BRYAN FOR PRESIDENT.

Josephus Daniels Thinks He Will Be Democratic Choice in 1908.

Josephus Daniels, editor of the Raleigh News and Observer, one of the leading papers of North Carolina, was seen at the Raleigh last evening. Mr. Daniels is now serving his fourth term as a member of the Democratic National committee, and no man is more thoroughly in touch with the Democratic masses of the South. In conversation with a Post reporter in Washington, Mr. Daniels said:

"I believe that W. J. Bryan will be the nominee of a united Democracy in 1908. There is no shade of doubt that our State will be for him. The whole drift of public sentiment, as shown in the railway rate bill and the insurance investigation, is a vindication of Mr. Bryan's position in 1896, when the big insurance companies were pouring out money for the Republican nominees. Bryan made the charge then that they were doing it, but he did not, at that time, impress the public, because the scandals had not been uncovered. The agitation for railroad rate legislation, now championed by the president, is exactly along the line Bryan advocated in 1896.

"In North Carolina the people look to see Mr. Bryan lead a winning fight in 1908, and he would undoubtedly lead the ticket were the convention to be held this year. No other man in the party has grown as much as the Nebraskan in the confidence of the thoughtful people of America.

"The chief source of Roosevelt's popularity grows out of his advocacy of doctrines which he condemned Bryan for preaching, and the president must himself realize that his only hope of securing the legislation he favors is in Democratic cooperation. In describing the true paternity of the railway rate bill it should be called the Bryan-Roosevelt measure."

Just a Word for Mother.

Nobody earns his or her livelihood more honorably or more directly than the wife and mother of a family who does her duty. She is her husband's business partner in a phase of his life which is at least as vital to his interests as the outside one by which he makes his money under the eye of the world. If the couple are partners in a poor and struggling concern, the wife contributes as much to the general success by the work of her hands as the man does by his; if they are more fortunate, and prosperous, the woman's busy brain contriving and ruling in the household is earning by earnest, eager, expert and honorable exertion as good a livelihood as the husband is able to provide her with. The law holds good in the realms of wealth and luxury. The woman who creates and maintains an eminent social position for her family is likely to be her husband's most important ally, and her share of all the benefits that they enjoy in common is not a mere gratuity it does not come to her from her husband's bounty; it is her compensation for the services she does in advancing the interests of the alliance.—New York Sun.

*Mothers everywhere praise One Minute Cough Cure for the sufferings it has relieved and the lives of their little ones it has saved. A certain cure for coughs, croup and whooping cough. Makes breathing easy, cuts out phlegm, and draws out the inflammation. It should be kept on hand for immediate use. Sold by all druggists.

A curious case has recently been decided in the supreme court of North Carolina. A dispensary has been established in a town in the State and the act under which it was operated provided that all profits therefrom should go into the town treasury. But in response to popular demand from the county the act was so amended as to provide that one-half of the profits of all such dispensaries should be paid over to the county treasurer to be used in improving the public roads. The citizens of the town in question were up in arms against the amendment and the authorities forbade the town treasurer to pay any money received from the dispensary to the county treasurer. The case finally went to the supreme court and was decided in favor of the county. The county paper in commenting on the decision says that it is reasonable to presume that the people of the county purchase half the liquor sold by the dispensary, and that as the whole county has to bear the expense of criminal prosecutions resulting from the sale of liquor it is but fair that the county should receive half the profits. That seems to be good logic, if it is not good law.—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

*One would think the laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for coughs and colds would be to move the bowels and clear the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the original laxative cough syrup, the best known remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, etc. It's safe and harmless. Sold by all druggists.

LEE'S AUDITOR REPORTED

For Violating Law 'as to Request Blanks—Said Old Custom Was Good Enough.

Columbia, March 20.—The state board of dispensary directors held an important regular meeting today, the work to be continued at another session to be held this afternoon.

The most important action taken this morning was against the auditor of Lee county, the county board of dispensary control there reporting the auditor to the state board as refusing to carry out the demands of the state board with regard to request blanks. According to the county board the auditor did not complain that he did not have sufficient office force, but simply took the stand that the old way was as good as any, the new state board to the contrary. The clerk was instructed to report the auditor to the governor for violating the law.

The board has not yet reached the matter of the legality of the purchase of the $600,000 worth of stock inherited from the former board, which it resolved at the previous meeting to have an attorney investigate. No attorney has been employed yet and radical action cannot be taken at the present meeting.

What a Newspaper Does.

Speaking of what a newspaper does for a community, United States Senator David Davis, of Illinois, made an address that remains ever green in the memory of newspaper men. He said: "Every year each local paper gives from 500 to 5,000 free lines for the benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The editor in proportion to his means does more for his own town than any other man. He ought to be supported not because you happen to like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can have. It may not be crowded with great thought, but financially, it is of more benefit than both preacher and teacher. Today editors do more for less pay than any other men on earth. Patronize your home paper not as a charity, but as an investment.—Exchange.

