Jail deliveries and attempts to escape are becoming entirely too frequent.
Boys who go gunning for turkeys may wind up in the chain gang. The plea that they mistook the turkey for wild turkeys will not be good in court.

The proposition to put down cement sidewalks on Main and Liberty streets seems to have been pigeon-holed.
The Majestic Mfg. Co., of St. Louis, Mo., have a man at the Burns Hardware Co. store this week showing the Majestic Range in actual operation, baking and serving biscuits to the large crowds.

Chief of Police Bradford has put a stop to the boys congeating on the school grounds in the afternoon. He issued his orders and the boys are obeying them.
James Davie, colored, who was convicted in the Recorder's court Monday of larceny and sentenced to pay a fine of $15 or serve 30 days on the chain gang, and Boozer Dozier, who was sentenced to 30 days for guard beating, escaped from the guard house that night. They have not yet been captured.

Proceedings were instituted in the United States District Court, in Charleston, Friday, by creditors of the Edens Company to have that concern declared a bankrupt. It is reported on good authority that the company has made an offer to settle with their creditors on a basis of 25 cents on the dollar.
Nothing has yet been heard of Mahn, who recently escaped from the county jail. It is not known what efforts have been made to apprehend and reincarcerate this fugitive from justice, and it looks as if the authorities are willing to sit passive and allow Mahn to go on his way rejoicing.

On Sunday afternoon Mr. J. W. Singletary and Miss Mims were united in marriage, Rev. P. F. Kilgo performing the ceremony.

Miss Uleta Wells and Mr. Charles Marion Zeigler, of Charleston, were married at 5 o'clock Wednesday at the home of Mr. G. A. Brown, the bride's brother-in-law, on Harvin street. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. F. M. Satterwhite, was witnessed by the near relatives of the bride and a few friends. The parlor in which the marriage rite was celebrated, was tastefully and appropriately decorated for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler left on the evening train for an extended bridal trip.

Mrs. Charlotte Doar, widow of the late Stephen D. Doar, of South Santee, Berkeley county, died at "Harrietta," the home of her son, Mr. David Doar, on Thursday last, in the ninety-second year of her age. She was the grandmother of Mrs. Geo. D. Shore and Capt. T. S. Doar, of this city.

Mr. N. B. Scarborough Dead.
Bishopville, Nov. 26.—Mr. N. B. Scarborough, aged about 70 years, of Elliott, this county, died this morning at 4 o'clock of old age. Mr. Scarborough leaves one brother, Col. W. D. Scarborough, of Dalzell, and five children to mourn his death. His children are Mr. John Scarborough, of Lanes, Messrs. Henry and Walter, of Elliott, Mrs. T. E. Richburg, of Elliott, and Mrs. H. E. Moneyhan, of Bishopville.

The funeral and burial services will take place at the old family burying ground near Manville tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Scarborough was a gentleman in every sense of the word and a man of a great deal of influence in his community and one who will be missed by all who knew him.

The petition for the commutation of the death sentence now imposed upon John Henderson was presented to Gov. Heyward on yesterday. The Governor immediately referred the petition and other papers accompanying it to Judge Klugh and Solicitor Wilson, and would not commit himself until those gentlemen could be heard from. He intimated that he might grant a respite until the next meeting of the Board of Pardons.

On last Saturday, the 16th instant, the boldest attempt at turkey stealing that I ever heard of occurred on Mrs. S. C. Raffield's place, about five miles northwest of Sumter. Three white boys from your city, armed with guns and followed by dogs, like bird hunters, shot into a drove of turkeys of William Lewis, a respectable negro, living on the place. Only the appearance of his wife on the scene prevented the turkey thieves from securing their booty. They had shot and killed one turkey when they saw her. The boys dropped the turkey and made double quick time for the woods and thus escaped before assistance arrived. Three boys were seen by several people who will recognize them. There is a good chance for them to have to face Judge Williamson on the charge of turkey stealing, as I understand that one at least is known and the others are being looked after. H. A. Raffield.

MARRIED.
Miss Lullie Brown and Mr. D. J. Burns were married Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. Charles Thames, the bride's step-father, by Rev. P. F. Kilgo. The ceremony was witnessed by relatives and a few friends of the bride and groom. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Burns left for Georgetown, where Mr. Burns is engaged in business.

SHOOTING TURKEYS.
A Bold Attempt to Steal Turkeys by White Boys Disguised as Bird Hunters.

On last Saturday, the 16th instant, the boldest attempt at turkey stealing that I ever heard of occurred on Mrs. S. C. Raffield's place, about five miles northwest of Sumter.

Three white boys from your city, armed with guns and followed by dogs, like bird hunters, shot into a drove of turkeys of William Lewis, a respectable negro, living on the place. The Majestic Range Demonstration at the Burns Hardware Company opened this morning and the attendance was even larger than anticipated. The careful housewives of Sumter are always appreciative and anxious to learn how to obtain better results and save labor for themselves and their servants, consequently they have taken advantage of the cooking demonstration which will continue the balance of the week.

SCHWERIN—O'HAGAN.

Prosperous Business Man of Sumter Wins a Popular and Charming Young Lady of Charleston For His Bride.

One of the prettiest weddings seen in Charleston this season was solemnized in the Pro-Cathedral last evening when Mr. J. A. Schwerin, Jr., of Sumter, was married to Miss Mary O'Hagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. O'Hagan, by Father Budds. An assemblage that filled the pews, overflowed into the aisles and crowded the street in front of the Pro-Cathedral, bore witness to the interest taken in the ceremony and the popularity of the bride, who is a charming young lady of many charms and accomplishments.

