 ... Constable Rainey
 ... ed the life of the prisoner. The negro
 ... was stowed away in the cell in an out-
 ... building which was carefully guarded
 ... until the crowd could be dispersed.
 ... Lynching the negro was the intent of
 ... the crowd which had gathered. Seven
 ... double barreled beach-loading shot-
 ... guns were in the hands of determined
 ... men. The negro could not be found
 ... and the men were appealed to by the
 ... magistrate to allow the law to take
 ... its course, as he was in safe hands
 ... and his escape was impossible. While
 ... the crowd was being talked to, Con-
 ... stable Rainey, with the negro securely
 ... bound, made his way unseen from the
 ... premises, and under cover of thick
 ... woods, brought the man safely to Tay-
 ... lor's just in time to catch No. 39,
 ... which was a few minutes late. He
 ... notified Sheriff Gilreath to meet him
 ... at the depot upon his arrival, which
 ... was done, and the negro was almost
 ... miraculously saved from the crowd
 ... bent on nothing less than lynching
 ... him and lodged safely in the county
 ... jail.

When seen at the county jail, Thompson denied his guilt, although he said he was in the neighborhood. He was sulky and had little to say. He said he was the wrong negro, although "the lady says I'm the man and I reckon I am gone." He is 35 years old and is a heavy built, stout fellow. There is little wonder the frail woman was unable to beat him off. He will engage counsel. He has lived on the Freeman farm for 17 years, and it is said he is a peaceable negro when not drinking. He has a family.—The State.
