The D. J. Chandler Clothing Co. has an advertisement today. Have you read it?

They say in Greenville that the cotton crop of that county will be delayed but not seriously injured. Reports from Sumter farmers tell a far different tale.

The Georgetown Masons will probably soon get $5,000 from the federal government in damages for the burning of their temple by the Northern troops in 1866. Representatives of the order and of the government have been to Georgetown recently taking testimony, and they are confident that the congressional committee on claims will make a favorable report.

CHARLESTON'S GALA WEEK.

Preparations Well Under Way For the Annual Fall Festival.

Charleston is now preparing for her annual Gala Week to be held November 5 to 10, and extends a cordial invitation to all the people of the State. A rate of one fare, plus 25 cents for the round trip has been secured on all railroads in South Carolina and for several points in North Carolina and Georgia.

The program as far as announced shows that there will be splendid military features, including a competitive "Guard Mount" by militia of the State. A mammoth pyrotechnic and aquatic carnival on the harbor, off the Battery Floral, Fantastic, Military and Trades Parades, band concerts, etc. Everything will be free.

Pimples call for immediate treatment. There's nothing more offensive and dreaded than a pretty face covered with eruptions. The body must be kept perfectly healthy with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. Tea or Tablets, 35 cents. China's Drug Store.

DEATH.

Mr. Marcus G. Ryttenberg, for many years one of Sumter's most prominent business men, died on Saturday at the home of his brother, Mr. Abe Ryttenberg, on Washington street. The cause of death was heart disease and the end came suddenly and unexpectedly. Mr. Ryttenberg had suffered from a slight indisposition for several days, but there was no reason to apprehend any serious results.

Mr. Ryttenberg came to Sumter in the early 70's and established the business which afterwards grew into the firm of J. Ryttenberg & Sons, which for a period of years did the most extensive business in this section of the State. Mr. Ryttenberg was about sixty years of age, and was so active, mentally and physically, that he apparently had many years before him. For a number of years he had made his home in New York, but spent at least half of the year here looking after his business interests and had never lost touch with Sumter and Sumter affairs. His wife and one son, who are in New York, survive him. The body was taken to New York for interment. Mr. and Mrs. Abe Ryttenberg, Mr. I. A. Ryttenberg and I. C. Strauss accompanied the remains to New York, the party leaving Saturday afternoon on the 6.20 train.

Mr. Ryttenberg had many friends in this city and county, who will hear of his death with sincere regret, and will mourn his untimely taking off long after time has mellowed the keen sorrow that they now feel in the hour of bereavement.
 Mr. Ryttenberg was a Past Master of Claremont lodge No. 64, A. F. M. and a member of Beulah Chapter, R. A. M., Past Dictator in the Knights of Honor and other secret orders.

FUNERAL.

Thursday at Hagood funeral services were performed over the body of Mrs. T. O. Sanders. She was the widow of the late Thomas O. Sanders and sister of Mrs. J. D. Graham of this city. Her surviving sons are Mr. A. K. Sanders, Charlie Sanders, T. O. Sanders and Julian Sanders. She had been in Hendersonville for her health and died there Wednesday. Her body was at once brought home for burial.

SMALL FIRE.

At 11 o'clock Saturday or thereabouts, an alarm was sent in from Bartlett street, and the reel companies ran down Liberty and around the corner in fine style. It was only a small negro house with only a small fire going on inside. It was extinguished so quickly that those who had neither automobile nor bicycle, thought there had been a false alarm and met the crowd returning before their slower gait had brought them to the scene.

Recorder's Court.

On Wednesday of last week only two offenders were tried before Recorder Hurst and both were found guilty. One was a white man on a charge of public drunkenness. He plead guilty and paid five dollars. Then an old acquaintance of the court, Boozer Dozier, came up, though quite reluctantly, and as it turned out his welcome was not cheering. He was charged with stealing a quarter from Mr. J. F. Pate. Boozer is a sport and always takes his fighting chance, pleading not guilty. He was convicted however and given twenty dollars or thirty days. He did not want, so he said, to pay the fine, so he was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Raffield for the chain gang.