The Cathedral was elaborately decorated with roses, vines, carnations and palms. The three columns nearest the altar were twined about with roses and trailing vines, while the sanctuary itself was profusely decorated with carnations and white roses, which were scattered among the numerous candles.

The decorations called forth many expressions of admiration and praise. The building was illuminated by the soft light of the candles about the altar, and the gas jets in the main part of the building, and the half-light served to enhance the beauty of the flowers and vines and to heighten the effect of the other decorations. The sisters of Our Lady of Mercy arranged the decorations in the building.

Shortly after 6 o'clock the wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played and the attendants entered. The groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. J. T. Solomons, of Greenville. Miss Birdie Austin, of Joplin, Mo., was the maid of honor. The bride entered on the arm of her father. The attendants were Miss Florie Ramm, Mr. William O'Hagan, Miss Mamie Dixon, Mr. Robert O'Hagan, Miss Mamie Keelan, Mr. Joseph Condon. Flower girl, Miss Loretta O'Hagan. Cushion bearers, Miss Katherine McAlister, Miss Katie Purse.

The ushers were Messrs. Leonard Peoples, William O'Brien, L. Michel, William Muller and Dennis O'Brien. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom were driven to the residence of the bride's father at No. 171 Meeting street. The beautiful home had been decorated by Miss Josie Hosing, who was assisted by the bridesmaids. A reception was held at the home, which was very largely attended, and at which the bride and groom received the congratulations of their numerous friends and acquaintances. A course dinner was served later, in the evening, Miss Josie Hosing caterer; all the delicacies of the season, together with the substantial and liquid refreshments, were served in the brilliantly illuminated dining hall.

Among the presents received by the popular young people were a deed to their future home in Sumter, the gift of the groom's father and mother; a handsome and well filled purse by the father and mother of the bride; a purse of gold from the eldest brother of the bride, and numerous other presents of silver, china, linen, pictures, etc.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Schwerin, of Sumter; J. T. Solomons, Greenville; Miss Marie Rotholls, Darlington; Mrs. Solomons, Troy; Miss Austine, Joplin, Mo., and C. A. Munster and Miss Mamie Luke, both of Savannah.

After the reception last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Schwerin left the city for Augusta, where they will spend a few days. They will then go to Atlanta and will visit other southern points before going to Sumter, where they will reside in the future.

The wedding reception and dinner were all greatly enjoyed by the numerous friends of the bride and groom, and the reception was characterized by a bounteous hospitality that banished at once that rigid formality which so often mars the pleasure of a gathering at which the gentlemen are in full dress and the ladies in evening gowns.—News and Courier, Nov. 22.

Husband's Argument.

The late Susan B. Anthony, related the New York Tribune, once attended a wedding in Rochester, and at the reception she said to the bridegroom:

"If you want this marriage to be a happy one, you must be as kind and tender always as you are now. I once knew a young couple whose marriage had not turned out as happily as it should have done. The wife said to the husband one evening:

"Before we were married, dear, you were always giving me presents. Why do you never give me any now?"
"My love," the husband replied, "did you ever hear of a fisherman giving bait to a fish he had caught?"

A Full Stock To Select From.

It is a matter of serious regret to us that we are not doing as much business as we would like to but the fault is not ours, it is chargeable to the shortness of the cotton crop upon which we have to depend so much.
Those who are familiar with the situation say

WE ARE THE BUSIEST STORE IN TOWN

but if that be so, we can only express sympathy for our neighbors. It is true there are many days that we cannot wait on the trade intelligently, but they do not come as often as we would like to.

Every department of our stores will be found amply supplied to meet any demand that may be made upon us. Some had to be replenished, others are overstocked as a result of early Fall purchases. It is needless to say that we are anxious to unload our surplus stock and will not permit any reasonable opportunity to do so to escape us, as the season is getting late.

DRESS GOODS. TABLE DAMASK. FLANNELS.

We have made a deep cut here it hurts us but helps you.
See our offerings at 39 cents a yard, worth 50 to 60c.

You will always find our line of damask complete and up-to-date. Everybody buys and that is why we keep such a full stock.
Prices 25 cents to $1.50 a yd.
TOWELS.
There is no better towel can be bought for 25 cents than we sell.

We carry a very full stock of these in red and from 12½c to 50c a yard.
OUTING FLANNELS.
We bought these in the Spring and the number we are selling now at 8½c cannot be duplicated to sell for less than 10c.

SILKS. SILKS.
Here is another great saving for those who are interested 75 cents to 1.00 values at 60c.

Godman Shoes. Reed Shoes. Just Wright Shoes.

Since we reduced the price on our Godman Shoes they have been moving rapidly.
As soon as the surplus stock is unloaded we will go back to the regular price.

We could give unlimited testimonials as to the wearing qualities of these goods. They are a combination that is hard to beat—quality style and comfort. Prices 2.00 to 3.50

These were strangers until about a year ago, but it is remarkable how quickly people find out a good thing. The Just Wright are now as popular with the men as our Reed brand is with the ladies. Prices 3.50 to 5.00.

A FULL LINE OF CHILDREN'S and BOYS' SHOES FROM 50c TO 2.50 PER PAIR

CLOTHING.

We thought we were seriously hurt in this department but the special prices made in the early part of the month attracted attention, and it is remarkable to see how the piles have been reduced on our tables. Some people express surprise at the enormous stock of clothing we carry, and our only explanation is that we have a demand for it and sell it. Regular clothing houses enjoy the reputation of getting fancy prices, but with us it is marked on a basis of our general average profit, which probably accounts for our success with it.
