Trabue Barksdale, of Wilmington, N. C., on June 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Barksdale will be at home to their friends after July 10th at the Hotel Sumter.

DEATH.

Miss Carrie Turner died suddenly at her home in Charleston Tuesday. She was the aunt of Miss Mary Hughson and Mrs. John T. Green, of this city, and having frequently visited them had many friends here who will hear of her unexpected demise with sincere regret.

Court Expenses.

The expense accounts for the regular April term of the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions and the special May term of the Court of Common Pleas have been audited and check issued for their payment by the County Supervisor. The April term cost the county $1,176.70 and the special May term $574.55. The regular July term which will convene next week will cost, it is estimated, about $2,000.

Magistrate's Court.

Magistrate Harby, Friday, on motion of L. D. Jennings, Esq., attorney for the Osteen Publishing Company, set aside the verdict in the case of Osteen Publishing Co., vs. T. M. Bradley, and ordered a new trial, on the ground that the verdict for the defendant, T. M. Bradley, was not warranted by the evidence.

Omitted.

We have received a well written account of a marriage that is said to have taken place a few days ago in a neighboring county.

The author neglected to acquaint us with his or her name, consequently we are unable to publish the article, our rule being to publish no anonymous article.

GOES TO CHARLOTTE.

Mr. Perry Moses, Jr., left on Monday for Charlotte, N. C., to enter upon the discharge of his duties as assistant to Mr. D. A. Tompkins, who is president and owner of the D. A. Tompkins Co., the largest cotton mill and machinery supply house in the South. The position is a very important one and it is a high compliment to Mr. Moses that it was tendered him. He is a graduate of the Georgia School of Technology and since leaving school has demonstrated his ability in his chosen line of work by making a success of every undertaking with which he has been associated. Mr. Moses will retain his interests in his business here and will divide his time between Charlotte and Sumter. His family left on Monday for Hendersonville to spend the summer, and until fall he will decide whether he will make his home in Charlotte or remain here.

SUMTER COTTON WAREHOUSE CO.

At a meeting of the bankers and leading business men held at the Bank of Sumter Monday preliminary steps toward the organization of the Sumter Cotton Warehouse Company were taken.

It was decided to organize with an authorized capital of $40,000, and those present subscribed for $10,500.

Mr. R. I. Manning, who was made chairman of the meeting, was authorized to appoint a committee to make a canvass of the city for subscriptions to the stock. This committee will be appointed and will begin the canvass at once. He was directed to appoint a committee to serve as a board of corporators and to proceed without delay to obtain a charter.

It was decided to erect a standard brick warehouse with a capacity of 5,000 bales at once, and later to erect additional warehouses of the same storage capacity.

It is the purpose of those interested in the enterprise to conduct it on a business basis that will make it attractive and profitable to the farmers who desire to store their cotton. The warehouse charges, including storage and insurance, will be low and arrangements will be made to lend money on the warehouse receipts at a reasonable rate of interest. Every phase of the enterprise has been carefully investigated and is believed that it will pay satisfactory dividends on the investment, and at the same time be of immediate benefit to Sumter as a cotton market and business centre.

The lady friends of our justly popular Second Regiment Band have arranged a great treat for all in the shape of an ice cream festival and concert to be given on Graded School Square, Thursday evening June 29th. The band will give several of its best selections and in addition there will be a number of "vocal solos" by well known local talent. Come, one, come all and remember that besides enjoying yourselves, you will be helping the boys along, as the entire proceeds go to the band.

Parents Should Know

THIS WE TELL YOU.

Immediate, timely attention may save your child much misery and yourself future regret.

If your child's eyes require the services of a surgeon, we will frankly tell you so.