Five cases were tried this morning before Recorder Hurst, and two of the offenders were white. R. S. Logan was one of these, and he was familiar with his surroundings. He plead guilty to the charge of drunkenness but denied being disorderly. This denial however, was only taken by the Court to show the abnormal standards of the man, and it had no weight as evidence. He had been heard cursing loudly and with repetitions along the streets and was declared guilty on both counts. He accepted his thirty days, not having the alternative fifteen dollars.

Next H. R. McDaniel got two dollars or four days for public drunkenness.

Then a negro came up for stealing stolen goods. Marion Durant is his name, but Bub Evans is the name of what he is called. He had paid good money for the clothes, getting them from a woman who said their owner, Elijah Adams had given them to her for his oard. High finance was now apparent in the relations of Bub, Elijah and the woman. To begin with Elijah did owe her board, three dollars worth, but on Monday last had lent her one dollar and a quarter, and, of course, the woman owed Bub the value of the stolen clothes. The Court decided that Elijah should have back his clothes, that his loan of one and a quarter to the woman should be considered a payment and that his remaining indebtedness of one seventy-five should go to the well-deceived Bub; finally that the rest of the clothes money, minus the one seventy-five should be paid by the woman to Bub. Everybody was turned loose and the losers were the woman and Elijah who had to pay their debts and board respectively. The pleasant part of it all is that these two were not on trial, but were prosecuting Bub.

Furman Hodges was fined five dollars for public drunkenness. William Calhoun, colored, was accused of trespassing on Stephen Anderson's land. The chances are that he was guilty, for with the consent of his prosecutor, he let the case be dropped, paying five dollars in costs.

County Teachers Examination.

County Superintendent of Education Cain was here Friday for the purpose of holding teacher's examinations for the year. The Court House was used for this, the white candidates sitting down stairs and the colored on the floor above. There were six white teachers trying for certificates and about fifteen colored.

POOR JUDGMENT in the selection of a suit of clothes usually accompanies poor judgment in other things.

It is as bad to be undressed as to be overdressed.

Wear clothes in harmony with your station.

The sack suit we illustrate here is appropriate for solid, substantial men in

ANY WALK OF LIFE

Every detail has been studied and planned to be in keeping with the character of the man who is to wear it.

The style is conservative, and yet keeps pace with the trend of fashion. The length has been increased, the back made form fitting, the lapels broadened, shoulders widened and the front shaped to accord with the prevailing fashion without being extreme.

These excellent suits, start at $10 and run up by easy steps to $25.

Our Hart, Schaffner & Marx all-wool suits from $18 to $25 are the most popular that we have ever sold.

SOMETIMES IT DOES!

A Hearty Meal Should Never Annoy or Distress.

A hearty meal should have a sense of gratification and comfort. It should never annoy or distress. If you have indigestion and discomfort after eating, it shows that your digestive organs are weakened and they cannot perfectly care for the food which has been swallowed. If you cannot eat and digest with pleasure and comfort three good square, hearty meals each day, you need to use Mi-o-na stomach tablets, and you should go to J. E. W. DeLorme for a box at once.

stomach trouble by strengthening and regulating the whole digestive system, thus enabling the organs to take care of the food you eat without any distress or discomfort.

Use Mi-o-na for a few days and the nervousness, sleeplessness, general debility and weakness, backache, loss of appetite, headache and other ills that are caused by indigestion will be banished and you will feel well all over.

Mi-o-na makes positive and lasting cures and is sold under an absolute guarantee that the money will be refunded unless the remedy cures. Ask J. E. W. DeLorme to show you the guaranteed gives with every 50c box of Mi-o-na.

FOR SALE—5-horse farm, Rafting Creek, on ship on Charleston road, opposite Mr. E. R. Alston's T. P. 5 miles.

A rumor has been current for two days that two hundred Clemson cadets had been expelled for hazing. The truth is that the majority of students there oppose the custom and only three have been dismissed for that offense. The names of the three have been suppressed by the faculty. They will probably be lost in the numbers turned away for failing in entrance examinations.