Mr. Roosevelt's Candidacy.

Washington dispatches go so far in referring to the possibility that President Roosevelt will be a candidate to succeed himself as to say that Gen. Charles Grosvenor openly proclaims that such would be the case, immediately following a prolonged conference at the White House.

As a result, the question of whether or not Mr. Roosevelt will head the Republican ticket at the next Presidential election, has taken hold upon the public interest and the consensus of opinion seems to be that he will. In support of this idea it is pointed out that he has by degrees gotten rid of all McKinley office holders in the South; has by degrees obtained control of various state "machines," those of New York and Pennsylvania among the number; that as Secretary Taft would be his most formidable opponent, it would be asking too great a sacrifice of that gentleman to permit himself merely to be "shelved" on the supreme bench, and that, therefore, he will be made Chief Justice; and that finally a whirlwind movement will be inaugurated for his nomination, "throwing George Washington's farewell address and precedent to the winds."—Augusta Chronicle.

Does Advertising Pay?

Well, we guess it does or a great deal of money is being thrown away each day, each week, each month and each year.

The wise merchant, no matter how small a business he is conducting, increases his business each year by advertising in local papers. Advertising is a wonderful thing, and the more a person studies it the more they become puzzled as to the wonderful results it accomplishes year in and year out.

Keep your goods and your name before the eye of the public and if you cannot sell the goods its not the newspaper's fault. No, the fault is bound to "lie" in the goods or in the salesman. A newspaper advertisement will not sell the goods for the merchant, but we will guarantee that it will bring the people to his store which gives him a chance to sell to them the goods advertised.

Torture by Savages.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures liver complaint, dyspepsia, blood disorders and all other ailments of the system. Sold by all druggists.

WHITE SERVANT PROBLEM.

Commissioner Watson's Efforts Have Not Been Successful So Far. But He is Working on Another Plan Now.

Columbia, March 19.—Mr. P. Jurgensen of the North German Lloyds, who was here today on a trip through the South appointing local agents for his steamship company expressed the opinion to this correspondent that the solution of both the immigration and the servant problem in the South lies in giving the proper encouragement to a good class of immigrants to come into the cities and towns and work as servants.

He denied that the experiments tried at several points in North Carolina and at the winter resorts in South Carolina had proved failures, and said that his long experience in dealing with immigrants to the Northwest had demonstrated the necessity of this way of handling the newcomers, and he accounted for the fact that the work of bringing immigrants into the South was meeting with slow and otherwise poor success by pointing to the way the immigrants are handled after they get here: He said that the immigrants had no objection to working in the same community where negroes are employed as servants.

After Mr. Jurgensen had seen Immigration Commissioner Watson, however, he changed his view in many respects. Mr. Watson went over the situation with him carefully and showed him that the only way to bring immigrants into the South so they will stay is by the colonization plan, instancing a number of cases in which the newcomers had become dissatisfied and gone away, and pointing out the wonderful possibilities of trucking in this section so favored over the Northwest by climate.

The demands upon Mr. Watson's office from every part of the State for servants has been steadily growing, but so far he has not been able to meet it in any adequate manner, though he has placed a few servants here and there.

"We think we will have much of this servant evil cured in six months though," Commissioner Watson said, "through a scheme we have blocked out and are about to put into operation. Mr. Herbert sails from New York on the 24th for Glasgow and will work in the north of Ireland section where the people have not been used to high wages. These immigrants, in families, as far as possible, will be passed at Ellis Island and put right aboard a Clyde steamer for Charleston being ticketed straight through to Columbia, where they will be distributed near the towns so that the girls who will work in the families will be safeguarded and will be more acceptable in the homes. If those New York labor agents get hold of them even overnight it's all off so far as this section is concerned.

"On a recent trip to New York I heard women immigrants just off the boat offered as high as $45 a month and home to cook. We simply can't meet these sort of prices, and while the people here are willing to pay a little more than they are paying negroes it is impossible to supply this section with white servants in any other way than that I have suggested." McCaw.

BIG FERTILIZER TRADE.

Columbia, March 20.—The fertilizer tag tax receipts will beat all records in 1906. To date the receipts for the year 1906 total $132,686.54, as against $92,711 up to the same date last year. Already the total so far this year is greater than the tax for all of last year, which was a record breaker itself. Last year the tax amounted to $130,439.53. All of this money goes to Clemson College for its support.

NEW BREEDS OF COTTON.

Washington, March 20.—It was made known today at the bureau of plant industry, department of agriculture, that following a series of experiments extending over several years, the bureau's experts had developed a number of new breeds of cotton, the seed of which are ready to be sent out for next season's planting, which promise to almost double the value of the cotton crop wherever they are used.

These new cottons have been bred from native and short staple upland variety and are from a half to three-quarters of an inch longer in fiber than cotton grown from the parent seeds.
